Young Soldier Dies As Speeding 'Cycle Crashes Into Car

(Picture on page 5)

A young soldier stationed at Ft. Baker in Southern Marin was killed yesterday afternoon when his motorcycle smashed head-on into an automobile near the Fireside restaurant on Shoreline highway.

Dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital was Sp/4c Max Ray Vaughn, 20, of the 561st Engineer Company at Fort Baker.

Witnesses said Vaughn, southbound on Shoreline, rounded a curve at high speed on the wrong side of the road and slammed into the front of a northbound car driven by Carl F. Guenzel, 44, of Spokane, Wash.

The impact was so severe it knocked the car back about 12 feet. The motorcycle landed 33 feet away.

Guenzel's daughter, Lois, 16, riding with her father, suffered a broken nose. Guenzel sustained bruises of the left leg and hand and a back injury. Both were released after treatment at Marin General.

The accident, at 4:15 p.m., brought Marin's 10th traffic fatality of 1959. A year ago there had been 11 traffic fatalities by this date.

Vaughn was unmarried. Army records list his next of kin as his father, Venson E. Vaughn, of Medina, Ohio.

Funeral arrangements had not been made this morning. The body was at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael pending final arrangements.

Airport Proposed For San Rafael

State Aeronautics Unit Promotes Plan

The California Aeronautics Commission is interested in promoting an airport in San Rafael, Mayor John F. McInnis disclosed last night. And city councilmen are willing to listen to proposals to see how feasible the plans are.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen said he would arrange to have Arthur R. Kendall of Sacramento, field representative of the California Aeronautics Commission, appear at a meeting of the city council.

Mayor McInnis said Kendall is interested in an airport off San Quentin Point and details can be provided by Kendall when he appears before the council.

As McInnis understands it, the federal government will contribute 54 per cent of the cost, with 46 per cent to be raised locally, he said.

The mayor said a land owner off San Quentin Point may be willing to donate land for the airport. This donated land could be included in the 46 per cent local contribution, thus cutting the size of any bond issue that would be needed to finance the airport. Total cost of the airport is estimated to be $540,000.

Councilman Louis H. Baar said he would rather see an airport than the proposed civic center north of Santa Venetia. Councilman Fred E. Jensen warned that many individuals and groups will oppose an airport, although he himself is not opposed. But all councilmen agreed they would listen to Kendall and see what he has to present.

STEEL UNION IN NEW BID FOR CONTRACT

NEW YORK (UPI)—David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, today made a new bid to break the contract deadlock only 12 hours before 500,000 steel workers were scheduled to go on strike.

McDonald said the union would agree to writing into the contract a statement that it was not opposed to technological progress in the plants. His offer was an effort to appease a major industry demand.

The industry had demanded contract language revision in connection with automation and other technological advances. (See story on page 4.)

Postcard Row In Hub Vote

City Councilman Carleton G. E. Little charged today that 750 postcards advocating a "yes" vote in today's San Anselmo civil service change election were "left on a shelf" of the Hub City post office and not distributed until voting was well under way.

Post office attaches admitted the cards, mailed Sunday night, were not distributed yesterday. But they said it was through inadvertence that the cards failed to make the Monday distribution.

DISTRIBUTED TODAY

All 750 cards, plus some more which Little mailed yesterday, were distributed to addressees today, said Postmaster Manuel Dos Reis.

"Ninety per cent of the people got them before they went to the polls," he declared.

Few had gone to the polls this morning. An Independent-Journal check at 11:30 a.m. showed that of 956 eligible to ballot at Wade Thomas School, only 36 had voted; of 1,100 eligible at Isabel Cook School, only 60, and of 350 eligible at the State Farm Insurance office, only 38.

AFTERNOON VOTING

Most of the voting was expected in late afternoon.

The proposal before Hub City voters today was for removing from the classified service covered by the civil service ordinance the positions of police chief, fire chief, building inspector, park and playground superintendent and superintendent of streets.

A two-thirds "yes" vote is necessary for passage.

All members of the city council except Mrs. Carmel H. Booth have urged a "yes" vote on the proposition. The San Anselmo

Adenauer Changes Stand On Summit

GENEVA (UPI) — West Germany has suggested that the Big Four recess the foreign ministers conference again and go straight to the summit on the broader issues of security and disarmament if Russia deadlocks the talks on Berlin, diplomatic sources disclosed today.

It was a surprise about-face by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer who previously had been adamantly opposed to a meeting of the Big Four chiefs of government without firm agreement on Berlin by the foreign ministers.

The United States accused Russia today of trying to freeze the East-West talks in deadlock by the sudden attempt to blackmail the West into recognizing communist East Germany.

An American delegation spokesman labeled as "obstructive" the Soviet demand that the East Germans sit in on secret negotiating sessions of the Big Four foreign ministers.

The diplomatic sources said West Germany suggested that details of the Berlin problem, in case of a stalemate here, should be "put over" to a third Big Four foreign ministers conference to be convened after a meeting of the heads of state.

The sources said the suggestion was made in a written memorandum delivered yesterday morning to U.S. Secretary of State Christian Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

It summed up West Germany's assessment of the first six weeks of the conference and contained proposals for a western policy during the second half.

No formal conference session was scheduled for today but the western ministers held two strategy meetings to discuss the situation.

Marin Is Out As Sea Water Plant Locale

Marin County has been dropped from the list of possible locations for a federal government California sea water distillation plant, it was revealed today.

Though Marin had been earlier named as one of 10 possible sites, Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton today announced in San Francisco there are now only seven remaining possibilities—San Diego, Lompoc, Ventura County, Orange County, San Clemente, Monterey County and Camp Pendleton.

DEMONSTRATION UNIT

Seaton said first of five demonstration water conversion plants will be built by the government at Freeport, Tex., to produce a million gallons of fresh water daily. But atomic power won't be used there.

Seaton revealed the Department of the Interior has asked the Atomic Energy Commission to provide a low-temperature, low-pressure atomic reactor as heat source for the California plant. Work on specifications will start this week but no date has yet been set for beginning the plant work.

Seaton's announcements were to have been made personally in a speech before the American Water Works Assn. in San Francisco, but because of a throat infection he could not appear, and the talk was given for him by Allen Cywin, assistant director of the office of saline water, Department of the Interior.

'NO IDLE DREAM'

"It is no idle dream," said the text, "to prophesy that one day conversion plants along our coasts, as well as in many inland areas, will be as common as the familiar standpipe."

Of the five plants contemplated, under a law approved by the president last September, three will convert sea water and two will convert inland brackish water.

The Freeport plant, Seaton said, will convert sea water to fresh at a cost of under $1 per thousand gallons. This plant won't need a boiler because Dow Chemical Co. will sell steam to the plant, according to the secretary.

Seaton said he will make the final West Coast choice after he receives his report from a special site selection board.

A third conversion process will later be demonstrated for handling brackish water in a plant on the northern Great Plains or the arid southwest area, Seaton said. He explained that new methods of obtaining

Boat Serves As Home For Family Of Six

By RANDALL GOULD

"We were between houses, so we bought a boat instead," explained Alaska newsman Jack Ryan, 39.

Ryan was placidly sipping coffee in the roomy cabin of the craft in question — the 37-foot Tahiti ketch Little Flower, moored at a guest berth of the Marin Yacht Club on San Pedro road, San Rafael. Ryan's statement makes sense till the visitor notices others about the small sailing ship: Ryan's pretty young wife, Patricia, surrounded by the four Ryan offspring, Stephen, 9, Margaret Mary 8, Pattiann, 7, and Jackie Marie, 6.

Neither Ryan feels that any complication exists as long as the ensemble stays at sea.

"It's only in port that we seem to run into problems" said Ryan. "This is a wonderfully good sea boat and we get along fine when we shove off. We've ridden out high winds with small craft storm warnings through a night and a day, and during the night the children didn't even wake up.

"But when we come ashore . . . Well, you know there are such things as money to think about."

Neither the money nor any other problem seemed insurmountable when the Ryans came to their time of big decision up in Fairbanks, Alaska, last year after 10 years of married life there. As Ryan put it:

"We'd outgrown our first house; it was going to be a big investment to get another. We both like to travel and we felt that if we were ever going to travel any more this was the time to do it between houses.

"So we decided to move on a boat and get going; stop now and then for schooling and to make money, and after, say, four years, settle down.

"But so far it seems impossible to decide where we should finally stop, because everywhere we go it seems to be a nice place. And then after a while we want to get going again — now it looks like going through the Panama Canal, maybe the Galapagos Islands, probably finally Europe where we can work at American overseas bases."

Both the Ryans come from Puget Sound. One of his boyhood exploits was to buy a

San Rafael Boosts Pay Of City Help

All employees of the City of San Rafael will get a 5 per cent raise in pay—either in cash or in medical insurance and cash. Most department heads will get bigger boosts in salary.

In their final budget discussion last night San Rafael city councilmen decided that a 5 per cent across-the-board increase is the best they can give this year, whether it be in salary or in medical insurance.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen said he would ask all employees which they would prefer—a 5 per cent salary raise alone, or a 5 per cent salary raise minus the cost of medical insurance.

In either case, cost to the city would be the same.

Here are the pay boosts voted for department heads:

City Manager Andersen, from $11,000 per year to $12,500; Public Works Director Norris Rawles from $9,300 to $10,800; City Engineer Dominic Selmi from $8,832 to $9,600; Building Inspector Clifford Monk from $7,800 to $8,500.

OTHER SALARIES

Salaries of the city clerk-assessor, police chief and the tax collector-treasurer were set before the last April election. Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa gets $9,600 per year, as compared with the former chief, who drew a total of $9,000 per year in salary, car allowance and as parking meter supervisor.

Treasurer-Tax Collector Angelina Soldavini draws $7,800 instead of $6,300 paid before the election.

City Clerk W. L. Morgan's pay was set last February as follows: He was getting $625 as clerk, $100 as "finance officer," and $50 car allowance; total $9,300 per year. The council, last February, decided to raise the salary to $750, abolish the "finance officer" title, and indicated a $50 car allowance; total $9,600 per year.

FINANCE OFFICER

But last night, the council gave him the "finance officer" title again, which makes his salary $10,200 per year ($9,000 as clerk and $1,200 as finance officer).

Fire Chief C. M. Johansen's pay remains at $7,860 per year, but Deputy Fire Chief Vance Trivett goes from $7,200 to $7,800.

All other employees will get straight 5 per cent raises.

The pay raises will bring the total budget to well over two million dollars, but the tax rate will remain at 96 cents, the city manager said.

The public works projects were pared somewhat for the coming year, but they still total a whopping $489,000. Here is Rawles' priority list for the coming year:

1. Levee along the southeasterly bank of Mahon Creek from Francisco boulevard to Lindaro street.
2. Storm water pump station near Mosquito Abatement District.
3. Carryover projects such as Lootens place, C street, and Fifth avenue storm drain.
4. Slide corrections.
5. Maintenance, overlay of various streets.
6. Union street extension.

Hoffa Admits Dickering With Bridges

WASHINGTON (AP)— Teamsters Union president James R. Hoffa acknowledged defiantly today he is dickering for a pact with the West Coast Longshoremen's Union, expelled by the old CIO in 1950 for allegedly following the Communist line.

Hoffa denounced the ouster of the longshoremen as a phony act and defended Harry Bridges and Louis Goldblatt of Mill Valley, the Longshoremen's president and secretary-treasurer. (Earlier story on page 7).

But he flung a shouted warning at the Senate committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy: "Don't put me in their (Bridges and Goldblatt's) class."

Hoffa told Kennedy that "you'll get good and sued" if Kennedy makes any speeches linking Hoffa's name with communism.

Kennedy firmly retorted, "I'm certainly going to make speeches and point out the facts," of Hoffa's acknowledged negotiations for an agreement of some sort between the Teamsters and the Longshoremen.

The nature of the alleged pact remains in dispute.

Day School Expansion Work Starts

Construction began this morning on an $80,000 expansion at Marin Country Day School on Paradise drive in Corte Madera.

An ambitious master plan for the development of the private school was approved last night by the Corte Madera Planning Commission.

Ultimate development will divide the school's 36 acres into four areas: A primary school for kindergarten through fourth grade; an upper school for fifth through eighth grade; an "allied arts" center of science building, library and administration building and a "transportation quad" at the entrance of the school where buses will load and unload.

Construction begun today by Contractor Ralph Murphy and Son of San Rafael includes a music building, an arts and crafts building, and an administration and library building. The library will be used temporarily as two classrooms, said Mrs. E. D. Mendenhall Jr., of Belvedere, president of the school's board of trustees.

Target date for completion is opening of school in September, when 250 pupils will enroll. The future campus is designed for an enrollment of 370.

The new buildings were designed by John Lyon Reid and Associates, San Francisco ar-

Gambling Raid Results: 13 Suspects, No Arrest

A mass sheriff's raid on a suspected gambling operation last Friday night in Marin City was disclosed today by Chief Criminal Deputy Ellis Seibert.

Seibert and Undersheriff Eugene Meyer said the raid was not made public sooner because the report of the raid by Marin City deputies was not completed until today.

Thirteen suspected gamblers were trapped at A-29, apartment 229 by six sheriff's deputies who surrounded the apartment about 6 p.m. Friday. Each of the 13 denied they were shooting dice, although several admitted that a game was going on at the time. No arrest was made because of insufficient evidence.

Deputies Edmond Mauberret, Edward Klementovich, Fredrick Marcus and Harold Sleezer went to the front door and knocked, while Seibert and Inspector Marco Melovich covered the rear door and windows.

When Marcus knocked, someone opened a shade and spotted the officers. There was a big scuffle inside, deputies reported. All the men made a dash for the back door and window, only to face the business end of .38 caliber revolvers. Two men dived under a low cot, overturning it, Seibert reported.

When officers stepped in, a cigar box containing coins dropped to the floor, spilling the contents. A pair of dice, a deck of cards and a pocket knife were confiscated.

No one seemed to know who owns the apartment or who had been throwing dice.

FLEDGLING EDITOR 'BORROWS' RARE PICTURE—AND TROUBLE

Pearce Gardiner Davies Jr., 37, of Sausalito, was charged last night with malicious mischief and petty theft for allegedly cutting a valuable picture out of a Sausalito library book to illustrate the first edition of a fledgling publication.

Police Chief Howard Goerndt said Davies borrowed the book, "In Tamal Land," from the library May 21. When it was returned four weeks later, said Goerndt, a library employee noted that a page was missing.

Davies was arrested at his home at 358 Litho street by Donald E. Midyett, chief investigator for the district attorney's office, and Police Officer Peter Lampros. He was booked in the county jail, and later released on $250 bail.

Employment Rises To Record In June

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment surged to a record high of 67,342,000 in June. A gain of 1,326,000 was built on strong factory hiring and seasonal rises in farming and construction.

The Labor Department reported that unemployment rose simultaneously by 593,000 as two million students and new graduates flooded the job market.

As a result unemployment remained at 4.9 per cent of the civilian labor force, after allowing for seasonal fluctuations.

But the steep climb in employment—a gain of 4,600,000 since February—has seldom been matched in history. It attested to the force of the business recovery, department officials said.

Factory workers' average weekly earnings also reached a record at $90.54. The workweek lengthened to 40 hours and 36 minutes on the average, a longer work week than in any June since 1955.

The report issued today by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell stressed the June gain in factory jobs. The increase was 244,000, about double the usual rise for the month. It pushed factory employment to 16,400,000, only about 400,000 below the pre-recession level in mid-1957.

Plot Against Ex-Cuban Air Chief Claimed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Questioning of the former chief of the Cuban air force at a Senate hearing was suddenly halted today and spectators sent from the room. Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) said he had been told "an attempt would be made to injure the witness."

Eastland said the information came in a telephone call just after the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee had begun questioning Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz.

Diaz resigned his post June 30 with a blast at the regime of Fidel Castro. He charged Communists were infiltrating Cuba's military forces.

About 20 minutes after the hearing was suspended, four U.S. soldiers arrived and went into the room. They carried cases which possibly contained bomb detection equipment.

After a survey of the room by the Army men, Capitol police announced that the hearing would be resumed.

Eastland declined to tell newsmen what had happened or to discuss the mission of the Army men.

Lucky Visit By Ex-Wife

It was lucky for Patrick Wall of Sausalito that his ex-wife paid him a visit; otherwise his home at 127 Glen drive might be only a pile of ashes.

The Independent-Journal reported Saturday that Mrs. Rosland Wall of 127 Glen drive discovered her two-story home on fire late Friday, called the Sausalito Fire Department and rushed to safety her two children, Chris, 7, and Miranda, 6.

It wasn't quite like that, Mrs. Wall explained today. The home isn't hers, but that of her divorced husband, from whom she separated four years ago.

Mrs. Wall, who lives in Carmel, came to Sausalito with the children to see her ex-husband for the first time in 18 months. He was at work. They went inside to wait for his return, and Chris noticed the fire.

Wall arrived home at 5:10 p.m., just as firemen were leaving after confining the blaze, which started in grass outside, to the roof and siding.

District Hit By Fire Declared Disaster Area

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Holt (R-Calif.) said yesterday the Small Business Administration has declared the fireswept Laurel Canyon section of Los Angeles a disaster area.

The designation makes residents of the area eligible for loans and benefits under the Small Business Act.

Pay Hike Asked For Mill Valley School Aides

Mill Valley School District Supt. G. R. McConnell recommended to the trustees last night that salaries of all district employees be increased during the new fiscal year to the extent of about $50,000.

His recommendation followed disclosure that the district has received $48,000 in state funds, which, although not entirely unexpected, had not previously been confirmed.

Of the total, $12,000 came from the distribution of state school funds and $36,000 from AB 1000, recently approved by the Legislature.

McConnell called trustees' attention to the undistributed reserve of $75,708 which would be the source of the recommended salary increases.

Mrs. Jean Rosse, board chairman, said trustees were "sympathetic" to the recommendations and would discuss McConnel's proposals at a future meeting.

Trustees also:

1. Authorized four new teaching contracts: Mary Spalding, first grade, Park School; Ellen Crawford, second grade, Park; Rochell Bachrach, sixth grade, Tamalpais Valley; Marilu McGerrity, sixth grade, school unassigned.
2. Took no action on plans for improvement of California avenue near Marin Terrace School, leaving the way open for possible development of an assessment district to accomplish the work.
3. Approved a contribution of about $280 to the Junior Museum of Marin.
4. Set July 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the district office as the time and place for an executive session for "evaluation of the superintendency."

Higher Gate Bridge Budget Recommended

A 1959-60 operating and maintenance budget of $1,642,157, up $134,472 from last year's $1,507,685, for the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District was recommended yesterday by the district director's finance committee.

Despite the increase in the operating-maintenance budget, the district's total budget will be substantially lower than last year's, mainly because only $75,000 is allotted for repair and depreciation reserves, while the same item totaled $375,000 last year.

The total 1959-60 budget, as recommended by the committee and including an item of $65,500 for "equipment and betterment," is $1,782,657 as against last year's $1,937,685.

The district's full board of directors will meet at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow in the bridge administration building to consider the recommended budget.

James Adam, bridge general manager, said most of the increase in the operating budget is in salaries, including pay increases already granted to maintenance workers and in a 5 per cent pay boost recommended for toll collectors, towmen and clerical employees by the committee yesterday and included in the recommended budget figure.

Adam also noted that the budget makes no provision for major improvements to handle the bridge's ever-increasing traffic, and pointed out that any improvements of this nature would be extremely costly.

There was no discussion of the possibility of cutting the bridge toll at yesterday's committee meeting.

Probation Given In Perversion Case

Donald Franklin Davis, 41-year-old radio announcer from Tiburon, drew five years probation yesterday for sex perversion at a hotel restroom in San Rafael last April.

On the recommendation of Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich, Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court suspended a one-year jail term and put Davis on five years probation.

During that time, he must seek and maintain case work or psychiatric treatment until authorized to stop such treatment by the therapist and the probation office.

Convict Forest Conservation Chief Appointed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown, moving to get idle convicts to work on state forest projects, has appointed a veteran corrections officer to head the state's new conservation center.

Merle R. Schneckloth, associate warden in charge of custody at Folsom Prison, was named yesterday to direct what Brown called "a pioneering program in the conservation of men and natural resources."

Schneckloth has been with the Corrections Department since 1945. He came here from the State of Washington, where he held various posts in state prisons.

Reno Newspaper Strike Continues

RENO (AP) — Prospects for settlement of Reno's first newspaper strike appeared dimmer than ever today.

A federal mediator brought management of Reno Newspapers, Inc., and officials of the striking American Newspaper Guild together for the first time in more than two weeks last night.

But both sides reported no progress toward an agreement. Further mediation was recessed indefinitely.

Humphrey Tosses Hat In Demo Ring

SEN. HUBERT H. HUMPHREY
Formally enters race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota formally entered the race for the Democratic presidential nomination today just one year before the party's national convention in Los Angeles.

The announcement of his entry — making him the first major candidate to fling his hat in the ring —— came from Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy (D-Minn.) and Gov. Orville Freeman of Minnesota.

'CANDIDATE KNOWS'

McCarthy, at a news conference here while holding an open telephone line to St. Paul with Freeman on the other end, said in response to a question as to whether Humphrey approved of the move:

"The candidate knows we are making this formal announcement, and of course approves."

McCarthy said Humphrey is ready to compete in Democratic presidential primaries but is "disposed to concede" primaries where genuine favorite sons are entered.

MAY ENTER PRIMARY

Asked whether Humphrey would enter the Wisconsin primary April 5, McCarthy said he could not say definitely but indicated that Humphrey desired to enter it. Wisconsin is expected to pose one of the key primary tests.

None of his likely competitors appears inclined to follow quickly on the heels of Humphrey's ice-breaking leap.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) expressed surprise at Humphrey's early public unveiling of his ambitions. But the Massachusetts senator said this will make no change in his own plans.

Kennedy, who has been unofficially beating the bushes for convention delegates for months, said he will decide at the end of this year or early in 1960 whether he will become an active candidate.

Humphrey Tells Policy On Brown

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) says he won't woo California Democrats in his bid for the presidential nomination if they unite behind Gov. Edmund G. Brown as a "favorite son."

"If the governor and the state party organization are serious about his favorite son candidacy role — as sort of an open-end proposition and more than a holding action —I will respect their judgment," the Minnesota Democrat said.

"If others, however, seek to make a political battleground of the primary in California and there is any indecision on the part of the state organization, I would be compelled to re-assess the situation."

Red Tape Bogs Nixon Russ Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's proposed visit to the Soviet Union is snarled in Soviet red tape—only a week before he is due to take off for Moscow.

After two months of backstage negotiations, Soviet and American authorities have yet to agree on exactly what cities Nixon will visit, how long he will stay and how much freedom his party will enjoy. But top officials are confident these problems will be settled in time for Nixon to leave by jet airliner July 22 as scheduled.

Prospects are he will visit Moscow, talk with Premier Nikita Khrushchev, then perhaps seven other Soviet cities in an unprecedented good-will visit lasting about two weeks.

Most authorities blame the present uncertainty on Soviet bureaucratic delay.

Nicasio Firemen Planning Fete

An aquacade, a fashion show and a style show will be among features of the Nicasio Volunteer Fire Department's 13th annual barbecue and dance at 8 p.m. Saturday.

This is the firemen's only means of raising funds through which to carry on their work, a spokesman said.

Steel Strike Start Looms For Midnight

Both Sides Concede No Real Hope For Averting Walkout

NEW YORK (AP) — A steel strike at midnight loomed inevitably today with union and industry negotiators going through the motions of fruitless last minute bargaining sessions.

Chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper said there was no change in the bargaining stalemate.

However Cooper and Steelworkers Union president David J. McDonald kept talking with fellow negotiators about a possible new contract.

Cooper said the process of closing down the industry in advance of the expected midnight walkout was already well along.

POSE FOR PHOTOS

McDonald and Cooper shook hands and willingly posed for a news photographer before starting their final round of sessions. They engaged in their usual banter with newsmen but conceded that neither had any real hope for averting the walkout.

The steel industry stuck firmly to its position that any extra wage and other concessions would be inflationary.

McDonald said pyramiding industry profits could pay for substantial pay and other contract increases without accompanying price boosts.

LAST-DITCH PROPOSAL

In a last-ditch proposal last night, McDonald said the union was willing to settle for a package increase in pay and benefits worth 15 cents per hour in each year of a three-year contract. Steelworkers now average $3.10 per hour

President Eisenhower for many months has been urging steel negotiators to be moderate.

Eisenhower three times has intervened in the negotiations seeking to keep them going.

"At his urging in late June, the union agreed to delay a strike from July 1 until tonight.

Steel Mills Step Up Shutdown Operations

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Faced with a strike deadline at midnight tonight, basic steel companies today stepped up shutdown operations at mills throughout the nation.

If negotiators in New York don't reach agreement on a new contract or don't approve another extension of the old pact, the mills will be virtually at a standstill by nightfall.

The slow, systematic shutdown began in many mills during the weekend. A number of blast furnaces and open hearth furnaces were completely shut down yesterday with only a little heat being fed into them to prevent sensitive refractory linings from cracking.

Companies transported food, cots and bed clothing into mills for supervisory personnel who must keep a constant watch on the expensive equipment during a strike.

United Steelworkers locals were making picket signs and drawing up picketing assignments and schedules.

Khrushchev Visits Poland

WARSAW (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev flew into the Polish capital today on a state visit designed to demonstrate the solidarity of the two Communist countries in the face of heightening world tension.

He got a warm greeting from Polish Communist party head Wladyslaw Gomulka, with whom he had a stormy all-night session in October, 1956, trying to slow down Poland's headlong rush away from Stalinism.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Four Hijack Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Four Cuban servicemen fled here yesterday by hijacking a Fidel Castro air force plane with 17 persons aboard.

They predicted more Cubans will follow them into exile because of rising Communist influence at home. The Cuban air force mechanics used pistols to persuade a pilot to land them in Miami. They said their plane had been bound for Camaguey

'Miss' Wool Isn't

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Miss Wool isn't a miss any more, and officials of the National Wool Pageant here are wondering what to do next.

Miss Beverly Bentley of Albuquerque, N.M., the current Miss Wool, disclosed yesterday she is now Mrs. Kenneth McCormick of El Paso, Tex.

Pageant rules call for Miss Wool to reign over the August pageant until a new Miss Wool is chosen from candidates entered by more than a dozen wool-producing states.

Mental Patients Riot

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — Twenty-five screaming mental patients broke up furniture, smashed windows and surged into the yard at Central State Hospital last night, but the disturbance was quickly ended.

Supt. J. K. Ogden said he believed the patients staged the 45-minute riot to draw attention to grievances rather than to escape.

Probe Of Landing

NEW YORK (AP)—The Federal Aviation Agency has announced it will investigate reports of widespread confusion on the ground during preparations for landing a crippled jet airliner.

At the same time the Port of New York Authority, which runs Idlewild Airport, said the same thing is bound to happen again.

The Port Authority reported that 50,000 thrill-seekers headed for the airport Sunday when news bulletins on television and radio disclosed that the airliner, with 113 persons aboard, was circling the field and would make an emergency landing with damaged landing gear.

Wade Niagara Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—Police caught two boys wading into the water on the brink of Niagara Falls last night to retrieve good luck pennies tossed by tourists. The boys, whose names were withheld, were turned over to their parents. They had collected 34 cents.

Rocket Shot Delayed

POINT ARGUELLO (AP)—After running out of sunlight on its first attempt, the Navy said it would try again today to launch a rocket equipped to probe solar activity.

The first of 12 shots aimed at gathering information about solar flares was scheduled to be fired from the Navy's new missile facility here last night. But the loading of instruments into the 21-foot-long Nike-Asp rocket took longer than expected and the sun went down before the job could be completed. The tests must be conducted in daylight.

Franco Foe Dies

NEW YORK (UPI)—Rev. Leocardio Lobo, 71, former vicar of Madrid, died here Saturday.

The prelate fled from Spain during the civil war there, after sharply criticizing Generalissimo Francisco Franco. He campaigned against Franco all through the conflict, and was attacked for doing so by fellow catholics.

Bastille Day Parade

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle today gave France Bastille Day display of military pomp and grandeur unmatched ever prewar days.

There was a two and one-half hour parade by 15,000 troops drawn from France's widespread empire.

It was the first Bastille Day parade since de Gaulle's election as president and he gave orders that it be a whopper.

Jets To Cost More

SANTA MONICA (AP)—Prices on five models of DC8 Douglas jetliners will be increased up to 10 per cent after Aug. 15.

Douglas Aircraft Co. announced yesterday that the increases on the five-millon-dollar planes resulted from higher labor and material costs.

Crane For Missiles

CHINA LAKE (AP)—The Navy has disclosed a giant floating crane which will catch dummy Polaris missiles used in underwater test launchings and permit them to be used again

The crane, called Operation Fishhook, will save "many millions of dollars," the Naval Ordnance test station said.

Scouts Ready Fete

MANILA (AP)—A Boy Scout invasion was in full swing today in preparation for the opening Friday of the 10th World Jamboree. Scout leaders estimated more than 3,000 from 51 foreign countries and more than 8,000 Filipino scouts would attend the 10-day encampment.

BOAT

much rundown fishing boat for $1, rebuild it, sail it to Alaska when he was 17 and fish two summers for "college money" which — with added income from a book he did about it all — let him be graduated from the University of Washington school of journalism.

Then he worked for Seattle newspapers, United Press, went back to Alaska to be managing editor of the Anchorage Daily News and moved to editorship of the Fairbanks Daily News Miner.

Mrs. Ryan operated a piano studio and agrees that "we worked hard" — hard enough to fire up over the notion of becoming water gypsies and to take determined action.

No suitable boat was available in Alaska so they flew to Seattle and found just what they wanted, buying in September, 1957.

"Then we ran into problems of outfitting because it seems boats aren't built for families," Ryan related. "This one had been built in Poulsbo, Wash., by an old Norwegian who had meant to sail it back to the old country. But he died first.

"It's a fine boat of a well-known deep sea design originated in 1932. A number have sailed around the world. But for a family you need a lot of special things. For instance, you'd never believe how much water kids can drink. So we put in tanks for 300 gallons of water — ample for 60 days, enough for 90 if you radtioned.

"We got $150 worth of groceries and just lost 'em—provisions go under bunks and all around."

Though the family meant to leave by May or June of last year, meanwhile pausing in Tacoma with the senior Ryans working at newspapering and teaching respectively, they'd just get aboard for take-off when disaster struck in the form of measles.

"Three of the four children had it," said Mrs. Ryan ruefully. "That held us up till mid-July."

Finally they got away and sailed down the coast, "stopping at every port and having every kind of weather but good."

A thousand miles on the ocean thoroughly tested the vessel, they felt, but San Francisco offered no available long-term mooring.

So they went up-river to Sacramento where "Pat" — Mrs. Ryan — promptly got work and the boat underwent some changes, shown necessary by the sea experience. Then they pulled out again, arriving Sunday at San Rafael.

The vessel has three sails, main, mizzen and jib, with a four-cylinder gasoline engine. It is of double-end construction, wide 12-foot beam, and comfortably sleeps all six with two children forward, two aft with the engine, and the parents in the main cabin.

"Now," said Ryan, "the new problem is that we have to put into shipyard here because the boat has been leaking and there's dry rot in the cabin which will have to be resurfaced with mahogany plywood."

Only after this is done can the next leg to Panama be attempted, the Ryans agree. So Mrs. Ryan will be out after a Marin teaching job. Her husband will fly north to serve his former newspaper in Fairbanks again for a few months.

"But we'll be off again pretty soon," they cheerfully agreed.

TIGER WASN'T LOST AT ALL; HE'LL BE BACK

Tiger wasn't lost; he was right in Larkspur all the time.

Last Friday, James Vercellino, who operates Jim's Tavern at 450 Magnolia avenue, Larkspur, and lives upstairs at the same address, reported someone had picked up his pet dachshund, Tiger, while the dog was out for a stroll.

Today, Mrs. Clay Chapman of 143 Elm avenue, Larkspur, said it was her husband who picked up the dog. She read of Vercellino's loss in the Independent-Journal.

"He looked so thin, we thought he must have been lost for days," said Mrs. Chapman.

She said the dog (somewhat plumper than when found) would be returned to the tavern today.

Mill Valley Bond Debate Planned

A debate on the pros and cons of the proposed $600,000 school bond issue to be submitted to voters in the Mill Valley School District Sept. 15 is being planned by the Mill Valley League of Women Voters, according to Mrs. Robert Wickersham, president.

Date of the proposed debate has not yet been set, Mrs. Wickersham said.

She has extended an invitation to all those wishing to participate either for or against the proposal to call her at her Mill Valley home.

chitectural firm, to harmonize with the existing seven classrooms and a multi-purpose building. The new buildings, of wood construction, are described as "non-institutional" in style.

The adopted Marin Country Day School master plan shows a playing field for soccer, a barn and riding range, a gymnasium and a swimming pool.

U.S.-Russ Bridge Link Suggested

NEW YORK (AP)—A proposal to promote American-Soviet unity has been made — hitch the two countries together by a bridge or a tunnel.

The proposal came from Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) who suggests that a 42-mile structure span the Bering Strait, which separates Siberia and Alaska.

"Real American families driving in American-made cars with the kids piled in will do more than a summit conference," to improve relations, said the senator.

State Picks Hayward For College Site

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state Public Works Board, overturning an earlier decision in favor of Pleasanton, has picked Hayward as the site of the Alameda County State College.

Climaxing an all-day hearing requested by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, the board voted 2-1 yesterday in favor of the Saltz Ranch in Hayward over objections from the owners and state Finance Director Bert Levit.

"Nothing really has changed regarding the Saltz property," Levit said. The land, located in an industrial area, was rejected earlier.

The board placed two conditions of acceptance of the property:

1. The Hayward city council must assure "compatible zoning" of surrounding property.

2. Hayward must fulfill its promise to make up the difference if the price exceeds the available $1,600,000.

HAFB Man Held In Rape Attempt

S/Sgt. Ralph L. Wyatt, 29, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was being held by Petaluma police today charged with assault with intent to commit rape.

Entering a Petaluma bedroom by way of an open window at 2:50 a.m. last Saturday, Wyatt removed his clothing and got into bed with the occupant of the home, a housewife with two children, police said.

In response to her phone call, the victim's husband returned from work and called the police. Wyatt made no attempt to escape, according to Police Sgt. Donald Gale and Officer Dale Moore, arresting officers.

Sausalito Will Hear Protests

The Sausalito City Council will sit as a board of equalization tonight to hear protests on city property assessments.

This will precede its regular meeting which has been postponed from last Tuesday. Major item scheduled for discussion is a recommendation from the planning commission that all apartment construction require a minimum of 2,500 square feet of land for each living unit built.

Supervisors Discuss Pt. Reyes Park Plan

Marin's County board of supervisors again today briefly discussed the Point Reyes seashore park proposal without making any move to send its "substantive objections" to the proposal to Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Calif.) as Miller has asked them to do no later than this week.

Miller and Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) have deferred introducing a bill to authorize the park a week in order to allow the Marin supervisors to forward their objections.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said the board's opposition to the bill, voted 4-1 two weeks ago, was in no way a vote opposing the park. It was opposition to a bill which, if enacted, would authorize the federal government to condemn land in the Point Reyes area, until a feasibility study of the park proposal is made, Fusselman insisted.

Supervisor Vera Schultz disagreed, arguing that no condemnation or other land acquisition would take place until a study is made and only if the study findings are favorable.

She contended that the Miller-Engle bills would do no more than add the Marin area to others which are under consideration for national seashore recreation area sites.

Marin Boy On Way To Australia

A 19-year-old graduate of Marin Catholic High School is on his way to Australia for his first meeting with grandparents whom his mother has not seen since a year before he was born.

He is Michael Iribarne, eldest son of Mrs. Isobel Iribarne of 1227 Irwin street, San Rafael.

Just through his freshman year at Notre Dame University, where he ranked among the highest in academic standings of a class of 1,500, he left Sunday on the liner Monterey to visit Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Burrell of Sydney.

During the ship's 42-day cruise, including Tahiti and New Zealand, he will have three days with his mother's parents.

Michael was student president at Marin Catholic High School and was winner of an Elks scholarship. He is expected to return Aug. 23.

Cole's Companion Won't Be Indicted

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The San Francisco Grand Jury voted early today not to indict Yvonne Conley, George Cole's 48-year-old common-law wife, as an accessory after the slaying of Police Sgt. Joseph Lacey.

Cole is accused of fatally shooting the policeman in a Tenderloin tavern robbery here Dec. 23, 1956.

The 32-year-old Cole, object of a two-and-one-half-year manhunt, was picked up in Des Moines, Iowa, with Yvonne last week by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents who traced him to a gas station where he worked.

Motel Signs Approved At Corte Madera

Signs advertising the Edgewater Inn were approved last night by the Corte Madera Planning Commission to replace signs which now exceed the 200 square foot limit set by ordinance.

Planning Commission Chairman John Adlard said the approved signs include one at the north end of the motel, a small one at the entrance, and a directional sign beside the southbound lanes of Highway 101 just before the turnoff to the Corte Madera luxury motel.

Adlard said the planning commission withheld approval for a sign for Bob's of Marin, a restaurant adjoining the motel. Adlard said the sign was "within the size limitation but the exact location wasn't defined for us."

POSTCARD

City Employees Assn. has campaigned for a "no" vote.

Little's cards set forth reasons for voting "yes." He said he mailed the 750 on Sunday night in the "bulk mail" slot of the San Anselmo Post Office.

Postmaster Dos Reis said a postal clerk claimed to have found the cards after the Monday morning mail was sorted for distribution, in a box in the lobby in which letters can be dropped through a slot from outside.

One postal clerk, however, said he had found what he believed were the cards in question while sorting the mail early Monday, but had put them aside while processing other mail and apparently failed to sort them.

Little said he would demand that a post office inspector be called in to investigate the whole matter.

Postmaster Dos Reis said he and the two clerks involved would be present at the San Anselmo City Council meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow to tell their side of the story.

"Mistakes will happen," said Dos Reis. "We do the best we can. Certainly nobody intentionally failed to distribute Mr. Little's cards."

Rebellious Convicts Hole Up In Coal Mine

PETROS, Tenn. (AP)—Rebellious convicts reportedly booby-trapped a coal mine with dynamite at Brushy Mountain State Prison today and refused to give up after releasing one of three hostages.

The state assistant corrections commissioner, Pat Patterson, discussed grievances with the 95 convict miners, and said a spokesman telephoned to the mine entrance:

"We've talked it over and we're not coming out.

State authorities said Shirley Bunch, the hostage who was released, said the convict miners had booby-trapped the entrance with dynamite. The report was unconfirmed from any other source.

Convict spokesmen made it clear, however, that they did not intend to harm anyone—citing their release of Bunch, who said he was having chills.

Bunch, 63, was one of three unarmed mine foremen whom the convicts seized as hostages yesterday morning. He had not been harmed.

Patterson told newsmen later that Gov. Buford Ellington had ordered that there be no concessions to the rebels.

This Patterson said, includes no food, no water.

Patterson said the prisoners' demands included more pay for coal they mine.

Cooperative Buys Stock Of Vinters

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — In a transaction involving about 24 million dollars, directors of Allied Grape Growers and of United Vintners, Inc., have approved purchase by Allied of the stock of United Vintners.

The organizations announced the proposal yesterday. The stock purchase is subject to approval of growers belonging to Allied, and of stockholders of United.

Allied Grape Growers is a co-operative association of California vineyardists.

United Vintners owns Petri, Italian Swiss Colony and other wine brands.

A joint statement said "the purchase price for the stock . . . will be approximately 24 million dollars, payable in installments over a 10-year period."

7 Windows Broken At Lu Sutton School

Vandals broke seven windows at the Lu Sutton School, under construction in West Novato, construction foreman Ray Luoma reported to Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos yesterday.

Luoma, foreman for Reynolds Construction Co. of Santa Rosa, estimated it would cost $90 to replace the windows.

Report Shows 1,398 Juvenile Arrests In County Last Year

A total of 1,398 juvenile arrents were made in Marin County last year, according to "Crime in California, 1958," a booklet compiled by the Bureau of Criminal Statistics of the state attorney general's office.

But of this total, comprising 1,212 boys and 186 girls, only 510—431 boys and 83 girls — were referred to the probation office or court.

This percentage, however, closely followed that of the state as a whole. Of a statewide total of 150,955 juvenile arrests the publication showed only 68,185, or about 45 per cent as turned over for probation or court action.

ACTUALLY NO CHANGE

It was noted that though the total was up 6,000 from 1957, on a rate per 100,000 population basis "the 1958 total actually showed no change from 1957"—the first year that such data were reported.

"A great many youngsters are arrested, booked at juvenile hall, then handled on an informal basis," said Marin Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich.

Walter Busher, chief Marin probation officers, pointed out that definition varies greatly in the matter of juvenile "arrest" for what might be termed only a "police contact" — such as warning a carload of youngsters out riding late at night—can become a statistic and count as an arrest technically.

'WOULD SWAMP US'

"The police are able to handle a great many juvenile matters at the point of contact," he said. "In such instances there is no reason for referring the matter on to us. In fact, it would swamp us if they referred everything of this sort to us."

Marin is among several counties whose rate of felony filings decreased in 1958 as against the previous year, the publication shows.

With 136 such filings last year, and an estimated 137,000 population, Marin had among the lowest rates per 100,000 with a rate of 99 as compared with 283 for Imperial, 270 for Riverside and 243 for Los Angeles. The San Francisco rate is 160. Lowest was San Mateo with 66 among counties of 100,000 population or more among which Marin ranked fourth from the bottom in rate.

WIDEST RANGE

Marin has the widest range of any county of more than 100,000 population in elapsed time for disposition of the middle 80 per cent of superior court cases, a chart showed. This county's range started at nine days and extended to 200, while the San Francisco range was 27 to 139 days and Los Angeles was 28 to 139 days.

Felony crime reports in Marin County totaled 677 for the year, 428 reports of burglary topping the list, with 118 auto thefts, 68 other thefts, 29 assaults, 19 robberies, 13 forcible rapes and two wilful homicides.

Statewide, the publication found improvement in the 1958 crime picture as compared with that of the two previous years.

"Slight increases were noted in adult felony crime," said the volume, "but much lower than the increases that had been experienced during the two previous years. The statewide juvenile delinquency picture indicates no increase at all in 1958 over 1957."

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Industrials perked up late this afternoon to give a sluggish stock market an edge to the upside. Trading was fairly active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,200,000 shares, compared with 3,360,000 yesterday.

Selected industrials posted gains of fractions to a point or so. A good assortment of losers remained from the earlier irregularity.

Gains of more than a point by U.S. Steel and Jones and Laughlin highlighted the steel section.

American Motors advanced more than a point. Chrysler was about a point higher.

Aluminums found renewed strength and aircrafts staged a minor rally.

Reynolds Metals was up more than four and Kaiser Aluminum well over a point.

North American aviation was about a point higher.

Coppers and oils drifted off mildly. Rails were irregularly higher.

Western Effect

NEW YORK (UPI) — TV westerns are apparently proving a blessing to the small arms business. Industry sources predict production of pistols this year will increase 10 per cent to 500,000, with western-style six-shooters accounting for 150,000 to 200,000 of the total.

A HAPPY LITTLE GIRL

It was a joyful reunion yesterday when little Carla Cox, 4, of North Wilkesboro, N. C., embraced her toy Pomeranian dog, Yo-Yo. Carla was taken to Greensboro, N. C., for a second corrective operation on her eyes. During the trip Yo-Yo was lost. Greensboro police, newspaper and the sympathetic public all joined in the effort to find the child's pet and boost her morale before she underwent the surgery. The search was successful and Yo-Yo was returned to his young mistress. Then came more good news for Carla—her first operation, doctors found, had been so successful that additional surgery would not be necessary after all. (AP Wirephoto)

Soil Board Adopts Conservation Program

Four of five members of the newly constituted Marin County Soil Conservation Board at their second monthly meeting yesterday adopted a conservation program and work plan, together with two memoranda of understanding to assure aid from the federal and state governments.

Dave Dresbach, field representative of the California Division of Soil Conservation, presented and obtained adoption of the conservation program and work plan for the district which he had drawn in accordance with similar undertakings elsewhere.

The board also adopted a memorandum of understanding between the district, the state and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, as well as a supplemental memorandum involving the district, the state and the Soil Conservation Service of the Department of Agriculture.

The meeting was held at the Sonoma Marin Dairy plant in Point Reyes Station. In the absence of Waldo Giacomini, president of the new board which had held its organizational meeting June 24, Domingo Grossi Jr., as vice president, was in charge.

Fire Fighters See Victory In Sonoma

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Firefighters predicted victory today over a forest fire which earlier had endangered the small Sonoma County logging town of Annapolis but a lightning-caused blaze in Sequoia National Forest was reported still out of control.

These major fires, along with lesser blazes in widely separated areas, sent "black July" timber losses soaring to thousands of acres in northern California.

FOG AIDS FIGHT

State Forester F. H. Raymond said the fire near Annapolis was 93 per cent controlled at 9 a.m. today and should be fully controlled by noon. A low overnight fog aided fire fighting conditions.

Danger to Annapolis ended early today, said Raymond. Eight families in the town of about 50 sent their women and children to safety Sunday night when the fire threatened to engulf the town. The men stayed to fight the fire.

The blaze had spread over 4,300 acres of private timberland near the Sonoma and Mendocino County boundaries since it started Sunday. About 700 men on the fire line fought with the aid of 21 bulldozers and 25 state operated pumper trucks.

OUT OF CONTROL

Meanwhile a fire caused by lightning was still out of control today in heavy brush and timber in Sequoia National Forest about 15 miles north of Kernville.

U.S. Forest Service spokesmen said the blaze had burned about 4,000 acres of valuable watershed in the Cannel Meadow district since Saturday.

Campers were evacuated in the Kern River canyon area Sunday and late yesterday a woman lookout was taken from Baker Peak as the flames drew near.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown took official concern over the heavy fire damage, ordering state fire equipment to assist local and federal agencies in putting down the blazes.

The blaze, Sequoia National Forest's worst fire since 1955, had burned only through brush areas until yesterday afternoon when it moved into a valuable timber stand on Baker Ridge, west of Kern Canyon road.

Three Bills By McCarthy Become Law

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed a bill introduced by Marin's Sen. John F. McCarthy which authorizes redevelopment agencies and housing authorities to contract with school districts on facilities for temporary housing projects.

The measure is to pave the way for arranging school facilities for redevelopment of Marin City.

The governor also signed two other measures which were introduced by McCarthy.

One requires that coroners incorporate any suicide notes into records of their inquests.

Another permits state and local authorities to place signs directing slow-moving traffic to use right-hand traffic lanes.

Minimum Teacher Salary Increased

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California's minimum annual salary for public school teachers is going up to $4,500.

The governor's office announced yesterday that Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed a bill by Assemblyman Ernest R. Geddes (R-Claremont) increasing the minimum by $300 a year. It's effective next July 1.

There was testimony during the legislative hearing on the bill that 63 per cent of all school district now pay teachers more than $4,500.

Sausalito School Board Approves TV Contract

Sausalito School District trustees last night approved a contract with television station KQED for participation of Central School in the station's instructional programs during the next school year.

Acceptance of the contract hinges on completion of a special TV antenna which land developer Rob Rose has offered to the district at no cost. The antenna was necessary to provide reception.

Trustees also renewed an accident insurance program whereby parents may subscribe to insurance at a cost of $1.75 per child per year covering school hours and one hour following close of school.

The trustees also:

1. Approved resurfacing the upper terrace at Central School.
2. Approved teaching contracts for music teacher Cesare Claudio, science teacher A. W. Nelson and second grade teacher Margaret Trujillo.
3. Authorized a $125 contribution to the Junior Museum of Marin.
4. Renewed the district's fire insurance coverage through the Eastman-Ravizza agency of Sausalito.
5. Approved payment of warrants totaling $12,977.62.
6. Set for tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. a special budget discussion in the district office. Budget adoption has been set for the board's Aug. 3 meeting.

Hoffa Denies Scheme To Control Monitors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters Union president James R. Hoffa denied today he was behind a reported move to seize control of a board of monitors appointed by a federal court to clean up the union.

The first overtures for such a scheme, Hoffa told the Senate committee investigating rackets, were made by Bartley C. Crum, New York attorney who testified yesterday that attempts were made to pack the board with union friends.

Hoffa said he referred Crum to the union's attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, "because this was a legal problem."

Williams has said he was opposed to any such scheme.

Crum told the committee that he was offered but refused a part in a scheme to replace Godfrey P. Schmidt as one of the three court-appointed monitors.

The approach, Crum testified was made through the longshoremen's union president, Harry Bridges, and one of Bridge's top aides, Louis Goldblatt of Mill Valley.

Crum testified that under the plan in return for Schmidt's resignation from the board of monitors, Schmidt's lawyer and monitor fees would be paid in full and Crum would become a monitor.

Crum testified that Hoffa was behind the scheme.

But on the stand today, Hoffa denied he approved the plan and said Crum was referred at all times to Williams.

Hoffa also charged that Crum was interested in Schmidt's fees only for selfish reasons. He said that Crum, as Schmidt's attorney, could collect his fee only after payment of the more than $150,000 Schmidt claimed the Teamsters owed him.

It's Up To Us To Decide If Water Plan Is Worth It

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has affixed his signature to a bill which launches what is probably the largest single bond issue in this or any other state—one billion, 750 million dollars.

With that signature he approved the state water plan. This in itself was a remarkable achievement. For years the suspicious South and the just-as-suspicious North could agree on nothing about water because they could not trust each other. The North believed the South wanted only to grab all the water and let the North whistle for its supply. The South believed the North wanted the South to finance, because most of the people live south, the North's water projects while making no plans for slaking southern thirsts.

No one maintains that the final water bill which emerged from months of argument and debate in the Legislature this year, is a perfect solution. But most of the Legislature, and certainly the governor, feel that it will do the job that needs to be done.

But just because the Legislature and the governor got together on a water plan doesn't mean that it will become effective. That's up to you.

The reason it's up to you is that someone must provide the money, all 1¾ billions of dollars of it. You're going to have to make up your minds on the project before November next year. At that election, you will be asked to vote either Yes or No on the huge bond issue.

Eventually, the water project is planned as a self-financing operation. Eventually, it will pay for itself, probably many times over. But to begin with, and for many years afterwards, it's going to cost some money.

The real question you must decide for yourself is, Is it worth what it will cost?

You will be hearing much, much more about the details of the plan. We've told you several times about the way Marin County will be served by the project—through the North Bay Aqueduct, which will end in a reservoir near Novato.

Dams are planned which will reduce loss of life and property in costly floods in the North. Aqueducts and conduits will carry water to practically every part of the state needing it, particularly to the South.

And there are safeguards in the new water plan which experts say will protect the North from a greedy South or the South from a double-crossing North.

To us the whole dispute had a childish ring. With the experts telling us there was plenty water for all, it seemed academic what would happen in a series of years of drought. But even if the worst did happen and supplies became critically low, we couldn't picture the South stealing all the water north of the Tehachapis or the North refusing to send any water to our southern cousins.

The one big question most people ask is yet to be answered. So far as we have been told, the cost of the project to an individual property owner in the first year of the bond issue has not been figured out.

We hope they get working on this phase of the planning soon. The sooner we can get the answer to that question, the sooner we can start making up our minds as to whether it is worth it to us.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

MAKE YOUR LIFE COUNT

A former vice president of a player piano company is repenting for what he regards as a wasted life.

"I spent $350,000 a year telling people it was a waste of time to learn to play the piano—the player piano could do it better," said the 88-year-old man, referring to what he advocated at the turn of the century. He then added: "I've been making amends ever since."

One of his efforts in this direction was the founding of National Music Week in 1924 to stir up a do-it-yourself spirit among potential musicians.

To forestall any regrets, it would be well to take stock every now and then during our brief pilgrimage through life. This would help us make certain that we are aiding not hindering others to lead creative lives.

God expects each one to nurture his own distinct personality as well as to encourage others to do the same.

The world needs every bit of sound originality and spontaneity it can find these days.

"Lord, thou didst deliver to me five talents, behold I have gained other five over and above." (Matthew 25:20)

Inspire us, O Holy Spirit, to put to good use every bit of talent You have loaned to us.

Grandpa Didn't Know What Fun Really Was When He Was A Boy

NEW YORK (AP) — Do the kids of today have more fun than those of yesteryear?

At the risk of giving indignant cramps to a lot of nostalgic old gramps, we vote, "Yes!" Modern children, when it comes to enjoying life, get more kicks out of living for a very simple reason. They have more things to enjoy.

Your average grandpa — say a fellow crowding 65 — likes to brag about how much tougher life was when he was a boy. To hear him tell it, he got up at 4 a.m. every morning and milked a dozen cows before breakfast.

He had to walk five miles to school except in winter. In winter he crawled the five miles through waist-high snow drifts, carrying his lunch basket in his chattering teeth.

He did endless chores around the house. He helped churn the butter. He started the furnace before dawn and banked it at night. He carried out the ashes. He chopped and brought in firewood for the kitchen stove.

But if you suggest that he didn't have much fun as a kid, his eyes bug out in quick anger.

"What do you mean I didn't have any fun?" he asks. "Why we had twice as much fun as these sissy youngsters they're spawning nowadays."

But grandpa's list of homemade joys, when he enumerates them, sounds a little dated now.

Going barefoot, riding the mare bareback in from the fields, collecting toads, making kitchen fudge, dunking himself in the old swimming hole.

Come, grandpa, you didn't learn to drive an automobile until you were 30. Today's youngster is on wheels with his own jalopy at 17.

YOU DIDN'T goose-grease your hair and go out on a date until you were 18. Girls were a complete and awesome mystery to you. But now the lads are giving friendship rings to girls at 10, and dating steady at 13.

You were 25 before you could eat your soup in public without feeling self-conscious. But today's kids are social veterans at 15.

THE ONLY TOY you can remember getting as a boy was a sled. Kids today are surrounded with toys from birth, everything from a dime balloon to a $150 chemistry set.

Nobody made a business out of entertaining you. But trying to keep today's kids entertained is now a major industry in American.

What do you mean you had more fun, grandpa? Maybe you didn't know it, but fun hadn't even been invented when you were a lad. It came along later.

County Fair Was Peace Under Trees

The Independent-Journal welcomes letters but reserves the right to condense or edit out salacious material.

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Never have I spent a more beautiful Fourth of July than this year's at the Marin Art and Garden Fair. Needless to praise the wonderful exhibits the varied programs, the delicious food, the willing and polite workers, and the lovely setting.

What I especially want to note is the behavior of the children, not a cross or rude child among all the babies, tots, and juniors; and the grown-ups were equally poised and pleasant.

Only one false note: the litter around the tables where we ate. It seems strange that so many intelligent and charming people should drop cups, napkins, papers, and Kleenex on the ground when there were cans for discards in plain sight.

I spent 10 hours on the Fourth and six on the Fifth at this feast for senses, mind, and soul. There was peace under those trees. It seemed to me that the theme song was the Folk Singers': "I Ain't Gonna to Study War No More."

Hoping to attend next year's fair.

What Artists Would Do Work?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In response to Leah Schwartz's letter in Wednesday's I-J referring to Marin Society of Artists and the Fair.

Does Mrs. Schwartz realize that Marin Society of Artists pays rent throughout the year for the Gallery?

Does she realize Marin Society of Artists has almost 400 members and these members give freely of their time, money and energy to support the Gallery during the year? All work done in the gallery is purely voluntary by members of M.S.A. and any money involved comes from M.S.A.'s treasury.

A few improvements accomplished this year by M.S.A. are the new floor in the gallery, tile paid for by M.S.A. treasury and laid by volunteer help of members, new peg board on the walls, interior painting done by members, and the members staff the gallery throughout the year, in order to keep it open so the public may enjoy the art exhibits free of charge.

Does Mrs. Schwartz also realize a percentage of any money taken in by Marin Society of Artists is given to the Art and Garden Center throughout the year?

Why, then, should non-affiliated artists be given gallery space during the Art and Garden Fair?

The Marin Society of Artists presented a detailed plan for use of grounds around the gallery months before the fair opened for an art-in-action area. Is there a large enough group of non-affiliated artists who would present a detailed plan, do all the construction work of booths, use their own money, and man the booths 12 hours a day for five days during the fair?

Would this non-affiliated group give freely of their time and energy for two months previous to the fair opening, raking, sweeping and removing every bit of weed and grass in the area surrounding the gallery? I doubt it!

The open county show was a juried show and I doubt very much if any works of art were rejected for lack of space. If work was deemed worthy to be exhibited, it was exhibited. Two rows of paintings could have been hung in the "Outer Mongolia" territory, the same as they were in the Marin Society of Artists Annual show in the gallery. Obviously there were not enough works entered that merited hanging.

I'd like to point out also, that last year when gallery space was open to all, Marin Society of Artists members did all the work organizing, receiving and hanging the show. There were not enough "non members" who would give time and energy to even help put on the show.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

George Oppenheimer tells of two typical stage mothers who met after a Broadway producer had given a wild party. One show girl had been persuaded, as a climax, to disrobe and dive into a pool filled with champagne. "It's a blot on the theater," fumed one of the moms. "No daughter is safe in this town any longer. What's more, I hear they never paid the poor girl the $500 they promised her." "That's the worst part of all," gasped the other mom. "Where was her mother?"

Teachers told their pupils for years that the geographical center of the United States was in Kansas. Now that Alaska and Hawaii are states, however, there's been some drastic recalculation! The new geographical center of the U. S. is Pondosa, Oregon!

"Everybody is aware," notes Dan Kidney, "that a little knowledge is a dangerous thing — and that's why so many people don't fool with it."

LIBERALS FRUSTRATED

Democratic Program Is Going Nowhere

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON — A lot can — and probably will — happen before Congress adjourns some weeks hence, but one point now seems certain.

The "clear and comprehensive" program of legislation, for which liberal Democrats claim they received an overwhelming popular mandate last November, is going nowhere fast.

President Eisenhower's July 7 veto of the controversial housing bill was simply the latest in a series of developments pointing up the fact that the liberals, whatever their real strength in the country, have neither the votes nor the influence in Congress to put over a legislative program.

SUCH A PROGRAM was laid down last December by the Advisory Council of the Democratic National Committee, and no one disputed the council's estimate that, with 2-to-1 majorities in Senate and House, "it should now be possible to enact desirable legislation that the Administration has previously defeated."

In the event, however, it has not proved possible. Here is the rundown on what has happened, or is likely to happen, to these major planks of the Advisory Council's program:

URBAN RENEWAL: A "significantly larger" program of federal grants for slum clearance was approved by the Senate and the House, then cut back by Democratic leaders in an effort to avoid a threatened veto.

The President vetoed the bill anyway, and no attempt to override is expected.

AID-TO AIRPORTS: In 1958 President Eisenhower vetoed a bill boosting federal grants for building airports from $63 million to $100 million a year.

This year the Senate again passed an equally generous measure; the House cut this back, but not as far as the President wanted. Again Democratic leaders decided to duck a veto, compromised on a two-year extension of the program without change.

DEPRESSED AREAS: After vetoing last year a $280-million program of grants and loans to domestic areas with chronic unemployment, the President again asked Congress for a $50-million program confined to loans. The Senate responded by passing almost the same $390-million bill it had approved in 1958.

AID-TO-EDUCATION: The council called for federal scholarships and grants for school construction.

No scholarship program is under consideration; a bill carrying $4.4 billion a year for four years for school construction and teachers' salaries is languishing before the House Rules Committee.

LABOR REFORM: The Kennedy labor reform bill, as in 1958, has passed the Senate and is awaiting House action.

CIVIL RIGHTS: As with labor reform, Democratic leaders are committed to passing a civil rights bill in 1959. But there is little chance that Congress will approve the key provision sought by liberals—the so-called Section III, giving the attorney general the power to start civil injunction suits.

All in all, it's clear why liberal Democrats, in their mounting frustration, are challenging the course of moderation charted by the two Texans who run Congress, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Lacking in power to override vetoes, say Johnson and Rayburn, there is no point in courting them. To the contrary, say the liberals, vetoes will help to define those issues on which the two parties must do battle in 1960.

Whoever is right, a "clear and comprehensive Democratic program" is a long way from enactment.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Those TV Guys Don't Know How Old Gun Slingers Did Draw

My able colleague Wat Takeshita wrote a fine story in the Independent-Journal recently about the dangers of the "fast draw" as practiced by a new generation of would-be gunmen.

He used the training methods at the Marin County Pistol Range to contrast with the tactics of those imitators of TV gunmen who squeeze the trigger before the gun is out of the holster, thus shooting themselves in the legs. He drew from H. O. Peters, a pistol expert thoroughly qualified to speak, succinct comment on the proper handling of firearms.

BUT EITHER Peters or the author did an injustice to the memory of the gun slingers of the Old West. Peters was quoted as saying "he will not tolerate the Western-type fast draw on the county range."

The gunmen of the Old West, let it be known, did not draw like those who have plagiarized their names for today's TV serials.

The real Wyatt Earp (whose resemblance to Hugh O'Brien ended in both being tall and slim) had nothing but scorn for the man who handled a gun carelessly. Earp, like Wild Bill Hickok, Bat Masterson, Billy Tilghman and the rest of the gunmen (on both sides of the law) who achieved fame in the early west, loaded only five bullets in his six-shooter. The hammer always rested on an empty chamber. When the gun was pulled, the gunman must draw back the hammer with the crook of his thumb to turn the cylinder.

AND HE FIRED carefully. He had to. If he missed, it would be his funeral next day on Boot Hill.

For that matter, speed on the draw played only a minor part in the gun battles of the Old West. It was valuable principally for getting the drop on an adversary before he went for his own weapon, in which case, he wouldn't go for it at all.

The classic gun duel, TV style, was an extreme rarity. You can dredge the lore of the Old West from Abilene to Frenchman's Flat and from the Rio Grande to the Bitteroot without coming up with a dozen of them.

IN THE TV version, the opponents walk toward each other, arms akimbo. One's hand flicks toward his holster. Like a flash of light, the other beats him to the draw. There is a double blast of gunfire and the bad guy lies dead in the dust — always dead; never wounded.

The gunmen simply didn't do it like that. They wanted to live.

The lives of Earp, Hickok, the Mastersons, Billy the Kid and his slayer, Pat Garrett, and most of the rest disclose not a single such duel.

John Wesley Hardin, one of the deadliest of all, had his own scheme for beating his opponent to the draw: he introduced the shoulder holster to Texas.

PERHAPS THE CLOSEST to the version that has been enacted so many hundred times on television screens was a duel fought in Lewistown, Mont., on July 3, 1884, by two gun slingers that even Disney hasn't yet discovered to make famous: Rattlesnake Jake Fallon and Long-Haired Owens. It had just about all the trappings.

There was another, within our own century, that was fought in the classic style — at Hibbing, Minn., on Sept. 28, 1910. But probably neither of the participants ever got saddle sore, and certainly neither fitted the "good guys and bad guys" roles of the hard ridin', fast shootin' western film.

They were a couple of iron miners named Sam Kacich and Pete Radovich. They fought in the style that has become the classic of western fiction. The results were mutually fatal.

IT WAS PROBABLY fitting that a couple of metal miners wrote the closing paragraph to the Boot Hill dueling days. Man-to-man gunfights actually accounted for few lives in the Old West. The famed gun slingers were a lot less deadly than the embattled metal miners of Cripple Creek and the Coeur d'Alene, Alder Gulch and Deadwood.

But the miners didn't fool around much with guns. They used dynamite.

The practice of "going heeled" was a fine old western custom that persisted even to the days of my own childhood in Utah (which, in case you figured to crack wise, was since that Kacich-Radovich Gunfight mentioned above). I was flabbergasted when I learned, as a high school youth, that there actually existed a law against wearing guns. Nobody ever enforced it where I lived.

BUT THE GUN wearers of the Old West had respect for their weapons. They might hurrah the town with shots in the air. But they didn't often draw on each other.

And when they did, they didn't shoot themselves in the legs.

Fairfax Approves $179,702 Budget

Fairfax city councilmen last night adopted a 1959-60 budget of $179,702 with the prediction that the city's tax rate would remain at $1.10 per $100 assessed valuation this year.

The adopted budget represented a 1 per cent increase over the 1958-59 budget of $178,009 "so it is actually a decrease when you consider inflation," said Mayor Edward A. Smith.

The councilmen also adopted an assessment roll of $8,582,020 for 1959-60. Last year's secured and unsecured property assessments totaled $7,961,630, reported City Clerk-Assessor Alice Leonesio. Fairfax assesses property at 33 per cent of the county's appraisal.

The adopted budget will be financed in part by the city's general fund tax rate of $1 per $100 assessed valuation. The 10 cent park tax is expected to net $8,169.

No park budget was adopted last night. Mayor Smith explained: "We don't have a park budget yet. Ten cents is not quite adequate. We've been trying to come up with an answer but so far we haven't."

The adopted budget covering general government and police, fire and street departments granted $15 a month increases, retroactive to July 1, to all city employees except one street department man who is paid $430 a month. No new employees were added but a new position of assistant street superintendent at $300 a year was created. This job will go to one of the present street department employees by means of a promotional examination to be scheduled later, said the city clerk.

Breakdown of the 1959-60 Fairfax budget is as follows:

POLICE DEPARTMENT: A total of $42,205 including $555 a month for Police Chief Andy J. Peri, $485 a month for Capt. Clifton Coddes and $460 a month each for four patrolmen, and $2,000 for a new police car to replace one of the city's two patrol cars.

STREET DEPARTMENT: A total of $49,955 including $135 a month for Fire Chief Charles Thornton, who also serves as street superintendent; one street department laborer at $390 a month; one specialist at $430 a month and two specialists at $425 a month; $6[illegible]00 for street materials; $1,500 for engineering and administration; $2,000 for equipment rental and maintenance; $6,000 for street paving and $3,000 for new equipment among which will be a street sweeping machine.

The $430-a-month street specialist, August A. Pfalzgraff, is not getting a salary increase, said Thornton, because the city was trying to equalize his salary with that of two other street department specialists who will receive $425 a month.

FIRE DEPARTMENT: A total of $39,300 including $555 a month for Chief Thornton; $485 a month each for two captains and $465 a month for one fireman; $2,000 for volunteer firemen and temporary employees; $5,000 for hydrant improvement and water main extension; $2,300 for hydrant rental and maintenance; $2,000 for supplies; and $1,000 for alarm circuit maintenance and extension.

GENERAL GOVERNMENT: A total of $48,242 including $555 a month for Mrs. Leonesio who is city clerk, purchasing agent, deputy court clerk and city assessor; $333 a month for Mrs. Julia Tartaul, city tax collector; $2,100 for City Atty. Walter S. Myers; $1,980 for a janitor; $1,200 building inspector's salary, and two large items, $10,000 for street lights and $11,000 for insurance.

Gets It In Face

NOGALES, Mex. (AP)—Ernest A. Fisher, 23, decided he would try some tortillas and stepped into a Nogales shop. Behind the counter a stove exploded. The sizzling corn cakes filled the air. Fisher was treated at a hospital for face and arm burns.

Fairfax Annex Plea Referred

A petition from Adelbert and Marie Louise Von Rotz, San Anselmo contractor and his wife, to annex approximately 160 acres in Oak Manor to the city of Fairfax last night was referred by the Fairfax City Council to the city planning commission for study.

The councilmen were unable to get a clear idea from the legal description of the property exactly where it was located.

Von Rotz today said that the 160 acres are in the undeveloped portions of Oak Manor subdivision, both east and west of houses along Oak Manor drive. The entire subdivision is unincorporated now.

In other business last night, Fairfax Mayor Edward A. Smith and Councilmen Albert Fox and Rolfe Ockenden:

1. Heard a plea from William T. Benson and Tony Costello of the Fairfax Merchants Assn. for better picnic benches and a lighting fixture in Fairfax Park. Fire Chief Charles Thornton told them he could supply the lighting equipment. The merchants wanted the changes for a public barbecue they are sponsoring Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the park.
2. Were notified by the American Automobile Assn. that Fairfax would receive a citation for no pedestrian fatality during 1958.
3. Learned by letter from Harry Heifetz that a steep hillside property in Ridgeway Park, offered to the city but not accepted, had been disposed of elsewhere.
4. Acting on a study prepared by Councilman Fox, voted to invest the city's $8,000 building fund in a bank account bearing 3 per cent interest with 180 days notice required before withdrawal and $10,000 from the city's general fund in a bank account bearing 2½ per cent interest with 90 days notice required before withdrawal. At present the city's funds are kept in a commercial bank account with no interest paid.
5. Voted to spend up to $1,000 to re-paint the Fairfax Pavilion, with selection of the painting contractor in the hands of Councilmen Ockenden and Chief Thornton. A color called "redwood" was selected by the councilmen to replace the pavilion's present green tint.
6. Appointed William L. Brown of 11 Crescent lane to the Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission to replace Fred Boracchia, whose resignation on April 18 was announced last night by Mayor Smith. Boracchia said in his resignation letter that he resigned to apply for position of recreation director. That job went to Michael Davlin, who will serve until Sept. 1.

Brown Tells 3-Point Plan For State Future

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown last night outlined a three-point program for the future of California, before leaving for Los Angeles to address the National Conference of Mayors today.

The Democratic governor, who claimed an .870 "batting average" in the 1959 Legislature, said he has a responsibility for "guiding the people" into new vistas and horizons.

Although he said it was too early to be specific, Brown said the future should bring:

1. Government reorganization. "The executive branch of our government has not been reorganized in more than 30 years and I think there is some very definite streamlining that can be done to reduce costs and increase efficiency."

Brown said Finance Director Bert Levit had been working with a special committee on the reorganization problem for some time and was certain to "have some concrete proposals to make before the Legislature convenes again."

2. An automobile accident commission. "Long delays and costly litigation have worked a hardship on automobile accident victims and have clogged our already overcrowded courts with damage suits."

3. A plan to assist small business. "The small businessman has neither the financial nor technical resources available to big business and I believe state government has a responsibility to help fill this void."

There was no Sunday in China 50 years ago. Now they observe one day of the week as a day of rest.

RABIES CLINICS HALF OVER; 602 DOGS 'SHOT'

With half the current series of Marin rabies vaccination clinics completed, a total of 602 dogs have received vaccinations through the clinics thus far this year, according to the Marin County Health Department.

The fifth clinic in a series of 10 was held last night at the Santa Venetia School and 118 dogs were vaccinated. Next clinic will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the Fairfax firehouse, treatment costing $1.75.

Salt Water Conversion Fund Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower yesterday asked Congress for $1,550,000 to be used for construction of the first demonstration station for conversion of seawater to fresh water.

This request for the Interior Department's office of saline water was one item in a total of $3,435,000 asked by Eisenhower.

Other items included $1,050,000 for the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics to expand its studies of productivity and wage statistics.

Eisenhower also requested an extra $685,000 for Senate expenses. That would be charged against the budget for the fiscal year which ended June 30.

For The Red Man

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal government has spent more than two billion dollars in the past 60 years to subsidize the American Indian. In this fiscal year, the government will write support checks of about $390 for each of estimated 300,000 Indians now living on reservations.

Blame Signal Theft On TV

BOSTON (AP) — Television, which has been blamed with many of baseball's problems, has a brand new fault laid at its doorstep—a new angle to the old game of stealing the catchers signals.

But TV, let it be pointed out, immediately took steps to see that the situation is corrected.

It all got started in the television broadcasts of the New York Yankee-Boston Red Sox games last weekend. An 80-inch lens was mounted in the centerfield stands.

INTO LIVING ROOM

That brought the catcher's signals right into the living room, offering viewers a very clear picture of his calls. It kicked up a minor row.

Just why it all got started after the weekend games, no one seems to know. Tom Gallery, director of sports for NBC, said the cameras had been used for about eight games, including the All-Star game in Pittsburgh, before the Yankee-Red Sox affairs.

Gallery said yesterday in New York use of the camera would be discontinued at the request of Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.

He said Frick suggested the possibility of a club putting a TV receiver in a dugout and then getting a line on what pitches would be thrown.

The Yankees and Red Sox, along with other baseball men, didn't think much of the idea.

YOGI'S OPINION

"It's just about the same as having a runner on second," Yankee catcher Yogi Berra said. "I don't think it would have much value. The catcher can change his signals, his series or system of signals, all the time."

Red Sox manager Billy Jurges took it lightly.

"Yeah, I just heard about it the other day," he said, then got a far-away look. "You could put a receiver in the dugout—no don't say that," he cautioned writers, then changed the subject.

"Applesauce," said Boston General Manager Bucky Harris when questioned about it. "Just say I said 'applesauce.'"

"That's a real interesting idea, isn't it," said American League President Joe Cronin.

NEVER AGAIN

Gallery said the new camera "provides the best shot we have ever had of a ball game. We have received more mail as a result of its use than we ever received before on any innovation. It has been a fine thing for TV viewers."

But it won't happen again.

Yawl Clings To Slim Lead In Yacht Race

HONOLULU (AP) — With less than 400 miles to go to reach the Diamond Head finishing line, the California yawl Chubasco hung on to a slim lead today in the run for the pineapples, the annual Transpacific Yacht Race.

The Chubasco, a 66-footer owned by Donald Haskell of Newport Beach, picked up strong winds Monday night but the 25-mph gusts were aiding the 75-foot Constellation even more.

The Constellation, a schooner owned by Sally Blair Ames of Beverly Hills, was closing fast on the leader and a snappy two-boat contest was shaping up.

If the Chubasco maintains her position, she will be the first to finish, the first in overall handicap and leader in her class.

Yankees Get More Lumps From Bosox

World Champs Slip Further Off Pace In American Loop

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The "10 telling days" are over in the American League race, and if they failed to tell the whole story, they told a horror tale for the Detroit Tigers and New York Yankees.

It all began June 30, when the Cleveland Indians were first by one game over the Chicago White Sox. Baltimore was third, 2½ games back. Detroit and New York were tied for fourth, trailing by four games.

In the 10 playing dates over that span — during which two of the three western contenders, Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit, were at each other's throats every day — Cleveland came off with an 8-4 record. So did the White Sox, still second and a game behind after splitting two games with the Indians.

THEY MOVED

The Injuns and White Sox moved in tandem, but the point is — they moved, picking up two games on Baltimore and 3½ on both Detroit and New York. The Orioles were 6-6 for the 10 days, the Tigers and Yankees each 5-8.

The Yankees, confused, bothered and bewildering defending champion, have lost five straight — all at Boston. The Red Sox pulled off the five-day sweep in the only game scheduled Monday with a 13-3 send-off that chased the champs home for an eight-game stand against Cleveland and Chicago.

In the National League, Milwaukee whipped San Francisco 3-0 on Warren Spahn's six-hit pitching and Ed Mathews two-run homer, reclaiming second place and closing within .002 percentage points of the first place Giants.

Los Angeles, a game behind, slipped from second to third with a 13-5 loss at Cincinnati in the only other game scheduled.

The Red Sox, frolicking through the Yankee series with 58 hits and 50 runs, put away the sweep with a four-run first inning, then chuckled through a nine-run sixth — their biggest inning of the season.

JENSEN RAPS HOMER

Jackie Jensen's three-run homer, his 20th, triggered the first inning against loser Don Larsen after the Yankees had taken a 2-0 lead on Yogi Berra's 10th home run.

In the sixth, the Red Sox sent 13 men to the plate, scored one run when Sammy White scooted home while Yank first baseman Elston Howard argued an umpire's call and then closed it with a grand-slam by a pinch runner.

White started his stroll from second base. He made it to third on a grounder by Don Buddin and kept right on going as Howard — ball in hand and back to the plate — disputed umpire Nestor Chylak's safe call on Buddin at first.

Gene Stephens was the slugging pinch-runner, hitting his second homer of the year after replacing Ted Williams, who singled home Jensen with the first score of the inning.

Jensen, who had three doubles, also forced in a run with a bases-loaded walk for four RBI. He was 10-for-19 with 10 RBI in the series.

Phils Next For Giants

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants, still in first place but smarting from two straight setbacks by Milwaukee, take on the Philadelphia Phillies in a twi-night doubleheader tonight.

The Phillies, firmly established in the National League cellar, are best remembered for handing the Giants a double loss the last time they entertained the Giants in a twin bill.

Manager Bill Rigney plans to send Mike McCormick (8-7) to the mound in the first game. His second choice will be either Stu Miller (4-3) or Eddie Fisher (1-2).

The Phils will counter with the best they have—Gene Conley (7-5), and Robin Roberts (7-8).

The Giants ran into the best Milwaukee had in their two game set against the defending champion Braves. And last night, Warren Spahn was even better than Lew Burdette, who had throttled the Giants on Sunday.

Spahn was excellent, giving up only six hits while scoring his third shutout of the season. Almost as good was Sam Jones, the Giant starter and loser, who allowed only three hits during the seven innings he hurled.

But one of the hits off Jones was a home run by Eddie Mathews with Johnny O'Brien aboard in the third inning. It was Matthews' 27th and his second in two nights.

Jones' loss halted a four-game winning streak for the hard throwing hight-hander. He is now 12-9 on the season while Spahn is 11-9.

The Giants made only two serious scoring threats off Spahn. In the seventh Willie Kirkland and Daryl Spencer collected singles but Jackie Brandt took a called third strike to end the frame.

In the eighth, Jim Davenport and pinchhitter Andre Rodgers got infield hits, but second baseman Johnny O'Brien made a great play on a hard ground smash off the bat of Willie Kirkland to end the threat.

Big pointmakers for the victors were Bruce Robertson, first in the 181-pound class; Danny Miller and Frank Gallardo, second in the 148-pound and heavyweight classes respectively, and Danny Preston, third in the 148.

Preston also won the third place trophy in a special contest held afterwards to determine the weightlifter with the best physique.

Officers for the coming year in the San Rafael weightlifting club will be Carrol Varner, president; Ron Denman, vice president; Steve Marks, secretary; Tommy Murry, treasurer; Jack Fielder, sergeant-at-arms; Kent Francisco, social chairman; Kramer Herzog, publicity chairman, and Frank Gallardo, manager.

The club will host the official AAU Northern California Junior (Novice) Weightlifting Championships in August, the exact date not received from the AAU yet. A women's beauty contest is planned to be held at the same time and place.

In September the club has scheduled a dance at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

A special committee to assist in organizing the two events is made up of Tom Ingram, Brent Marshall, Bob Del Santo, George Powers, Danny Preston, Chuck Ward and Bruce Robertson.

JACK HANLEY'S REPORT

Giant Fight Letdown Against Lowly Phils

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA — Pennant contenders never should let second division teams beat them. It's tough enough whipping the first division opposition.

Too often front runners have a tendency, however, to downgrade the efforts of teams at the tail of the pack. Too often there is that mouse-trapping mental attitude "this is a push-over" when the opposition is listed among the also-rans.

Long ago a wise old gent named Aesop dramatically illustrated the point when he matched the tortoise and the hare in a fabled race.

Now, Bill Rigney doesn't get as elementary as that with his Giants in pep talks. After all, they are grown men who are real pros and would disdain any reference to their team meetings as "pep talks."

They know how to blow their nose, keeping it healthily clean so as not to lose that lucrative scent which always emanates from World Series dough.

NEVERTHELESS, the Giant manager realizes it is a natural tendency to permit the set-in of a psychological letdown after a "crucial" series with the defending champion Braves, particularly when the next opponent is the lowliest of the also-rans.

Thus, Rigney took precautionary measures today as he flew into Philadelphia with his Giants for a four-game series with the lowly Phillies.

"C'mon now," he said.

That's one of his favorite expressions and the Giants understand what it means. It embodies lots of things, such as:

"From here until that final series with the Cardinals in St. Louis, Sept. 25-26-27, every series is a 'crucial' one.

"These guys (the Phillies) never should have won the three games they did from us and you men know it."

ONLY RIGNEY doesn't rehash past performances because that's just wasted talk. He doesn't have to recall for his men how they let the Phillies take a double-header June 14th on their last trip into Connie Mack Stadium.

The Giants themselves are only too aware of how they blew a 5-0 lead in the first game of that double-header, finally losing it 7-5. And the memory of the second game in that twin affairs similarly is not a sweet one. Four unearned Philly runs in the eighth inning nipped the Giants 6-3.

Rigney's simple but spirited "C'mon now" implies all these things.

For the season, going into tonight's double-header, the Giants are six games to three with the Phillies. The Dodgers, incidentally, have won nine of the 12 games they played with Philadelphia. The Pirates are 6-4 with them. And the Braves are 9-6.

PERHAPS that 9-6 record of Milwaukee with Philadelphia explains more than anything else why the Braves aren't in first place now as they were at this time last year.

A lowly Philly bullet can be as fatal to a runner as one fired at close range.

Big Barbecue This Sunday

This Sunday, July 19, all roads will lead to the Marin Rod and Gun Club annual chicken barbecue. The affair will be held at the clubhouse picnic grounds at Point San Quentin.

Tickets have been limited to 1200, so if you intend to attend, get your ticket now, as they are moving fast.

The picnic committee has been working early and late to make everything in shipshape for the barbecue. Last weekend the grounds were cleaned, the exterior of the clubhouse painted and picnic tables repainted. The parking area, which will handle over 400 cars, was re-marked.

Everything is being done to make this the most enjoyable affair ever, according to barbecue chairman Paul Jones and his large committee. By the way the committee will meet tonight to make the final arrangements.

Activities will start at 10 a.m. Serving from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

There will be plenty of games for young and old. Races and games will be held throughout the day.

As an added attraction the members of the Marin Water Ski Club will give a demonstration of their skiing skill. The skiing will be held along the waterfront adjacent to the barbecue grounds.

Our boat ramp will be open to members. A number of boatmen from different sections of Marin will come to the affair by boat, landing at our float near the boat ramp on the south side of the pier.

Tickets are $1.50—and they are moving fast. Get your ticket now before it's too late. Secretary Paul Ware, 14 Taylor street has tickets.

The menu consists of half a barbecued chicken, corn-on-the-cob, salad, roll, coffee — what could be tastier.

Our barbecue team will start work at 5 a.m. the day of the barbecue in order to have everything ready at noon.

Plan to attend — bring the family, it's going to be a great day. Let's go!

Striped Bass Fishing Hot; Halibut Biting

Striped bass fishing has been exceptionally good on bait and trolling.

Halibut fishing has been good inside the bar at Tomales bay. By the way the new county boat ramp at Nick's Cove is now in excellent condition. Its the best state and county-built ramp in the north bay area.

Trout fishing has been good in the early morning at Lake Lagunitas and Phoenix.

Salmon fishing at Tomales bay has been poor. High winds have hampered fishing.

Large salmon are being landed in the Farralone Island area when the sea is calm and the boats can reach the area. This year 21 salmon Schenelly awards have been given out so far, last year to this date only one had been given. Fishing has been better so far this season and the salmon have been much larger.

At the Noyo and Navarro rivers salmon fishing has been good about two days a week as the weather has been rough. Party boats and outboard motor boats are used when the ocean waters are fishable.

Fire Hazard Is Critical

California has had one of the driest years in history and as a consequence, the fire hazard this summer and autumn in wood and grass lands is critical.

Hunters, fishermen and others utilizing California's outdoor recreation areas are urged to remember the following safety rules concerning fire:

Break matches in two.

Carefully put out cigars, cigarettes and pipe dottle.

Use an ash tray in the car.

Have a can partially filled with water in camp.

Make sure campfires are dead out before leaving camp or going to bed at night.

Carry litter bags in the car.

Litter is not only unsightly, but can help spread fire. The Department urges hunters and fishermen not to litter highways and to clean up campgrounds. Not only are you helping to preserve California's great outdoors, the Department pointed out, but if your camp is on privately owned land, you may not be permitted to come back next season if you leave a mess.

DID YOU KNOW THESE THINGS?

Did you know:

Mosquitos are real scarce in Marin this year due to the real dry season — A good miss.

It is reported that a golf course in Marin sprayed its greens for lawn moths — it not only attacked the lawn grubs, it is said many rabbits and a number of deer were eliminated for good.

Now this may be true— apparently great numbers of the lowly house fly has fallen by the wayside. Reports have come to us that they have contacted a fungus disease which has eliminated many of them. Flies are fewer this year in Marin, and we might add normally we don't have a greater population than other sections of the state.

TOWN LAUDED

Emeryville Opens Fight On Pollution

The California Department of Fish and Game commended the town of Emeryville for taking steps to end the long-standing pollution problem along Emeryville's section of the East Bay shoreline.

The East Bay industrial city, declaring that "discharging of sewage or industrial wastes into watercourses is contrary to town policy," has given three local plants until August 1 to stop discharging pollutants into the bay.

Legal proceedings against a fourth plant were dropped when the firm connected its outfall into the EBMUD sewer system.

A fifth firm, discharging into Temescal creek rather than into the Bay itself, was also given until August 1 to clean up.

Commenting on the town's action, Regional Manager Robert L. Jones of the Department of Fish and Game's San Francisco office noted that removal of these discharges from the Bay would climax more than nine years of effort by state and local agencies,

"Emeryville's action is a demonstration of the growing demand for clean waters which is becoming apparent in nearly every community in the state," Jones observed.

"Emeryville's banning of all waste discharges would protect water quality for fishlife and recreation right up to the shoreline," Jones said. "Requirements established by the regional water pollution control board permit an 1800 foot zone in which no such protection exists.

Lamphrey In New Lake Not Yet Serious Matter

Investigating reports that lamprey scars have been found on trout caught at the new Lake Mendocino, the California Department of Fish and Game today confirmed the presence of lampreys in the lake, but noted that they did not seem to be in sufficient numbers to create a serious problem at this time.

The eel-like lampreys are native to most coastal streams, including the Russian River. Like salmon and steelhead, they live most of their adult lives in the ocean, but run up the coastal streams to spawn.

It is not unusual for a hatch of young lampreys to be trapped by a new dam which blocks off their normal return to the ocean, state fisheries men noted. A similar situation occurred only a few years ago at Marin County's new Kent dam.

The parasitic lamprey does not normally feed except in the ocean, but when trapped by a dam it may live out its three-to-four year life in the reservoir behind the dam, attaching itself to the freshwater fish.

Such lampreys seldom grow beyond four to six inches in length, and in most cases they do not spawn. Thus the infestation usually dies out after the dam has been in operation three or four years. It is possible for adult lampreys to climb over some dams on their upstream spawning runs from the ocean, but this would be improbable at the dam on Lake Mendocino because of the type of outlet system, DFG reported.

Except in the unlikely circumstances that the lampreys are able to spawn successfully and show signs of reproducing themselves in great numbers, it would not seem worthwhile to undertake control measures, DFG feels.

Only drastic means would be effective, and these would entail an extensive program of blocking off spawning streams, plus heavy treatment of the lake with special chemicals.

Lamprey attacks do not affect the edibility of the fish, although the lamprey, if the fish is unable to disengage it, will eventually kill its victim.

Commercial Fishing Hits Near Record

The second greatest total on record of commercial landings and shipments of fish into California was recorded in 1958, the Department of Fish and Game announced today.

Landings and shipments, which increased by 12 per cent over the previous year, totaled 831,374,791 pounds in 1958. Previous high year was 1951 when more than 900 million pounds were recorded.

The Department said the most important factor in the increase was the strong return made last year by sardines. Processors handled 101,567 tons in 1958, an increase of 161.5 million pounds over 1957. It was the best year since the 1951-52 season when 126,541 tons were processed.

In weight, the sardine was the top species caught last year. Other leading species (in pounds) were:

Yellowfin tuna 124,095,185; skipjack tuna 122,855,653; bluefin tuna 31,048,845; Pacific mackerel 27,648,485; rockfish 17,571,258; anchovy 11,514,630; Dover sole 7,960,695; bonito 5,546,806; English sole 5,064,586; salmon 3,656,841; petrale sole 3,099,701; white seabass 2,847,552; Pacific herring 2,399,730.

Good Abalone Period Looms

Abalone fishermen should have exceptionally good fishing over the coming weekend.

Sunday, July 19 tides are minus 1 foot, 3 inches and on Monday there will be a minus 1.3 tide.

With good weather and calm seas prevailing, limits should be the order of the day.

Remember, it is necessary that you purchase a state fishing license. Five abalone is the daily limit and the pink or red must measure 7 inches or more across the back of the shell.

Abalone are found along the Marin shore from Bolinas, Point Reyes, Pierce Point and the Tomales Bay area. In Sonoma County abalone are taken from Bodega Bay, north to Fort Bragg in Mendocino County.

In order to really enjoy the sport, make your first trip with a dyed-in-the-wool abalone fisherman. He will show you where to fish; how to fish and where to find 'em.

Deer Hunter Ready For Start Of Season

Deer hunters throughout Northern California are getting ready for the opening of the season on July 25 and will continue through Sept. 13.

In some areas deer are scarce due to poor feed conditions, while in other parts of the state deer are plentiful.

Marin County deer hunters who hunt locally expect an under par season. However, with the dry season, deer have migrated closer to civilization and are encroaching upon gardens, shrubs and ornamental trees.

Bag limit will be two bucks throughout the area. The counties open are:

Mendocino, Sonoma, Lake, Napa, Yolo, Solano, Contra Costa, Alameda, Marin, San Mateo, Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, San Benito, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura and parts of Kern, Kings, Fresno, Merced, Stanislaus, San Joaquin, Glenn, Colusa, Trinity and Humboldt .

Deer hunters are reminded by the Department that as soon after they kill a deer as possible the deer license tag must be counter signed by authorized persons.

Following is a list of persons authorized to validate tags:

Employees of the Department of Fish and Game, Justices of the Peace, Notaries Public, Postmasters, peace officers.

Officers authorized to administer oaths, Fish and Game Reserve Wardens, Deputy State Foresters, Assistant Deputy State Foresters, state Forest Rangers.

Associate state Forest Rangers, Forest Technicians (state), assistant forest technicians (state) assistant state Forest Rangers, forest firefighter foremen (state).

State Park Rangers —Grades 1, 2, 3 and 4. Supervising plant quarantine inspectors (state), senior plant quarantine inspectors (state), intermediate plant quarantine inspectors (state), junior plant quarantine inspectors (state).

Forest Supervisors (federal), assistant forest supervisors (federal), district forest rangers (federal), foresters (federal), range conservationists (federal).

Forest engineers (federal), forestry aides (federal), fire control aides (federal), administrative officers and clerks (federal), game management agents (federal), Marine Corps duty officer, Camp Pendleton, San Diego County.

The 1959-60 hunting licenses and deer tags are now available from license dealers throughout the state.

Hunting license fees are $4 apiece and deer tags $2 apiece. Bear tags are also available and cost $1 a set.

A 10-day archery deer season opened Saturday, July 11 in the coastal area and will close July 20.

June Lively For Anglers

Fishing in the month of June was another big month. There were 348 bass caught, and the weights were from 3 to 22 pounds. I didn't get all the names of the lucky ones this month, as we have been too busy getting ready for our picnic next Sunday. But I will say Larry Duffy, from Hayward, has caught 52 bass so far this year, and up to 22 pounds.

The best fishing has been with bait, and some have been caught trolling. This last Sunday there were 19 bass caught and 4 of them by trolling. The boats have been doing very good, too. Sunday while working on the picnic grounds, I counted 55 boats around the bridge to Richmond, and most of them were bait fishing. The best trolling lure is the old reliable red head plug.

We now have the crew working on the pier. The pier is now closed until repairs are complete. If you have a spare day or a Saturday or Sunday we sure could use some selp in replacing and renailing the decking and rails. It may be a good idea to call the pier keeper before coming out, and ask if the lower repairs are far enough along to warrant some extra help on the top deck.

I would like to personally thank the fellows who gave us a hand last Sunday, it was a terrific job, well done. See you at the picnic on Sunday.

DR. KARL MEYER
Speaks Friday night

USES SLIDES

Dr. Meyer To Speak On India

"India" will be the subject of Dr. Karl Meyer as he speaks before the Marin Rod and Gun Club at their meeting Friday evening, July 19, at 8 p.m.

He spent several months this spring in India visiting Bombay, New Delhi and other cities of interest and then went into the Malayan States. As usual, he took colorful slides of the people and things of interest which he will show.

Mr. Meyer is Director Emeritus of the George Hooper Foundation, having served as the director from 1924 to 1954. Although the doctor is a specialist in micro-biology, his greatest interest is in people and he has a great backlog of experiences to draw from in his talk. Bring the entire family to hear this most interesting speaker and enjoy the evening at the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

Dr. Meyer completed a 32-day tour of Russia's scientific and medical institutions in 1956.

What he saw there convinced the famed scientist that the country is making "amazing" strides toward its goal—the full development of its huge natural resources but, says Dr. Meyer, American scientific education and research are still superior.

Dr. Meyer has traveled all over the world in his scientific search for overcoming scourges of both mankind and animals. He is credited with developing the method of eliminating the Bubonic Plague.

In his travels Dr. Meyer has taken thousands of pictures. He illustrates his discussion with colored slides.

Every member is urged to come and hear Dr. Meyer. A capacity crowd is anticipated.

Initiation of new members will be held. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

DO YOU REALIZE — That California Sportsmen spend annually for their Fishing and Hunting MORE THAN THREE TIMES the total sales of Farm Equipment Dealers in the state?

Ducks Unlimited Shoot Set For This Weekend

Calling all duck hunters — let's step up and be counted. Each year at this time the annual drive for funds is held.

This Saturday and Sunday, July 18 and 19, the annual Benefit Skeet and Trap Shoot for "Ducks Unlimited" will be held, when hundreds of scatter gun artists will gather from every section of the state to test their skill and shooting ability.

On Sunday the annual awards will be given, at which time scores of awards from a Pontiac automobile, Trailorboat, trailer and motor, freezer, TV, refrigerator and over 50 other valuable awards will be presented.

Chairman Emil Bianco requests that all participants who have received tickets to send in their returns immediately to him at Bianco Motors, San Rafael.

On the same ticket a companion award will be made at Stockton on Aug. 18, at which time the same list of awards will be given away.

Remember, two years ago one of the capital prizes, an automobile, was won by a San Rafael club member.

"Ducks Unlimited" is one of the greatest conservation organizations in the country. Through their efforts the duck population has been saved for posterity. Breeding, resting and rearing lakes and marshes have been filled with water to their former state.

Millions of dollars has been spent in reclamation in Canada in order to replenish the duck flyways in the United States.

First reports this year were very discouraging. However, in the prairie provinces, heavy rains and excellent late duck hatches will provide a normal supply of ducks.

Don't forget. Send it your tickets now and help with this great conservation work.

Next Session Of Auxiliary Set July 28

The next regular meeting of the Auxiliary Ladies of the Marin Rod and Gun Club will be July 28, 1959 at the Clubhouse, Pt. San Quentin at 8 p.m.

The fishing at the pier has been very good with several of our members getting their share. There has been not dates set for our group as the pier will be closed for a while due to repairs.

The trout fishing has slowed down due to the hot weather and the low water.

Our President Mrs. Steve Lato is busy getting her committee together for the dessert booth at the annual picnic.

September 19, will be another big project as we will be having another one of our spaghetti dinners at the Clubhouse.

We are still taking in members, if you are interested in joining the Auxiliary. For information call our secretary Mrs. William Murray GL 4-2827 or Mrs. Steve Lato DU 8-5957. You must have an affiliation with the Rod and Gun Club such as, husband, son, father or brother or are the unremarried widow of a deceased member in good standing at the time of his death. This does not permit the husbands of married daughters or sisters the use of the pier.

Regular meeting July 28, 8 p.m. Refreshments, entertainment and initiation. Husbands invited.

Commute Club Officer Lashes Bridge Board

A Marin commuter club official charged today that "I wasn't even accorded the courtesy of being allowed to finish my speech," when he tried to explain a commuter problem to the finance committee of the Golden Gate Bridge board yesterday.

Thomas D. Hardcastle, secretary-treasurer of the Novato Commuters Club and former president of the county's federated commuter clubs, directed the charge at William D. Hadeler of San Francisco, finance committee chairman and former president of the bridge board.

Hardcastle said Hadeler interrupted his presentation and insisted that the board has always treated commuters very well and the commuters have no reason to complain.

Hardcastle was asking the committee to recommend an extension of the time limit on the new bridge commute books.

The books, which went into effect July 1, contain 52 tickets or 26 round-trips and sell for $9. The trouble is, said Hardcastle, that they are good only for the month in which they are purchased and the following month.

This is all right for a person who buys a book early in a calendar month, Hardcastle declared, but if a person's book expires near the end of a month and he buys a new one, he can't under ordinary commuting conditions, use it up by the end of the next month.

The only solution is to pay cash tolls for a few days and defer buying a commute book until the beginning of a new month, he said. This is, in effect, a penalty on the commuter, he complained.

Hardcastle said some members of the committee appeared to understand the commuters' plight, and put the matter over to their next meeting for further discussion.

Actor Arrested As 8th Suspect In Dope Case

Thomas Otis Erhart Jr., 30, Sausalito actor who lives on the waterfront at 358 Litho street, became the eighth suspect in a continuing Sausalito narcotics case when he was arrested about 2:30 p.m. yesterday at his home, charged with possessing and furnishing narcotics.

Sausalito Police Chief Howard Goerndt said Erhart is the sixth adult to be arrested in connection with a case of narcotics violations and rape charges touched off June 29 when a 16-year-old San Anselmo girl was picked up in the early morning in the Marinship area.

Yesterday's arrest followed a continuing investigation by Donald E. Midyett of the district attorney's office and Sausalito police. The arrest was made by Police Sgt. David Cooper, Officers Robert Borzone and Peter Lampros, and Midyett.

Goerndt said that in addition to the apprehension of six adults and two juveniles in Marin, several adults have been picked up in San Francisco in connection with same case.

He said Erhart's arrest followed an investigation which disclosed a quantity of marijuana seeds in his car.

Erhart is starring at the Gate Playhouse in Sausalito in "Visit to a Small Planet," which is scheduled to conclude a long run this weekend.

Many groups have signed up to work for the 60th Annual Grape Festival which will be held this year on Saturday, Oct. 3, at the Sunny Hills home grounds in San Anselmo.

The Marin County Girl Scout Council will again participate and staff the Coca Cola booth under the direction of Mrs. John Detwiler of San Anselmo. This is a popular booth and the Scouts from all over the county are active in seeing that the thirst is adequately quenched of the many who attend on Grape Festival Day.

Nadine Conner To Be Feted At Reception

The beautiful hill-top home of Judge and Mrs. Carlos F. Freitas, Oakmont avenue, San Rafael, will be the setting for a reception in honor of Nadine Conner, leading soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, following her recital Sunday afternoon, July 19, in Forest Meadows, as guest artist on the Marin Music Chest Summer Concert Series.

In private life Miss Conner is the wife of Dr. Lawrence Heacock, whom she married in 1939. They have two children, Lauren David, 12, and Sue Lynn, 14.

This petite auburn haired, hazel eyed opera star designs all her own individual costumes for the roles she sings and has had more to do with the recent costume revolution in opera than anyone else. During the Metropolitan Opera Season she lives in a New York penthouse, but her heart is never very far away from the low rambling house in Compton, Calif., that she calls home.

Radio and television fans know Nadine Conner from her frequent appearances on "The Voice of Firestone" and other programs of this type. Her operatic repertoire includes leading roles in "Traviata," "Boheme," "Carmen," "Rosenkavalier," "Don Giovanni," "Hansel and Gretel." The versatility of her voice is such that she has been starred in the difficult coloratura roles of "Rigoletto" and "The Barber of Seville."

Judge and Mrs. Freitas' guest list include members of the executive board and artistic council of the Marin Music Chest. This is Judge Freitas' second year as president of this unique musical organization, the only one of its kind in the entire country.

GOP Board Meet Set Tomorrow

A luncheon tomorrow at 1 p.m. will be the setting for a joint board meeting of Marin County's two Federated Republican women's groups: Marin Republican Women's Council, and the Republican Women of Marin. The event will be held in the patio and gardens of Mrs. J. Lee Chaille, of Sleepy Hollow.

Decor will be in pink, blue and white. Papier mache elephants and flowers will grace the centers of the tables, while small stuffed felt elephants will be at each place setting.

Mrs. Robert D. Irwin of San Rafael, recently elected women's vice chairman of the Marin Republican County Central Committee, will be introduced by Mrs. Chaille, former women's vice chairman.

Progress on precinct organization and headquarters staffing will be discussed. Plans for the future, including a drawing for a trip to Hawaii, and a luau at the American Legion Log Cabin on Oct. 11 will also be discussed.

Koshare Indians Perform For Girl Scouts At Colo. Centennial

By VICKI EMERSON

COLORADO SPRINGS — A hush fell over the crowd of 15,000 gathered in the outdoor amphitheater at the 1959 Girl Scout Roundup as the colors were retired for the evening, and then the Colorado Centennial program was under way!

The Centennial, celebrating the "Rush to the Rockies" was attended by 10,000 Girl Scouts and 5,000 observers, which was only a fourth of the visitors that we had during the day.

The program began with "The Ride of the Colors," which was presented by a trick riding group called the Westernaires. This was followed by the reading of a message from President Eisenhower and Mrs. Charles Culmer, National Girl Scout President.

Then came a spectacular performance by the Koshare Indian Dancers. The group is made up of about 500 Eagle Scouts from La Junta, Colo. whose interests tend toward bringing back ancient tribal dances which have been lost through civilization.

After a three hour celebration 8,500 tired and cold girls left the large arena and made their ways to one of 6,000 tents.

Early the next morning, our section of the Roundup, which contains 1,700 girls, left for a tour of the Air Force Academy and the Garden of the Gods, a state park containing beautiful rock formations and trees. A barbecued lunch followed the tour at the Flying W Ranch outside of Colorado Springs. While eating barbecued beef and sipping icy lemonade we were seranaded by four Western singers, who were of special interest to those from the New England states.

Another interesting attraction for our patrol came on Saturday, July 11, when we are taken on a tour of the Administration area of the Roundup by Mrs. H. C. Schuckle, chairman of the national personnel committee. Our tour included meeting such people as Mrs. Culmer, the national president, Miss Dorothy Stratton, national Executive Director of the Girl Scouts, and Miss Oleta Schrotkey, national staff member in charge of the Centennial Celebration. Other introductions included Miss Catherine Hammett, camping director, and Miss Margaret Chapman, director of the Roundup.

The day of our departure is drawing nearer as we continue our swapping and making new friends—these two things seem endless, for out of 8,500 girls, it is only possible to meet about 500.

I hope to have a summary of our wonderful trip and our experiences when the Golden Hind patrol from Marin returns later this week.

Reception Is In Honor Of Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Fugina gave a reception on Sunday at their home in Sausalito honoring their newly wed daughter, Carolyn, and her husband, John Milton Abbott.

The couple are both members of the U. S. Marine Corps and chose the Ranch House Chapel at Camp Pendleton, where they are stationed, for wedding ceremony on July 4. John is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. Abbott of Auburn, Wash.

Sergeant Abbott and his bride, whose enlistments will be completed in the near future plan to live in Seattle.

COLLECTION PREVIEW

Show Will Feature Fashions For Fall

What will be the "Fashion Forecasts for Fall?"

Will it be longer skirts and hip length jackets, earth colors and daring sleeves? Will it be a pretty, feminine fall or mannish and tailored?

To begin to answer the important new fashion questions, Fashion Focus, the popular Tuesday series at Rickeys, has arranged a varied group of fall fashion previews to present the collections of outstanding American designers in the field of active sportswear, country casuals, town classics, after five, theater and opera gowns. Some of the collections featured will be custom originals, exclusive and more expensive; others will be moderate to inexpensive, but each chosen because it adds significantly to the fall fashion story.

Tuesday, July 21 is the date for the first of the special preview showings and will introduce the versatile, colorful collection of the young California designer, Jackie Morgan. Thirty of his fall fshions which will be featured in important shops throughout the country in a few weeks will be flown up from Los Angeles especially for next Tuesday's show. Locally Jackie Morgan is carried by Luana's of San Rafael who are supervising the fitting of the collection to eight of Marin's most popular models.

Honored group at the first "Fashion Forecast for Fall" will be the Marin Volunteers, an enthusiastic group of civic-minded women who offer financial and volunteer aid to the Senior Citizens Coordinating Council and whose unique shop "Trade Whims" gives an additional source of revenue to the Council.

On Tuesday, the Jackie Morgan collection will be modeled informally among the gay umbrella tables around the pool, the nicest way to be introduced to fall fashions. The designs will particularly appeal to the woman who appreciates a moderate price tag, but demands the most fashion for her money. There will be town suits, costume ensembles, city wools and late day looks emphasizing the unique color and fabric combinations which give great individuality to each Jackie Morgan fashion.

Walter's Coiffure Studio of San Rafael will create hair styles to compliment the Jackie Morgan designs

The Fashion Focus luncheons are open to the public with reservations for the 12:30 o'clock luncheon and 1 p.m. fashions made by calling Rickey's.

ST. PAUL'S Episcopal Church in San Rafael was the setting for the recent wedding of Elizabeth Ann Wolcott of Fairfax, and Robert Lee Hanson of Pittsburg and Stockton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wolcott of Fairfax.

Elizabeth Wolcott Weds Robert Hanson

In a candlelight ceremony at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael, Elizabeth Ann Wolcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wolcott of Fairfax, became the bride of Robert Lee Hanson of Pittsburg, Calif.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ray Hanson of Pittsburg and the late Mr. Hanson.

White gladioli decorated the altar for the recent ceremony, with the Rev. Henry Getz officiating.

When the bride entered on the arm of her father, she wore a full length gown of white satin and lace fashioned with long sleeves and scalloped neckline. It had seed pearls appliqued on the bodice and waist. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a seed pearl coronet and she carried a white prayerbook centered with white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Cecilia Jane Wolcott, as maid of honor for her sister, wore an apple green gown of organza styled with satin trim of the same color with bow at the bodice. She had a white satin headdress and white shoes and carried a cascade bouquet of coral and white carnations.

Joan Monaghan of Novato Mrs. Charlotte Gunter of San Rafael, bridesmaids, were dressed like the maid of honor. They carried circular bouquets of coral and white carnations.

Theresa Wolcott, the bride's younger sister, and Lorrie Elliott, a cousin, were flower girls.

John Bankson of Pittsburg was best man and ushers were George Wolcott, the bride's brother, and Neil Collier of Walnut Creek.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wolcott wore a dress of beige embroidered silk with beige accessories and a white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother chose a navy silk dress and had a white orchid corsage.

A reception for 200 guests followed at the bride's home where the fireplace was banked with evergreens and carnations and cut flowers were placed throughout the rooms.

For a wedding trip to Southern California and Mexico, the bride wore a mint dress with patent accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride, who is the sister of George, Ken, Cecilia, James, Harriett, Virginia, Thomas, Joe, and Theresa Wolcott of Fairfax, was graduated from the Portland (Ore.) High School and attended College of Marin. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lloyd of Ashley, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wolcott of Ashley are her grandparents.

The bridegroom was graduated from Pittsburg High School and attended both Diablo Valley Jr. College and San Francisco State College. He is completing his education at College of Pacific in Stockton where he is a member of the Veteran's Club. He is employed at the MAC Discount House in Stockton.

After July 20, the couple will take up their residence at 6413 N. Pershing, Stockton.

'WILLOW LOOK'

Forecast Of Fall Fashions: Bounce Back To Normal

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—If the fashion house of Christian Dior has any shockers up its sleeve for fall, it is saving them for the lated show in Paris.

The American-made wholesale collection is without innovation. It joins the rest of Seventh avenue, the nation's garment center, in a bounce back to normal.

The collection is called the "Willow Look," which I presume means the clothes will make us wisps of slimness even if we have the trunk of an oak.

It was described at a show fashion reporters yesterday as "emphasizing both suppleness of line and freedom of motion."

Shoulders are a little wider than last fall, but without exageration. Often the shoulder seam is dropped. Waistlines are where nature designed them, frequently cinched with wide belts or crushed cummerbunds. Skirts are 1½ inches longer than last fall, or comfortably covering the knee cap.

Suit jackets come in several lengths, although the trend is toward the longer, wrist length. Several are double-breasted.

The Dior designer, Yves St. Laurent, likes the collarless coat, with half the belt at the back and the collarless, belted suit with a fur ascot tucked in the neckline.

In some late day and evening fashions, the bell skirt of the old, old "New Look" (1947) is back, even to petticoats beneath.

Traditionally, the New York collection is a well-mannered one. The young designer follows the lead of the late Dior in saving the grand coup for the Paris custom collection, scheduled for July 30 this year.

Another up-and-coming young designer, Bill Blass, turned to masculine leisure wear for ideas. His clothes for Maurice Rentner included "Smoking Jacket" costumes — Long jackets in fine woolens or metallic brocades, tied casually with self belts. The jackets are shown over simple dresses, or with contrasting blouses and slim skirts. Some of the jackets are collared in fox.

Two strips of fox also trim the skirt of a cape and dress costume — running vertically from waist to hem.

Mollie Parnis, Mamie Eisenhower's favorite designer, turns to Mamie's husband for inspiration for a collection of late day, or church-going dress and jacket costumes. One outfit in black satin consists of dress with collarless neckline cut to a modest V, topped with an Eisenhower jacket, replica of one the president made famous in his World War II days.

Miss Parnis' favorite daytime silhouette is the Cavalier tunic —with simple, unadorned bodice and with slightly belted tunic coming to the mid-thigh. The waistline is belted.

Highlights of other collections shown visiting reporters were:

Jane Derby — the designer showed several shirtwaists, the tunic suit, cummerbunds wrapping waistlines, and the "apron" look for evening. The aprons, made in moire, lace or printed taffeta were worn over sleek dinner dresses.

Hannah Troy — She goes overboard for the costume — a neat, well-fitted dress under matching jacket. Many of the jackets are fur trimmed.

HISTORIC TREASURE BEING TAKEN TO CANADA BY DUO

When Miss Wylma Cunningham and Miss Eloise Mays left by car on a transcontinental journey Thursday they took with them a historic treasure, two books showing purchases and expenditures for the building of McGill University, Montreal, Canada. The entries in the books, which will be presented by Miss Cunningham to the university, were made by her great great grandfather, William Lauder, the builder of the university. He had come from Scotland with his brother, Andrew Lauder, William Redparth and Dr. McGill, for whom the university was named. Miss Cunningham's ancestor also built the first bank in Montreal and several other large structures. A distant cousin, Charles Waller, will show Miss Cunningham the house in which her family had lived and the church and school they attended.

Miss Cunningham and Miss Mays will drive from Canada through the New England states to New York where Miss Cunningham will attend a meeting of the Pillsbury School Advisory Council. They'll travel to Washington, D. C. and then begin their return trip, stopping en route to visit some of Miss Myas' relatives.

Lucas Valley Residents Are Given Parties

Among the activities in the expanded program of Friends of Arequipa as a birthday party each month at Lucas Valley Hospital and Farm for residents whose birthdays fall in that month. The hostesses arrive with elaborately decorated cakes and ice cream which is served to all the residents. The ambulatory patients and those who can be moved in wheel chairs gather in the reception hall to honor the birthday celebrants. Patients who cannot leave their beds are served party fare in their rooms.

At the June party, the lady honoree received a shell-decorated box filled with cosmetics and a gardenia corsage. The gentlemen received nylon utility kits filled with grooming aids and red carnation boutonnieres. Honored were Carmel Brown, Eugene Richmond, Manuel Angelo and John Turitosi.

Tomorrow the July party is taking place when Pauline Bradley, Lillian Weber, Ethel Webster and John Albright will be honored. Popular Moni Mulcahy will provide the musical entertainments.

The residents are enthusiastic over the parties. One remarked, "I have been in the United States 46 years and this is my first birthday cake and these are my first presents. God bless you."

Each month a different unit of Friends of Arequipa serves as the hostess group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles F. White.

Simple Hairdo Is Best For Vacation

It's a wise girl who goes to the hairdresser before she starts her vacation.

"If you wait until you get to the resort, you may not find a hairdresser or a hair style you like," advises hair stylist V. George of New York.

George suggests to every girl planning a season in sun, wind and water to have her hair thinned before buying her train ticket.

"The hair should be thinned out where it grows in bunches," he says. "These strategic spots hold the styling, and there is less wave and only a slight curve to hair styles this season."

Once your favorite hairdresser thins and shapes your hair, you'll be hair-happy on vacation, George points out, because the keynote to easy manageability is to get rid of the hair that throws the head off balance.

"Your hair does not need to be cut short. If it is thinned properly, it may be worn at any length," he explains.

George recommends bangs to those girls who can wear them, saying:

"A hairdo with bangs makes an easy-to-manage hairstyle when bathing, and may be recombed for evening dates. Bangs that start quite far back on the crown of the head give a curve rather than a wave to bangs."

He likes hair up to 3½ inches at the sides, bangs about three inches or less and hair at the back to clear the neckline. It's cooler and easier to manage in hot dog weather, he says.

George teaches his clients how to recomb their hair so it can be managed in two fashions —day and evening—in between visits to the hair salon. He prefers a loose, natural, soft, basic permanent, the basis for a lasting hairstyle.

Mrs. Pedersen Entertains At Luncheon

A "glad-to-be-home" luncheon was given Tuesday afternoon in her Mill Valley home by Mrs. K. W. Pedersen.

Fourteen guests were interested in hearing a review of the Pedersen's recent adventures in Bankok, Hong Kong, Japan and other places in the Orient. They spent an active two months revisiting the places where they had lived many years before moving permanently to Mill Valley in 1949.

As an export manager for the Danish East Asiatic Co., Pedersen lived 25 years in China, and his wife lived there 16 years.

Exhibited as a prize "trophy" was a beautiful statue of the Chinese goddess of Mercy, Quan Yin, which they found in Kyoto, Japan. It makes up to some extent, they feel, for the many treasures they lost when Hong Kong was occupied during World War II.

Present to hear the colorfully related experiences of the Pedersens were Mesdames Raleigh Garaghty, Martin, Gordon, Fred Vandyke, Charles Durrie, Richard Harding, Richard Ryder, James Langdon, J. B. Winterling, George Hildreth and Jane Duncombe, Nevin Kempthorne, Elizabeth Vreeland, and Harriet Walton.

Each guest received a lovely gift purchased by the Pedersens during their travels.

'Moonlight Mood' Will Be Theme Of CYO Dance

"Moonlight Mood" is the theme the students have selected for the next CYO dance to be held at the St. Raphael's Auditorium, Thursday, July 16, from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. The decorating committee, Kathy, Morphy, Beth Hartmann, Cookie Fagundes, Cynthia Shone, Diane Ghilotti, Kathy Rich, Mary Lucas, Steve Reems, Bill Nelson, Linda Redpath, Eddie O'Connel and Alan Bovee are students from Marin Catholic, San Rafael High and Dominican. Students fro all high schools are welcomed, also eighth grade graduates.

Marinite Buys Steam Beer Plant In S.F.

Lawrence Steese of Marin City has purchased the equipment of the Anchor Steam Brewery in San Francisco and may put the historic firm back into business in Marin County.

Steese said he and "a silent partner" have purchased all the brewery's equipment and may move it to another site—either in Marin or San Francisco.

LAST PLANT

Joe Allen, 71, owner-operator-brewmaster of the firm, announced a month ago that he was giving up the brewery, last of the steam beer plants.

Steese said the Anchor plant has stopped operating and the corporation is selling the equipment but not the property.

"We must find a stone or brick building to house and operate the equipment," Steese said, "and we hope it will be soon." He said he and his partner hope to start their operation before Thanksgiving Day. He added that a source of pure water was essential, and indicated that Marin water is satisfactory.

POTENTIAL BUYERS

Owner Allen, in selling the equipment, said: "The reams of publicity on my decision to quit brought innumerable potential buyers. But I turned down all the Ivy-League briefcase boys because they didn't look like they would be the type to carry on the old Anchor steam beer tradition."

He said Steese impressed him as a sincere type who would carry on the tradition "as it should be done."

Reconditioning Ships

TEXAS CITY, Tex. (AP)—Some Texas fleet tanker operators now cut their ships in half—right across the middle — in a radical new plan they call "jumboizing." The surgery takes away an old, worn-out mid-section. Then a larger mid-section is inserted. Result: A bigger, better oil tanker with the same power and speed at a fraction of the cost of a new vessel, and done in a fraction of the time required to build a new ship.

IT'S MAN IN THE MARKET NOW

Radio Station KTIM's "Man on the Street" becomes the "Man in the Market" this week, as station manager Hugh Turner interviews shoppers at the new United Market in San Anselmo. The program will be on the air from 11:30 a.m. to noon, daily through Friday. Here, Turner gets comments of Mrs. James Spencer of San Anselmo—who in turn gets an assist from year-old son, Michael Charles. (Independent-Journal photo)

Kennecott Copper Corp. Cuts Price

NEW YORK (AP)—Kennecott Copper Corp., the nation's largest producer of the metal, has cut its price one-and-one-half cents a pound to 30 cents a pound, effective today.

The move reverses an upward trend in producer prices ever since June, 1958, which had carried the metal up from its recession low of 25 cents a pound.

Custom smelters of copper have been reducing their price for several weeks, cutting to 29 cents a pound yesterday.

Give Children A Check-Up To Spot Health Problems

Do you give children regular medical check-ups? Then you can spot health problems before they get serious. Summer is a good time for the check-ups. I suggest you take your children to the doctor soon. Have him give them complete physical exams and talk with him about his findings.

Be sure to ask him about food and nutrition. I'm sure you intend to give your youngsters balanced diets. But you may be missing something. Some of our most popular children's foods are surprisingly low in food value. Your doctor can tell you about it.

How about your children's eyes? Has their vision ever been tested by a qualified eye specialist? A surprising number of children have unsuspected eye defects. They don't know they see things differently. They can't tell you. But an eye specialist can. Each year I go over the records of a large group of children who are far behind in reading at school. About one-third of them have unsuspected eye problems. Don't depend on the vision tests given at school. They aren't adequate. Have a specialist do the job. Have him repeat it every few years.

Do your children hear well? That question is especially important if they seem a little slow at school. A shocking proportion of the kids labeled dumb at school aren't dumb at all. They just have unsuspected hearing losses. They can't follow the teacher's directions. They catch on slowly. A good many of them come to resent their seeming dumbness. They start fighting back. That may be why so many of our juvenile delinquents have hearing losses. Be sure to have a specialist check your children's ears at least once while they're young.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "What can schools do to help pupils with moderate hearing loss?"

(A) Schools should have lip reading teachers help those with moderate loss. They can stay in the regular classes with special help. Schools should set up special full-time classes for those with severe loss, or with no hearing at all. Many schools already are doing this.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, July 14, the 195th day of the year, with 170 more days in 1959.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The evening stars are Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Mercury.

On this date in history:

In 1789, citizens of Paris stormed the Bastille and released the king's political prisoners.

In 1858, President Franklin Pierce opened the World's Fair in New York City.

In 1870, Congress granted a pension of $3,000 to President Lincoln's widow.

In 1921, the anarchists Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti were convicted of murder in one of the nation's most controversial cases.

In 1940, Russia annexed Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

In 1945, Supreme Headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Forces, also known as SHAEF, went out of existence at Frankfurt, Germany, 17 months and one day after it was organized.

A thought for today: Mark Twain said, "Loyalty to petrified opinion never yet broke a chain or freed a human soul."

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Art Exhibit Adds To Drama

An art exhibit provides an added attraction for the Tamalpais Valley Players' presentation of Arthur Miller's "All My Sons," at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club.

The play opened last weekend and will be repeated Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Harrie Batz.

Eight professional painters of national and Who's Who in Art fame have covered the walls of the clubhouse with their pictures. The eight — all members of Artist Associates, which maintains a gallery in Mill Valley's El Paseo — are Carlo Talliabue, Helen Gapen Oehler, Artur Palmer, Thomas Leighton, Nevin Kempthorne, Ted Christensen, Viking Leon and Margery Lester.

ELIMINATION OF DETOURS TO SAN QUENTIN

This map, supplied by the state Division of Highways, shows all detours along State Sign Route 17 between San Quentin wye in San Rafael and the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge have been eliminated. The full freeway with two lanes in each direction went into operation yesterday. The map shows the freeway and connections. There is still some minor work to be done on shoulders, fences and in general cleanup. Work on the 1.9-mile section, which cost $767,400, began last October.

Marin Anti-Brucellosis Program Given Praise

Marin County was lauded as a pioneer and missionary in dairy improvement as the state Department of Agriculture presented a county brucellosis-free certificate yesterday.

"The certificate was due last April so we're slightly behind," apologized Dr. Arthur Boyd, director of animal health for the department, in giving the document to Walter R. Castro, chairman of the board of supervisors, at a luncheon of the Marin County Farm Bureau board of directors at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

Boyd said Marin was "the first county of any major dairying state to undertake a brucellosis program" but that now all but one county has signed up.

Brucellosis, a bovine disease, is carried in milk to give rise to undulant fever in human beings. The certificant warrants that brucellosis infection exists in not more than 1 per cent of cattle and not more than 5 per cent of herds.

"We should seek to get rid of bovine brucellosis completely," said Joe Hart, president of the brucellosis committee of the California Farm Bureau.

Commenting that "California carried the weight of the vaccination program in the United States" during earlier days, Hart said that though brucellosis has not been completely eliminated, there must be continued vaccination "because this is a matter affecting the public health." In time, he said, brucellosis should be completely wiped out.

In accepting the certificate, Castro expressed pride in the expression of appreciation of Marin dairymen's efforts. Other speakers stressed Marin's role of leadership and said there has been heavy cost, but finally correspondingly great gain.

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Attorney Russell S. Munro, former director of the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Department, got himself a law partner yesterday.

His new associate's name: Donald J. Licker.

Bill Increases State's Take From Abandoned Property

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed legislation which is expected to bring in millions of dollars to the state treasury from abandoned property.

Announcing the signing yesterday, the governor's office estimated it would net the state $2,250,000 in general fund revenue this year and approximately $3,250,000 during 1960-61.

The bill by Assemblyman Allen Miller (D-San Fernando) establishes a 15-year dormant period before bank deposits are presumed abandoned and escheated to the state. The present period is 20 years.

The legislation also provides for regular reports to be filed with the state controller by holders of abandoned property. Other provisions are expected to increase state income from abandoned stock dividends and share interests.

Brown signed other bills, including:

RECREATION — Transfers the Recreation Commission to the Department of Natural Resources and creates a Division of Recreation; by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Richmond).

POLICE — Creates Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, including attorney general and nine members appointed by governor; Asseblyman George G. Crawford (R-San Diego).

STREETS — Permits a county, after notice and hearing, to close county streets and highways to commercial vehicles exceeding 14,000 pounds if streets cannot support such vehicles; Assemblyman William Biddick Jr. (D-Stockton).

BENEFITS — Repeals provision allowing director of employment to reduce unemployment insurance benefits based on condition of benefit fund; Assemblyman Carlos Bee (D-Hayward).

INSURANCE — Defines and prohibits unfair methods of competition in insurance industry; Assemblyman John O'Connell (D-San Francisco).

Planner Must Go To Jail In Marijuana Case

John Leslie Smith, 43-year-old Muir Beach planner who is serving a six-month jail term at night and weekends for marijuana possession, tried unsuccessfully yesterday to be freed from the jail term.

Attorney John Rockwell, representing Smith, said the planner must go to Sacramento and Los Angeles on important engineering jobs such as a water conservation dam for Frank's Valley and development of Muir Woods. Smith has already served three months and 13 days of his six month term. Rockwell declared that Smith has completely rehabilitated.

But Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich opposed the motion. "He has already received unusually lenient treatment," said Weissich. The district attorney pointed out Smith could have been charged with a prior conviction of bringing in marijuana, and also selling the narcotic, which could have given him a state prison sentence.

"I'm inclined to agree with Mr. Weissich," said Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court. "I don't see how it can be cut any deeper." Judge Keating denied the motion to eliminate the work-furlough sentence. But if Smith must make trips to Sacramento and to Los Angeles, the judge would consider a special order.

Waterfront Group Plans 2-Day Carnival

The Sausalito Preservation Assn., composed primarily of Sausalito waterfront residents, will sponsor a carnival Aug. 8 and 9 carrying the title of "The Waterfront Affair," according to David X. Lee, chairman.

It is slated to be held in the Gate 3 area of Marinship which is reached by the entrance opposite Nevada street.

Plans for the carnival will be discussed at a general meeting of the association which has been called for tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. in the auditorium at 3030 Bridgeway, Lee announced.

The carnival is tentatively being planned to include street dancing and entertainment of various types.

It will be held concurrently and in cooperation with the annual Sausalito cooperative Art Fair which will be held in the municipal parking lot at the opposite end of town, Lee said.

Young Soldier Dies As Speeding 'Cycle Crashes Into Car

A young soldier stationed at Ft. Baker in Southern Marin was killed yesterday afternoon when his motorcycle smashed head-on into an automobile near the Fireside restaurant on Shoreline highway.

Dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital was Sp/4c Max Ray Vaughn, 20, of the 561st Engineer Company at Fort Baker.

Witnesses said Vaughn, southbound on Shoreline, rounded a curve at high speed on the wrong side of the road and slammed into the front of a northbound car driven by Carl F. Guenzel, 44, of Spokane, Wash.

The impact was so severe it knocked the car back about 12 feet. The motorcycle landed 33 feet away.

Guenzel's daughter, Lois, 16, riding with her father, suffered a broken nose. Guenzel sustained bruises of the left leg and hand and a back injury. Both were released after treatment at Marin General.

The accident, at 4:15 p.m., brought Marin's 10th traffic fatality of 1959. A year ago there had been 11 traffic fatalities by this date.

Vaughn was unmarried. Army records list his next of kin as his father, Venson E. Vaughn, of Medina, Ohio.

Funeral arrangements had not been made this morning. The body was at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael pending final arrangements.

Marin Is Out As Sea Water Plant Locale

Marin County has been dropped from the list of possible locations for a federal government California sea water distillation plant, it was revealed today.

Though Marin had been earlier named as one of 10 possible sites, Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton today announced in San Francisco there are now only seven remaining possibilities—San Diego, Lompoc, Ventura County, Orange County, San Clemente, Monterey County and Camp Pendleton.

DEMONSTRATION UNIT

Seaton said first of five demonstration water conversion plants will be built by the government at Freeport, Tex., to produce a million gallons of fresh water daily. But atomic power won't be used there.

Seaton revealed the Department of the Interior has asked the Atomic Energy Commission to provide a low-temperature, low-pressure atomic reactor as heat source for the California plant. Work on specifications will start this week but no date has yet been set for beginning the plant work.

Seaton's announcements were to have been made personally in a speech before the American Water Works Assn. in San Francisco, but because of a throat infection he could not appear, and the talk was given for him by Allen Cywin, assistant director of the office of saline water, Department of the Interior.

'NO IDLE DREAM'

"It is no idle dream," said the text, "to prophesy that one day conversion plants along our coasts, as well as in many inland areas, will be as common as the familiar standpipe."

Of the five plants contemplated, under a law approved by the president last September, three will convert sea water and two will convert inland brackish water.

The Freeport plant, Seaton said, will convert sea water to fresh at a cost of under $1 per thousand gallons. This plant won't need a boiler because Dow Chemical Co. will sell steam to the plant, according to the secretary.

Seaton said he will make the final West Coast choice after he receives his report from a special site selection board.

A third conversion process will later be demonstrated for handling brackish water in a plant on the northern Great Plains or the arid southwest area, Seaton said. He explained that new methods of obtaining

Airport Proposed For San Rafael

State Aeronautics Unit Promotes Plan

The California Aeronautics Commission is interested in promoting an airport in San Rafael, Mayor John F. McInnis disclosed last night. And city councilmen are willing to listen to proposals to see how feasible the plans are.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen said he would arrange to have Arthur R. Kendall of Sacramento, field representative of the California Aeronautics Commission, appear at a meeting of the city council.

Mayor McInnis said Kendall is interested in an airport off San Quentin Point and details can be provided by Kendall when he appears before the council.

As McInnis understands it, the federal government will contribute 54 per cent of the cost, with 46 per cent to be raised locally, he said.

The mayor said a land owner off San Quentin Point may be willing to donate land for the airport. This donated land could be included in the 46 per cent local contribution, thus cutting the size of any bond issue that would be needed to finance the airport. Total cost of the airport is estimated to be $540,000.

Councilman Louis H. Baar said he would rather see an airport than the proposed civic center north of Santa Venetia. Councilman Fred E. Jensen warned that many individuals and groups will oppose an airport, although he himself is not opposed. But all councilmen agreed they would listen to Kendall and see what he has to present.

Adenauer Changes Stand On Summit

GENEVA (UPI) — West Germany has suggested that the Big Four recess the foreign ministers conference again and go straight to the summit on the broader issues of security and disarmament if Russia deadlocks the talks on Berlin, diplomatic sources disclosed today.

It was a surprise about-face by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer who previously had been adamantly opposed to a meeting of the Big Four chiefs of government without firm agreement on Berlin by the foreign ministers.

The United States accused Russia today of trying to freeze the East-West talks in deadlock by the sudden attempt to blackmail the West into recognizing communist East Germany.

An American delegation spokesman labeled as "obstructive" the Soviet demand that the East Germans sit in on secret negotiating sessions of the Big Four foreign ministers.

The diplomatic sources said West Germany suggested that details of the Berlin problem, in case of a stalemate here, should be "put over" to a third Big Four foreign ministers conference to be convened after a meeting of the heads of state.

The sources said the suggestion was made in a written memorandum delivered yesterday morning to U.S. Secretary of State Christian Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

It summed up West Germany's assessment of the first six weeks of the conference and contained proposals for a western policy during the second half.

No formal conference session was scheduled for today but the western ministers held two strategy meetings to discuss the situation.

BETWEEN HOUSES

Boat Serves As Home For Family Of Six

By RANDALL GOULD

"We were between houses, so we bought a boat instead," explained Alaska newsman Jack Ryan, 39.

Ryan was placidly sipping coffee in the roomy cabin of the craft in question — the 37-foot Tahiti ketch Little Flower, moored at a guest berth of the Marin Yacht Club on San Pedro road, San Rafael. Ryan's statement makes sense till the visitor notices others about the small sailing ship: Ryan's pretty young wife, Patricia, surrounded by the four Ryan offspring, Stephen, 9, Margaret Mary 8, Pattiann, 7, and Jackie Marie, 6.

Neither Ryan feels that any complication exists as long as the ensemble stays at sea.

"It's only in port that we seem to run into problems" said Ryan. "This is a wonderfully good sea boat and we get along fine when we shove off. We've ridden out high winds with small craft storm warnings through a night and a day, and during the night the children didn't even wake up.

"But when we come ashore . . . Well, you know there are such things as money to think about."

Neither the money nor any other problem seemed insurmountable when the Ryans came to their time of big decision up in Fairbanks, Alaska, last year after 10 years of married life there. As Ryan put it:

"We'd outgrown our first house; it was going to be a big investment to get another. We both like to travel and we felt that if we were ever going to travel any more this was the time to do it between houses.

"So we decided to move on a boat and get going; stop now and then for schooling and to make money, and after, say, four years, settle down.

"But so far it seems impossible to decide where we should finally stop, because everywhere we go it seems to be a nice place. And then after a while we want to get going again — now it looks like going through the Panama Canal, maybe the Galapagos Islands, probably finally Europe where we can work at American overseas bases."

Both the Ryans come from Puget Sound. One of his boyhood exploits was to buy a

San Rafael Boosts Pay Of City Help

All employees of the City of San Rafael will get a 5 per cent raise in pay—either in cash or in medical insurance and cash. Most department heads will get bigger boosts in salary.

In their final budget discussion last night San Rafael city councilmen decided that a 5 per cent across-the-board increase is the best they can give this year, whether it be in salary or in medical insurance.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen said he would ask all employees which they would prefer—a 5 per cent salary raise alone, or a 5 per cent salary raise minus the cost of medical insurance.

In either case, cost to the city would be the same.

Here are the pay boosts voted for department heads:

City Manager Andersen, from $11,000 per year to $12,500; Public Works Director Norris Rawles from $9,300 to $10,800; City Engineer Dominic Selmi from $8,832 to $9,600; Building Inspector Clifford Monk from $7,800 to $8,500.

OTHER SALARIES

Salaries of the city clerk-assessor, police chief and the tax collector-treasurer were set before the last April election. Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa gets $9,600 per year, as compared with the former chief, who drew a total of $9,000 per year in salary, car allowance and as parking meter supervisor.

Treasurer-Tax Collector Angelina Soldavini draws $7,800 instead of $6,300 paid before the election.

City Clerk W. L. Morgan's pay was set last February as follows: He was getting $625 as clerk, $100 as "finance officer," and $50 car allowance; total $9,300 per year. The council, last February, decided to raise the salary to $750, abolish the "finance officer" title, and indicated a $50 car allowance; total $9,600 per year.

FINANCE OFFICER

But last night, the council gave him the "finance officer" title again, which makes his salary $10,200 per year ($9,000 as clerk and $1,200 as finance officer).

Fire Chief C. M. Johansen's pay remains at $7,860 per year, but Deputy Fire Chief Vance Trivett goes from $7,200 to $7,800.

All other employees will get straight 5 per cent raises.

The pay raises will bring the total budget to well over two million dollars, but the tax rate will remain at 96 cents, the city manager said.

The public works projects were pared somewhat for the coming year, but they still total a whopping $489,000. Here is Rawles' priority list for the coming year:

1. Levee along the southeasterly bank of Mahon Creek from Francisco boulevard to Lindaro street.
2. Storm water pump station near Mosquito Abatement District.
3. Carryover projects such as Lootens place, C street, and Fifth avenue storm drain.
4. Slide corrections.
5. Maintenance, overlay of various streets.
6. Union street extension.

Hoffa Admits Dickering With Bridges

WASHINGTON (AP)— Teamsters Union president James R. Hoffa acknowledged defiantly today he is dickering for a pact with the West Coast Longshoremen's Union, expelled by the old CIO in 1950 for allegedly following the Communist line.

Hoffa denounced the ouster of the longshoremen as a phony act and defended Harry Bridges and Louis Goldblatt of Mill Valley, the Longshoremen's president and secretary-treasurer. (Earlier story on page 7).

But he flung a shouted warning at the Senate committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy: "Don't put me in their (Bridges and Goldblatt's) class."

Hoffa told Kennedy that "you'll get good and sued" if Kennedy makes any speeches linking Hoffa's name with communism.

Kennedy firmly retorted, "I'm certainly going to make speeches and point out the facts," of Hoffa's acknowledged negotiations for an agreement of some sort between the Teamsters and the Longshoremen.

The nature of the alleged pact remains in dispute.

Gambling Raid Results: 13 Suspects, No Arrest

A mass sheriff's raid on a suspected gambling operation last Friday night in Marin City was disclosed today by Chief Criminal Deputy Ellis Seibert.

Seibert and Undersheriff Eugene Meyer said the raid was not made public sooner because the report of the raid by Marin City deputies was not completed until today.

Thirteen suspected gamblers were trapped at A-29, apartment 229 by six sheriff's deputies who surrounded the apartment about 6 p.m. Friday. Each of the 13 denied they were shooting dice, although several admitted that a game was going on at the time. No arrest was made because of insufficient evidence.

Deputies Edmond Mauberret, Edward Klementovich, Fredrick Marcus and Harold Sleezer went to the front door and knocked, while Seibert and Inspector Marco Melovich covered the rear door and windows.

When Marcus knocked, someone opened a shade and spotted the officers. There was a big scuffle inside, deputies reported. All the men made a dash for the back door and window, only to face the business end of .38 caliber revolvers. Two men dived under a low cot, overturning it, Seibert reported.

When officers stepped in, a cigar box containing coins dropped to the floor, spilling the contents. A pair of dice, a deck of cards and a pocket knife were confiscated.

No one seemed to know who owns the apartment or who had been throwing dice.

Postcard Row In Hub Vote

City Councilman Carleton G. E. Little charged today that 750 postcards advocating a "yes" vote in today's San Anselmo civil service change election were "left on a shelf" of the Hub City post office and not distributed until voting was well under way.

Post office attaches admitted the cards, mailed Sunday night, were not distributed yesterday. But they said it was through inadvertence that the cards failed to make the Monday distribution.

DISTRIBUTED TODAY

All 750 cards, plus some more which Little mailed yesterday, were distributed to addressees today, said Postmaster Manuel Dos Reis.

"Ninety per cent of the people got them before they went to the polls," he declared.

Few had gone to the polls this morning. An Independent-Journal check at 11:30 a.m. showed that of 956 eligible to ballot at Wade Thomas School, only 36 had voted; of 1,100 eligible at Isabel Cook School, only 60, and of 350 eligible at the State Farm Insurance office, only 38.

AFTERNOON VOTING

Most of the voting was expected in late afternoon.

The proposal before Hub City voters today was for removing from the classified service covered by the civil service ordinance the positions of police chief, fire chief, building inspector, park and playground superintendent and superintendent of streets.

A two-thirds "yes" vote is necessary for passage.

All members of the city council except Mrs. Carmel H. Booth have urged a "yes" vote on the proposition. The San Anselmo

Day School Expansion Work Starts

Construction began this morning on an $80,000 expansion at Marin Country Day School on Paradise drive in Corte Madera.

An ambitious master plan for the development of the private school was approved last night by the Corte Madera Planning Commission.

Ultimate development will divide the school's 36 acres into four areas: A primary school for kindergarten through fourth grade; an upper school for fifth through eighth grade; an "allied arts" center of science building, library and administration building and a "transportation quad" at the entrance of the school where buses will load and unload.

Construction begun today by Contractor Ralph Murphy and Son of San Rafael includes a music building, an arts and crafts building, and an administration and library building. The library will be used temporarily as two classrooms, said Mrs. E. D. Mendenhall Jr., of Belvedere, president of the school's board of trustees.

Target date for completion is opening of school in September, when 250 pupils will enroll. The future campus is designed for an enrollment of 370.

The new buildings were designed by John Lyon Reid and Associates, San Francisco ar-

STEEL UNION IN NEW BID FOR CONTRACT

NEW YORK (UPI)—David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, today made a new bid to break the contract deadlock only 12 hours before 500,000 steel workers were scheduled to go on strike.

McDonald said the union would agree to writing into the contract a statement that it was not opposed to technological progress in the plants. His offer was an effort to appease a major industry demand.

The industry had demanded contract language revision in connection with automation and other technological advances. (See story on page 4.)

FLEDGLING EDITOR 'BORROWS' RARE PICTURE — AND TROUBLE

Pearce Gardiner Davies Jr., 37, of Sausalito, was charged last night with malicious mischief and petty theft for allegedly cutting a valuable picture out of a Sausalito library book to illustrate the first edition of a fledgling publication.

Police Chief Howard Goerndt said Davies borrowed the book, "In Tamal Land," from the library May 21. When it was returned four weeks later, said Goerndt, a library employee noted that a page was missing.

Davies was arrested at his home at 358 Litho street by Donald E. Midyett, chief investigator for the district attorney's office, and Police Officer Peter Lampros. He was booked in the county jail, and later released on $250 bail.

Employment Rises To Record In June

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment surged to a record high of 67,342,000 in June. A gain of 1,326,000 was built on strong factory hiring and seasonal rises in farming and construction.

The Labor Department reported that unemployment rose simultaneously by 593,000 as two million students and new graduates flooded the job market.

As a result unemployment remained at 4.9 per cent of the civilian labor force, after allowing for seasonal fluctuations.

But the steep climb in employment—a gain of 4,600,000 since February—has seldom been matched in history. It attested to the force of the business recovery, department officials said.

Factory workers' average weekly earnings also reached a record at $90.54. The workweek lengthened to 40 hours and 36 minutes on the average, a longer work week than in any June since 1955.

The report issued today by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell stressed the June gain in factory jobs. The increase was 244,000, about double the usual rise for the month. It pushed factory employment to 16,400,000, only about 400,000 below the pre-recession level in mid-1957.

Plot Against Ex-Cuban Air Chief Claimed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Questioning of the former chief of the Cuban air force at a Senate hearing was suddenly halted today and spectators sent from the room. Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) said he had been told "an attempt would be made to injure the witness."

Eastland said the information came in a telephone call just after the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee had begun questioning Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz.

Diaz resigned his post June 30 with a blast at the regime of Fidel Castro. He charged Communists were infiltrating Cuba's military forces.

About 20 minutes after the hearing was suspended, four U.S. soldiers arrived and went into the room. They carried cases which possibly contained bomb detection equipment.

After a survey of the room by the Army men, Capitol police announced that the hearing would be resumed.

Eastland declined to tell newsmen what had happened or to discuss the mission of the Army men.

Lucky Visit By Ex-Wife

It was lucky for Patrick Wall of Sausalito that his ex-wife paid him a visit; otherwise his home at 127 Glen drive might be only a pile of ashes.

The Independent-Journal reported Saturday that Mrs. Rosland Wall of 127 Glen drive discovered her two-story home on fire late Friday, called the Sausalito Fire Department and rushed to safety her two children, Chris, 7, and Miranda, 6.

It wasn't quite like that, Mrs. Wall explained today. The home isn't hers, but that of her divorced husband, from whom she separated four years ago.

Mrs. Wall, who lives in Carmel, came to Sausalito with the children to see her ex-husband for the first time in 18 months. He was at work. They went inside to wait for his return, and Chris noticed the fire.

Wall arrived home at 5:10 p.m., just as firemen were leaving after confining the blaze, which started in grass outside, to the roof and siding.

District Hit By Fire Declared Disaster Area

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Holt (R-Calif.) said yesterday the Small Business Administration has declared the fireswept Laurel Canyon section of Los Angeles a disaster area.

The designation makes residents of the area eligible for loans and benefits under the Small Business Act.

Pay Hike Asked For Mill Valley School Aides

Mill Valley School District Supt. G. R. McConnell recommended to the trustees last night that salaries of all district employees be increased during the new fiscal year to the extent of about $50,000.

His recommendation followed disclosure that the district has received $48,000 in state funds, which, although not entirely unexpected, had not previously been confirmed.

Of the total, $12,000 came from the distribution of state school funds and $36,000 from AB 1000, recently approved by the Legislature.

McConnell called trustees' attention to the undistributed reserve of $75,708 which would be the source of the recommended salary increases.

Mrs. Jean Rosse, board chairman, said trustees were "sympathetic" to the recommendations and would discuss McConnel's proposals at a future meeting.

Trustees also:

1. Authorized four new teaching contracts: Mary Spalding, first grade, Park School; Ellen Crawford, second grade, Park; Rochell Bachrach, sixth grade, Tamalpais Valley; Marilu McGerrity, sixth grade, school unassigned.
2. Took no action on plans for improvement of California avenue near Marin Terrace School, leaving the way open for possible development of an assessment district to accomplish the work.
3. Approved a contribution of about $280 to the Junior Museum of Marin.
4. Set July 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the district office as the time and place for an executive session for "evaluation of the superintendency."

Higher Gate Bridge Budget Recommended

A 1959-60 operating and maintenance budget of $1,642,157, up $134,472 from last year's $1,507,685, for the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District was recommended yesterday by the district director's finance committee.

Despite the increase in the operating-maintenance budget, the district's total budget will be substantially lower than last year's, mainly because only $75,000 is allotted for repair and depreciation reserves, while the same item totaled $375,000 last year.

The total 1959-60 budget, as recommended by the committee and including an item of $65,500 for "equipment and betterment," is $1,782,657 as against last year's $1,937,685.

The district's full board of directors will meet at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow in the bridge administration building to consider the recommended budget.

James Adam, bridge general manager, said most of the increase in the operating budget is in salaries, including pay increases already granted to maintenance workers and in a 5 per cent pay boost recommended for toll collectors, towmen and clerical employees by the committee yesterday and included in the recommended budget figure.

Adam also noted that the budget makes no provision for major improvements to handle the bridge's ever-increasing traffic, and pointed out that any improvements of this nature would be extremely costly.

There was no discussion of the possibility of cutting the bridge toll at yesterday's committee meeting.

Probation Given In Perversion Case

Donald Franklin Davis, 41-year-old radio announcer from Tiburon, drew five years probation yesterday for sex perversion at a hotel restroom in San Rafael last April.

On the recommendation of Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich, Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court suspended a one-year jail term and put Davis on five years probation.

During that time, he must seek and maintain case work or psychiatric treatment until authorized to stop such treatment by the therapist and the probation office.

Reno Newspaper Strike Continues

RENO (AP) — Prospects for settlement of Reno's first newspaper strike appeared dimmer than ever today.

A federal mediator brought management of Reno Newspapers, Inc., and officials of the striking American Newspaper Guild together for the first time in more than two weeks last night.

But both sides reported no progress toward an agreement. Further mediation was recessed indefinitely.

Convict Forest Conservation Chief Appointed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown, moving to get idle convicts to work on state forest projects, has appointed a veteran corrections officer to head the state's new conservation center.

Merle R. Schneckloth, associate warden in charge of custody at Folsom Prison, was named yesterday to direct what Brown called "a pioneering program in the conservation of men and natural resources."

Schneckloth has been with the Corrections Department since 1945. He came here from the State of Washington, where he held various posts in state prisons.

Humphrey Tosses Hat In Demo Ring

SEN. HUBERT H. HUMPHREY
Formally enters race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota formally entered the race for the Democratic presidential nomination today just one year before the party's national convention in Los Angeles.

The announcement of his entry — making him the first major candidate to fling his hat in the ring —— came from Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy (D-Minn.) and Gov. Orville Freeman of Minnesota.

'CANDIDATE KNOWS'

McCarthy, at a news conference here while holding an open telephone line to St. Paul with Freeman on the other end, said in response to a question as to whether Humphrey approved of the move:

"The candidate knows we are making this formal announcement, and of course approves."

McCarthy said Humphrey is ready to compete in Democratic presidential primaries but is "disposed to concede" primaries where genuine favorite sons are entered.

MAY ENTER PRIMARY

Asked whether Humphrey would enter the Wisconsin primary April 5, McCarthy said he could not say definitely but indicated that Humphrey desired to enter it. Wisconsin is expected to pose one of the key primary tests.

None of his likely competitors appears inclined to follow quickly on the heels of Humphrey's ice-breaking leap.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) expressed surprise at Humphrey's early public unveiling of his ambitions. But the Massachusetts senator said this will make no change in his own plans.

Kennedy, who has been unofficially beating the bushes for convention delegates for months, said he will decide at the end of this year or early in 1960 whether he will become an active candidate.

Humphrey Tells Policy On Brown

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) says he won't woo California Democrats in his bid for the presidential nomination if they unite behind Gov. Edmund G. Brown as a "favorite son."

"If the governor and the state party organization are serious about his favorite son candidacy role — as sort of an open-end proposition and more than a holding action —I will respect their judgment," the Minnesota Democrat said.

"If others, however, seek to make a political battleground of the primary in California and there is any indecision on the part of the state organization, I would be compelled to re-assess the situation."

Red Tape Bogs Nixon Russ Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's proposed visit to the Soviet Union is snarled in Soviet red tape—only a week before he is due to take off for Moscow.

After two months of backstage negotiations, Soviet and American authorities have yet to agree on exactly what cities Nixon will visit, how long he will stay and how much freedom his party will enjoy. But top officials are confident these problems will be settled in time for Nixon to leave by jet airliner July 22 as scheduled.

Prospects are he will visit Moscow, talk with Premier Nikita Khrushchev, then perhaps seven other Soviet cities in an unprecedented good-will visit lasting about two weeks.

Most authorities blame the present uncertainty on Soviet bureaucratic delay.

Nicasio Firemen Planning Fete

An aquacade, a fashion show and a style show will be among features of the Nicasio Volunteer Fire Department's 13th annual barbecue and dance at 8 p.m. Saturday.

This is the firemen's only means of raising funds through which to carry on their work, a spokesman said.

Steel Strike Start Looms For Midnight

Both Sides Concede No Real Hope For Averting Walkout

NEW YORK (AP) — A steel strike at midnight loomed inevitably today with union and industry negotiators going through the motions of fruitless last minute bargaining sessions.

Chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper said there was no change in the bargaining stalemate.

However Cooper and Steelworkers Union president David J. McDonald kept talking with fellow negotiators about a possible new contract.

Cooper said the process of closing down the industry in advance of the expected midnight walkout was already well along.

POSE FOR PHOTOS

McDonald and Cooper shook hands and willingly posed for a news photographer before starting their final round of sessions. They engaged in their usual banter with newsmen but conceded that neither had any real hope for averting the walkout.

The steel industry stuck firmly to its position that any extra wage and other concessions would be inflationary.

McDonald said pyramiding industry profits could pay for substantial pay and other contract increases without accompanying price boosts.

LAST-DITCH PROPOSAL

In a last-ditch proposal last night, McDonald said the union was willing to settle for a package increase in pay and benefits worth 15 cents per hour in each year of a three-year contract. Steelworkers now average $3.10 per hour

President Eisenhower for many months has been urging steel negotiators to be moderate.

Eisenhower three times has intervened in the negotiations seeking to keep them going.

At his urging in late June, the union agreed to delay a strike from July 1 until tonight.

Steel Mills Step Up Shutdown Operations

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Faced with a strike deadline at midnight tonight, basic steel companies today stepped up shutdown operations at mills throughout the nation.

If negotiators in New York don't reach agreement on a new contract or don't approve another extension of the old pact, the mills will be virtually at a standstill by nightfall.

The slow, systematic shutdown began in many mills during the weekend. A number of blast furnaces and open hearth furnaces were completely shut down yesterday with only a little heat being fed into them to prevent sensitive refractory linings from cracking.

Companies transported food, cots and bed clothing into mills for supervisory personnel who must keep a constant watch on the expensive equipment during a strike.

United Steelworkers locals were making picket signs and drawing up picketing assignments and schedules.

Khrushchev Visits Poland

WARSAW (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev flew into the Polish capital today on a state visit designed to demonstrate the solidarity of the two Communist countries in the face of heightening world tension.

He got a warm greeting from Polish Communist party head Wladyslaw Gomulka, with whom he had a stormy all-night session in October, 1956, trying to slow down Poland's headlong rush away from Stalinism.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Four Hijack Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Four Cuban servicemen fled here yesterday by hijacking a Fidel Castro air force plane with 17 persons aboard.

They predicted more Cubans will follow them into exile because of rising Communist influence at home. The Cuban air force mechanics used pistols to persuade a pilot to land them in Miami. They said their plane had been bound for Camaguey

'Miss' Wool Isn't

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Miss Wool isn't a miss any more, and officials of the National Wool Pageant here are wondering what to do next.

Miss Beverly Bentley of Albuquerque, N.M., the current Miss Wool, disclosed yesterday she is now Mrs. Kenneth McCormick of El Paso, Tex.

Pageant rules call for Miss Wool to reign over the August pageant until a new Miss Wool is chosen from candidates entered by more than a dozen wool-producing states.

Mental Patients Riot

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — Twenty-five screaming mental patients broke up furniture, smashed windows and surged into the yard at Central State Hospital last night, but the disturbance was quickly ended.

Supt. J. K. Ogden said he believed the patients staged the 45-minute riot to draw attention to grievances rather than to escape.

Probe Of Landing

NEW YORK (AP)—The Federal Aviation Agency has announced it will investigate reports of widespread confusion on the ground during preparations for landing a crippled jet airliner.

At the same time the Port of New York Authority, which runs Idlewild Airport, said the same thing is bound to happen again.

The Port Authority reported that 50,000 thrill-seekers headed for the airport Sunday when news bulletins on television and radio disclosed that the airliner, with 113 persons aboard, was circling the field and would make an emergency landing with damaged landing gear.

Wade Niagara Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—Police caught two boys wading into the water on the brink of Niagara Falls last night to retrieve good luck pennies tossed by tourists. The boys, whose names were withheld, were turned over to their parents. They had collected 34 cents.

Rocket Shot Delayed

POINT ARGUELLO (AP)—After running out of sunlight on its first attempt, the Navy said it would try again today to launch a rocket equipped to probe solar activity.

The first of 12 shots aimed at gathering information about solar flares was scheduled to be fired from the Navy's new missile facility here last night. But the loading of instruments into the 21-foot-long Nike-Asp rocket took longer than expected and the sun went down before the job could be completed. The tests must be conducted in daylight.

much rundown fishing boat for $1, rebuild it, sail it to Alaska when he was 17 and fish two summers for "college money" which — with added income from a book he did about it all — let him be graduated from the University of Washington school of journalism.

Then he worked for Seattle newspapers, United Press, went back to Alaska to be managing editor of the Anchorage Daily News and moved to editorship of the Fairbanks Daily News Miner.

Mrs. Ryan operated a piano studio and agrees that "we worked hard" — hard enough to fire up over the notion of becoming water gypsies and to take determined action.

No suitable boat was available in Alaska so they flew to Seattle and found just what they wanted, buying in September, 1957.

"Then we ran into problems of outfitting because it seems boats aren't built for families," Ryan related. "This one had been built in Poulsbo, Wash., by an old Norwegian who had meant to sail it back to the old country. But he died first.

"It's a fine boat of a well-known deep sea design originated in 1932. A number have sailed around the world. But for a family you need a lot of special things. For instance, you'd never believe how much water kids can drink. So we put in tanks for 300 gallons of water — ample for 60 days, enough for 90 if you radtioned.

"We got $150 worth of groceries and just lost 'em—provisions go under bunks and all around."

Though the family meant to leave by May or June of last year, meanwhile pausing in Tacoma with the senior Ryans working at newspapering and teaching respectively, they'd just get aboard for take-off when disaster struck in the form of measles.

"Three of the four children had it," said Mrs. Ryan ruefully. "That held us up till mid-July."

Finally they got away and sailed down the coast, "stopping at every port and having every kind of weather but good."

A thousand miles on the ocean thoroughly tested the vessel, they felt, but San Francisco offered no available long-term mooring.

So they went up-river to Sacramento where "Pat" — Mrs. Ryan — promptly got work and the boat underwent some changes, shown necessary by the sea experience. Then they pulled out again, arriving Sunday at San Rafael.

The vessel has three sails, main, mizzen and jib, with a four-cylinder gasoline engine. It is of double-end construction, wide 12-foot beam, and comfortably sleeps all six with two children forward, two aft with the engine, and the parents in the main cabin.

"Now," said Ryan, "the new problem is that we have to put into shipyard here because the boat has been leaking and there's dry rot in the cabin which will have to be resurfaced with mahogany plywood."

Only after this is done can the next leg to Panama be attempted, the Ryans agree. So Mrs. Ryan will be out after a Marin teaching job. Her husband will fly north to serve his former newspaper in Fairbanks again for a few months.

"But we'll be off again pretty soon," they cheerfully agreed.

TIGER WASN'T LOST AT ALL; HE'LL BE BACK

Tiger wasn't lost; he was right in Larkspur all the time.

Last Friday, James Vercellino, who operates Jim's Tavern at 450 Magnolia avenue, Larkspur, and lives upstairs at the same address, reported someone had picked up his pet dachshund, Tiger, while the dog was out for a stroll.

Today, Mrs. Clay Chapman of 143 Elm avenue, Larkspur, said it was her husband who picked up the dog. She read of Vercellino's loss in the Independent-Journal.

"He looked so thin, we thought he must have been lost for days," said Mrs. Chapman.

She said the dog (somewhat plumper than when found) would be returned to the tavern today.

Mill Valley Bond Debate Planned

A debate on the pros and cons of the proposed $600,000 school bond issue to be submitted to voters in the Mill Valley School District Sept. 15 is being planned by the Mill Valley League of Women Voters, according to Mrs. Robert Wickersham, president.

Date of the proposed debate has not yet been set, Mrs. Wickersham said.

She has extended an invitation to all those wishing to participate either for or against the proposal to call her at her Mill Valley home.

U.S.-Russ Bridge Link Suggested

NEW YORK (AP)—A proposal to promote American-Soviet unity has been made — hitch the two countries together by a bridge or a tunnel.

The proposal came from Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) who suggests that a 42-mile structure span the Bering Strait, which separates Siberia and Alaska.

"Real American families driving in American-made cars with the kids piled in will do more than a summit conference," to improve relations, said the senator.

State Picks Hayward For College Site

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state Public Works Board, overturning an earlier decision in favor of Pleasanton, has picked Hayward as the site of the Alameda County State College.

Climaxing an all-day hearing requested by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, the board voted 2-1 yesterday in favor of the Saltz Ranch in Hayward over objections from the owners and state Finance Director Bert Levit.

"Nothing really has changed regarding the Saltz property," Levit said. The land, located in an industrial area, was rejected earlier.

The board placed two conditions of acceptance of the property:

1. The Hayward city council must assure "compatible zoning" of surrounding property.

2. Hayward must fulfill its promise to make up the difference if the price exceeds the available $1,600,000.

HAFB Man Held In Rape Attempt

S/Sgt. Ralph L. Wyatt, 29, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was being held by Petaluma police today charged with assault with intent to commit rape.

Entering a Petaluma bedroom by way of an open window at 2:50 a.m. last Saturday, Wyatt removed his clothing and got into bed with the occupant of the home, a housewife with two children, police said.

In response to her phone call, the victim's husband returned from work and called the police. Wyatt made no attempt to escape, according to Police Sgt. Donald Gale and Officer Dale Moore, arresting officers.

Sausalito Will Hear Protests

The Sausalito City Council will sit as a board of equalization tonight to hear protests on city property assessments.

This will precede its regular meeting which has been postponed from last Tuesday. Major item scheduled for discussion is a recommendation from the planning commission that all apartment construction require a minimum of 2,500 square feet of land for each living unit built.

Supervisors Discuss Pt. Reyes Park Plan

Marin's County board of supervisors again today briefly discussed the Point Reyes seashore park proposal without making any move to send its "substantive objections" to the proposal to Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Calif.) as Miller has asked them to do no later than this week.

Miller and Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) have deferred introducing a bill to authorize the park a week in order to allow the Marin supervisors to forward their objections.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said the board's opposition to the bill, voted 4-1 two weeks ago, was in no way a vote opposing the park. It was opposition to a bill which, if enacted, would authorize the federal government to condemn land in the Point Reyes area, until a feasibility study of the park proposal is made, Fusselman insisted.

Supervisor Vera Schultz disagreed, arguing that no condemnation or other land acquisition would take place until a study is made and only if the study findings are favorable.

She contended that the Miller-Engle bills would do no more than add the Marin area to others which are under consideration for national seashore recreation area sites.

Marin Boy On Way To Australia

A 19-year-old graduate of Marin Catholic High School is on his way to Australia for his first meeting with grandparents whom his mother has not seen since a year before he was born.

He is Michael Iribarne, eldest son of Mrs. Isobel Iribarne of 1227 Irwin street, San Rafael.

Just through his freshman year at Notre Dame University, where he ranked among the highest in academic standings of a class of 1,500, he left Sunday on the liner Monterey to visit Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Burrell of Sydney.

During the ship's 42-day cruise, including Tahiti and New Zealand, he will have three days with his mother's parents.

Michael was student president at Marin Catholic High School and was winner of an Elks scholarship. He is expected to return Aug. 23.

Cole's Companion Won't Be Indicted

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The San Francisco Grand Jury voted early today not to indict Yvonne Conley, George Cole's 48-year-old common-law wife, as an accessory after the slaying of Police Sgt. Joseph Lacey.

Cole is accused of fatally shooting the policeman in a Tenderloin tavern robbery here Dec. 23, 1956.

The 32-year-old Cole, object of a two-and-one-half-year manhunt, was picked up in Des Moines, Iowa, with Yvonne last week by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents who traced him to a gas station where he worked.

Motel Signs Approved At Corte Madera

Signs advertising the Edgewater Inn were approved last night by the Corte Madera Planning Commission to replace signs which now exceed the 200 square foot limit set by ordinance.

Planning Commission Chairman John Adlard said the approved signs include one at the north end of the motel, a small one at the entrance, and a directional sign beside the southbound lanes of Highway 101 just before the turnoff to the Corte Madera luxury motel.

Adlard said the planning commission withheld approval for a sign for Bob's of Marin, a restaurant adjoining the motel. Adlard said the sign was "within the size limitation but the exact location wasn't defined for us."

City Employees Assn. has campaigned for a "no" vote.

Little's cards set forth reasons for voting "yes." He said he mailed the 750 on Sunday night in the "bulk mail" slot of the San Anselmo Post Office.

Postmaster Dos Reis said a postal clerk claimed to have found the cards after the Monday morning mail was sorted for distribution, in a box in the lobby in which letters can be dropped through a slot from outside.

One postal clerk, however, said he had found what he believed were the cards in question while sorting the mail early Monday, but had put them aside while processing other mail and apparently failed to sort them.

Little said he would demand that a post office inspector be called in to investigate the whole matter.

Postmaster Dos Reis said he and the two clerks involved would be present at the San Anselmo City Council meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow to tell their side of the story.

"Mistakes will happen," said Dos Reis. "We do the best we can. Certainly nobody intentionally failed to distribute Mr. Little's cards."

Rebellious Convicts Hole Up In Coal Mine

PETROS, Tenn. (AP)—Rebellious convicts reportedly booby-trapped a coal mine with dynamite at Brushy Mountain State Prison today and refused to give up after releasing one of three hostages.

The state assistant corrections commissioner, Pat Patterson, discussed grievances with the 95 convict miners, and said a spokesman telephoned to the mine entrance:

"We've talked it over and we're not coming out.

State authorities said Shirley Bunch, the hostage who was released, said the convict miners had booby-trapped the entrance with dynamite. The report was unconfirmed from any other source.

Convict spokesmen made it clear, however, that they did not intend to harm anyone—citing their release of Bunch, who said he was having chills.

Bunch, 63, was one of three unarmed mine foremen whom the convicts seized as hostages yesterday morning. He had not been harmed.

Patterson told newsmen later that Gov. Buford Ellington had ordered that there be no concessions to the rebels.

This Patterson said, includes no food, no water.

Patterson said the prisoners' demands included more pay for coal they mine.

Cooperative Buys Stock Of Vinters

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — In a transaction involving about 24 million dollars, directors of Allied Grape Growers and of United Vintners, Inc., have approved purchase by Allied of the stock of United Vintners.

The organizations announced the proposal yesterday. The stock purchase is subject to approval of growers belonging to Allied, and of stockholders of United.

Allied Grape Growers is a co-operative association of California vineyardists.

United Vintners owns Petri, Italian Swiss Colony and other wine brands.

A joint statement said "the purchase price for the stock . . . will be approximately 24 million dollars, payable in installments over a 10-year period."

7 Windows Broken At Lu Sutton School

Vandals broke seven windows at the Lu Sutton School, under construction in West Novato, construction foreman Ray Luoma reported to Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos yesterday.

Luoma, foreman for Reynolds Construction Co. of Santa Rosa, estimated it would cost $90 to replace the windows.

Sausalito School Board Approves TV Contract

Sausalito School District trustees last night approved a contract with television station KQED for participation of Central School in the station's instructional programs during the next school year.

Acceptance of the contract hinges on completion of a special TV antenna which land developer Rob Rose has offered to the district at no cost. The antenna was necessary to provide reception.

Trustees also renewed an accident insurance program whereby parents may subscribe to insurance at a cost of $1.75 per child per year covering school hours and one hour following close of school.

The trustees also:

1. Approved resurfacing the upper terrace at Central School.
2. Approved teaching contracts for music teacher Cesare Claudio, science teacher A. W. Nelson and second grade teacher Margaret Trujillo.
3. Authorized a $125 contribution to the Junior Museum of Marin.
4. Renewed the district's fire insurance coverage through the Eastman-Ravizza agency of Sausalito.
5. Approved payment of warrants totaling $12,977.62.
6. Set for tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. a special budget discussion in the district office. Budget adoption has been set for the board's Aug. 3 meeting.

Report Shows 1,398 Juvenile Arrests In County Last Year

A total of 1,398 juvenile arrents were made in Marin County last year, according to "Crime in California, 1958," a booklet compiled by the Bureau of Criminal Statistics of the state attorney general's office.

But of this total, comprising 1,212 boys and 186 girls, only 510—431 boys and 83 girls — were referred to the probation office or court.

This percentage, however, closely followed that of the state as a whole. Of a statewide total of 150,955 juvenile arrests the publication showed only 68,185, or about 45 per cent as turned over for probation or court action.

ACTUALLY NO CHANGE

It was noted that though the total was up 6,000 from 1957, on a rate per 100,000 population basis "the 1958 total actually showed no change from 1957"—the first year that such data were reported.

"A great many youngsters are arrested, booked at juvenile hall, then handled on an informal basis," said Marin Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich.

Walter Busher, chief Marin probation officers, pointed out that definition varies greatly in the matter of juvenile "arrest" for what might be termed only a "police contact" — such as warning a carload of youngsters out riding late at night—can become a statistic and count as an arrest technically.

'WOULD SWAMP US'

"The police are able to handle a great many juvenile matters at the point of contact," he said. "In such instances there is no reason for referring the matter on to us. In fact, it would swamp us if they referred everything of this sort to us."

Marin is among several counties whose rate of felony filings decreased in 1958 as against the previous year, the publication shows.

With 136 such filings last year, and an estimated 137,000 population, Marin had among the lowest rates per 100,000 with a rate of 99 as compared with 288 for Imperial, 270 for Riverside and 243 for Los Angeles. The San Francisco rate is 160. Lowest was San Mateo with 66 among counties of 100,000 population or more among which Marin ranked fourth from the bottom in rate.

WIDEST RANGE

Marin has the widest range of any county of more than 100,000 population in elapsed time for disposition of the middle 80 per cent of superior court cases, a chart showed. This county's range started at nine days and extended to 200, while the San Francisco range was 27 to 139 days and Los Angeles was 28 to 139 days.

Felony crime reports in Marin County totaled 677 for the year, 428 reports of burglary topping the list, with 118 auto thefts, 68 other thefts, 29 assaults, 19 robberies, 13 forcible rapes and two wilful homicides.

Statewide, the publication found improvement in the 1958 crime picture as compared with that of the two previous years.

"Slight increases were noted in adult felony crime," said the volume, "but much lower than the increases that had been experienced during the two previous years. The statewide juvenile delinquency picture indicates no increase at all in 1958 over 1957."

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Industrials perked up late this afternoon to give a sluggish stock market an edge to the upside. Trading was fairly active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,200,000 shares, compared with 3,360,000 yesterday.

Selected industrials posted gains of fractions to a point or so. A good assortment of losers remained from the earlier irregularity.

Gains of more than a point by U.S. Steel and Jones and Laughlin highlighted the steel section.

American Motors advanced more than a point. Chrysler was about a point higher.

Aluminums found renewed strength and aircrafts staged a minor rally.

Reynolds Metals was up more than four and Kaiser Aluminum well over a point.

North American aviation was about a point higher.

Coppers and oils drifted off mildly. Rails were irregularly higher.

Western Effect

NEW YORK (UPI) — TV westerns are apparently proving a blessing to the small arms business. Industry sources predict production of pistols this year will increase 10 per cent to 500,000, with western-style six-shooters accounting for 150,000 to 200,000 of the total.

A HAPPY LITTLE GIRL

It was a joyful reunion yesterday when little Carla Cox, 4, of North Wilkesboro, N. C., embraced her toy Pomeranian dog, Yo-Yo. Carla was taken to Greensboro, N. C., for a second corrective operation on her eyes. During the trip Yo-Yo was lost. Greensboro police, newspaper and the sympathetic public all joined in the effort to find the child's pet and boost her morale before she underwent the surgery. The search was successful and Yo-Yo was returned to his young mistress. Then came more good news for Carla—her first operation, doctors found, had been so successful that additional surgery would not be necessary after all. (AP Wirephoto)

Soil Board Adopts Conservation Program

Four of five members of the newly constituted Marin County Soil Conservation Board at their second monthly meeting yesterday adopted a conservation program and work plan, together with two memoranda of understanding to assure aid from the federal and state governments.

Dave Dresbach, field representative of the California Division of Soil Conservation, presented and obtained adoption of the conservation program and work plan for the district which he had drawn in accordance with similar undertakings elsewhere.

The board also adopted a memorandum of understanding between the district, the state and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, as well as a supplemental memorandum involving the district, the state and the Soil Conservation Service of the Department of Agriculture.

The meeting was held at the Sonoma Marin Dairy plant in Point Reyes Station. In the absence of Waldo Giacomini, president of the new board which had held its organizational meeting June 24, Domingo Grossi Jr., as vice president, was in charge.

Fire Fighters See Victory In Sonoma

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Firefighters predicted victory today over a forest fire which earlier had endangered the small Sonoma County logging town of Annapolis but a lightning-caused blaze in Sequoia National Forest was reported still out of control.

These major fires, along with lesser blazes in widely separated areas, sent "black July" timber losses soaring to thousands of acres in northern California.

FOG AIDS FIGHT

State Forester F. H. Raymond said the fire near Annapolis was 93 per cent controlled at 9 a.m. today and should be fully controlled by noon. A low overnight fog aided fire fighting conditions.

Danger to Annapolis ended early today, said Raymond. Eight families in the town of about 50 sent their women and children to safety Sunday night when the fire threatened to engulf the town. The men stayed to fight the fire.

The blaze had spread over 4,300 acres of private timberland near the Sonoma and Mendocino County boundaries since it started Sunday. About 700 men on the fire line fought with the aid of 21 bulldozers and 25 state operated pumper trucks.

OUT OF CONTROL

Meanwhile a fire caused by lightning was still out of control today in heavy brush and timber in Sequoia National Forest about 15 miles north of Kernville.

U.S. Forest Service spokesmen said the blaze had burned about 4,000 acres of valuable watershed in the Cannel Meadow district since Saturday.

Campers were evacuated in the Kern River canyon area Sunday and late yesterday a woman lookout was taken from Baker Peak as the flames drew near.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown took official concern over the heavy fire damage, ordering state fire equipment to assist local and federal agencies in putting down the blazes.

The blaze, Sequoia National Forest's worst fire since 1955, had burned only through brush areas until yesterday afternoon when it moved into a valuable timber stand on Baker Ridge, west of Kern Canyon road.

Three Bills By McCarthy Become Law

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed a bill introduced by Marin's Sen. John F. McCarthy which authorizes redevelopment agencies and housing authorities to contract with school districts on facilities for temporary housing projects.

The measure is to pave the way for arranging school facilities for redevelopment of Marin City.

The governor also signed two other measures which were introduced by McCarthy.

One requires that coroners incorporate any suicide notes into records of their inquests.

Another permits state and local authorities to place signs directing slow-moving traffic to use right-hand traffic lanes.

Minimum Teacher Salary Increased

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California's minimum annual salary for public school teachers is going up to $4,500.

The governor's office announced yesterday that Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed a bill by Assemblyman Ernest R. Geddes (R-Claremont) increasing the minimum by $300 a year. It's effective next July 1.

There was testimony during the legislative hearing on the bill that 63 per cent of all school district now pay teachers more than $4,500.

Hoffa Denies Scheme To Control Monitors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters Union president James R. Hoffa denied today he was behind a reported move to seize control of a board of monitors appointed by a federal court to clean up the union.

The first overtures for such a scheme, Hoffa told the Senate committee investigating rackets, were made by Bartley C. Crum, New York attorney who testified yesterday that attempts were made to pack the board with union friends.

Hoffa said he referred Crum to the union's attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, "because this was a legal problem."

Williams has said he was opposed to any such scheme.

Crum told the committee that he was offered but refused a part in a scheme to replace Godfrey P. Schmidt as one of the three court-appointed monitors.

The approach, Crum testified was made through the longshoremen's union president, Harry Bridges, and one of Bridge's top aides, Louis Goldblatt of Mill Valley.

Crum testified that under the plan in return for Schmidt's resignation from the board of monitors, Schmidt's lawyer and monitor fees would be paid in full and Crum would become a monitor.

Crum testified that Hoffa was behind the scheme.

But on the stand today, Hoffa denied he approved the plan and said Crum was referred at all times to Williams.

Hoffa also charged that Crum was interested in Schmidt's fees only for selfish reasons. He said that Crum, as Schmidt's attorney, could collect his fee only after payment of the more than $150,000 Schmidt claimed the Teamsters owed him.

It's Up To Us To Decide If Water Plan Is Worth It

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has affixed his signature to a bill which launches what is probably the largest single bond issue in this or any other state—one billion, 750 million dollars.

With that signature he approved the state water plan. This in itself was a remarkable achievement. For years the suspicious South and the just-as-suspicious North could agree on nothing about water because they could not trust each other. The North believed the South wanted only to grab all the water and let the North whistle for its supply. The South believed the North wanted the South to finance, because most of the people live south, the North's water projects while making no plans for slaking southern thirsts.

No one maintains that the final water bill which emerged from months of argument and debate in the Legislature this year, is a perfect solution. But most of the Legislature, and certainly the governor, feel that it will do the job that needs to be done.

But just because the Legislature and the governor got together on a water plan doesn't mean that it will become effective. That's up to you.

The reason it's up to you is that someone must provide the money, all 1¾ billions of dollars of it. You're going to have to make up your minds on the project before November next year. At that election, you will be asked to vote either Yes or No on the huge bond issue.

Eventually, the water project is planned as a self-financing operation. Eventually, it will pay for itself, probably many times over. But to begin with, and for many years afterwards, it's going to cost some money.

The real question you must decide for yourself is, Is it worth what it will cost?

You will be hearing much, much more about the details of the plan. We've told you several times about the way Marin County will be served by the project—through the North Bay Aqueduct, which will end in a reservoir near Novato.

Dams are planned which will reduce loss of life and property in costly floods in the North. Aqueducts and conduits will carry water to practically every part of the state needing it, particularly to the South.

And there are safeguards in the new water plan which experts say will protect the North from a greedy South or the South from a double-crossing North.

To us the whole dispute had a childish ring. With the experts telling us there was plenty water for all, it seemed academic what would happen in a series of years of drought. But even if the worst did happen and supplies became critically low, we couldn't picture the South stealing all the water north of the Tehachapis or the North refusing to send any water to our southern cousins.

The one big question most people ask is yet to be answered. So far as we have been told, the cost of the project to an individual property owner in the first year of the bond issue has not been figured out.

We hope they get working on this phase of the planning soon. The sooner we can get the answer to that question, the sooner we can start making up our minds as to whether it is worth it to us.

MAKE YOUR LIFE COUNT

A former vice president of a player piano company is repenting for what he regards as a wasted life.

"I spent $350,000 a year telling people it was a waste of time to learn to play the piano—the player piano could do it better," said the 88-year-old man, referring to what he advocated at the turn of the century. He then added: "I've been making amends ever since."

One of his efforts in this direction was the founding of National Music Week in 1924 to stir up a do-it-yourself spirit among potential musicians.

To forestall any regrets, it would be well to take stock every now and then during our brief pilgrimage through life. This would help us make certain that we are aiding not hindering others to lead creative lives.

God expects each one to nurture his own distinct personality as well as to encourage others to do the same.

The world needs every bit of sound originality and spontaneity it can find these days.

"Lord, thou didst deliver to me five talents, behold I have gained other five over and above." (Matthew 25:20)

Inspire us, O Holy Spirit, to put to good use every bit of talent You have loaned to us.

Grandpa Didn't Know What Fun Really Was When He Was A Boy

NEW YORK (AP) — Do the kids of today have more fun than those of yesteryear?

At the risk of giving indignant cramps to a lot of nostalgic old gramps, we vote, "Yes!" Modern children, when it comes to enjoying life, get more kicks out of living for a very simple reason. They have more things to enjoy.

Your average grandpa — say a fellow crowding 65 — likes to brag about how much tougher life was when he was a boy. To hear him tell it, he got up at 4 a.m. every morning and milked a dozen cows before breakfast.

He had to walk five miles to school except in winter. In winter he crawled the five miles through waist-high snow drifts, carrying his lunch basket in his chattering teeth.

He did endless chores around the house. He helped churn the butter. He started the furnace before dawn and banked it at night. He carried out the ashes. He chopped and brought in firewood for the kitchen stove.

But if you suggest that he didn't have much fun as a kid, his eyes bug out in quick anger.

"What do you mean I didn't have any fun?" he asks. "Why we had twice as much fun as these sissy youngsters they're spawning nowadays."

But grandpa's list of homemade joys, when he enumerates them, sounds a little dated now.

Going barefoot, riding the mare bareback in from the fields, collecting toads, making kitchen fudge, dunking himself in the old swimming hole.

Come, grandpa, you didn't learn to drive an automobile until you were 30. Today's youngster is on wheels with his own jalopy at 17.

YOU DIDN'T goose-grease your hair and go out on a date until you were 18. Girls were a complete and awesome mystery to you. But now the lads are giving friendship rings to girls at 10, and dating steady at 13.

You were 25 before you could eat your soup in public without feeling self-conscious. But today's kids are social veterans at 15.

THE ONLY TOY you can remember getting as a boy was a sled. Kids today are surrounded with toys from birth, everything from a dime balloon to a $150 chemistry set.

Nobody made a business out of entertaining you. But trying to keep today's kids entertained is now a major industry in American.

What do you mean you had more fun, grandpa? Maybe you didn't know it, but fun hadn't even been invented when you were a lad. It came along later.

County Fair Was Peace Under Trees

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Never have I spent a more beautiful Fourth of July than this year's at the Marin Art and Garden Fair. Needless to praise the wonderful exhibits the varied programs, the delicious food, the willing and polite workers, and the lovely setting.

What I especially want to note is the behavior of the children, not a cross or rude child among all the babies, tots, and juniors; and the grown-ups were equally poised and pleasant.

Only one false note: the litter around the tables where we ate. It seems strange that so many intelligent and charming people should drop cups, napkins, papers, and Kleenex on the ground when there were cans for discards in plain sight.

I spent 10 hours on the Fourth and six on the Fifth at this feast for senses, mind, and soul. There was peace under those trees. It seemed to me that the theme song was the Folk Singers': "I Ain't Gonna to Study War No More."

Hoping to attend next year's fair.

What Artists Would Do Work?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In response to Leah Schwartz's letter in Wednesday's I-J referring to Marin Society of Artists and the Fair.

Does Mrs. Schwartz realize that Marin Society of Artists pays rent throughout the year for the Gallery?

Does she realize Marin Society of Artists has almost 400 members and these members give freely of their time, money and energy to support the Gallery during the year? All work done in the gallery is purely voluntary by members of M.S.A. and any money involved comes from M.S.A.'s treasury.

A few improvements accomplished this year by M.S.A. are the new floor in the gallery, tile paid for by M.S.A. treasury and laid by volunteer help of members, new peg board on the walls, interior painting done by members, and the members staff the gallery throughout the year, in order to keep it open so the public may enjoy the art exhibits free of charge.

Does Mrs. Schwartz also realize a percentage of any money taken in by Marin Society of Artists is given to the Art and Garden Center throughout the year?

Why, then, should non-affiliated artists be given gallery space during the Art and Garden Fair?

The Marin Society of Artists presented a detailed plan for use of grounds around the gallery months before the fair opened for an art-in-action area. Is there a large enough group of non-affiliated artists who would present a detailed plan, do all the construction work of booths, use their own money, and man the booths 12 hours a day for five days during the fair?

Would this non-affiliated group give freely of their time and energy for two months previous to the fair opening, raking, sweeping and removing every bit of weed and grass in the area surrounding the gallery? I doubt it!

The open county show was a juried show and I doubt very much if any works of art were rejected for lack of space. If work was deemed worthy to be exhibited, it was exhibited. Two rows of paintings could have been hung in the "Outer Mongolia" territory, the same as they were in the Marin Society of Artists Annual show in the gallery. Obviously there were not enough works entered that merited hanging.

I'd like to point out also, that last year when gallery space was open to all, Marin Society of Artists members did all the work organizing, receiving and hanging the show. There were not enough "non members" who would give time and energy to even help put on the show.

George Oppenheimer tells of two typical stage mothers who met after a Broadway producer had given a wild party. One show girl had been persuaded, as a climax, to disrobe and dive into a pool filled with champagne. "It's a blot on the theater," fumed one of the moms. "No daughter is safe in this town any longer. What's more, I hear they never paid the poor girl the $500 they promised her." "That's the worst part of all," gasped the other mom. "Where was her mother?"

Teachers told their pupils for years that the geographical center of the United States was in Kansas. Now that Alaska and Hawaii are states, however, there's been some drastic recalculation! The new geographical center of the U. S. is Pondosa, Oregon!

"Everybody is aware," notes Dan Kidney, "that a little knowledge is a dangerous thing — and that's why so many people don't fool with it."

LIBERALS FRUSTRATED

Democratic Program Is Going Nowhere

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON — A lot can — and probably will — happen before Congress adjourns some weeks hence, but one point now seems certain.

The "clear and comprehensive" program of legislation, for which liberal Democrats claim they received an overwhelming popular mandate last November, is going nowhere fast.

President Eisenhower's July 7 veto of the controversial housing bill was simply the latest in a series of developments pointing up the fact that the liberals, whatever their real strength in the country, have neither the votes nor the influence in Congress to put over a legislative program.

SUCH A PROGRAM was laid down last December by the Advisory Council of the Democratic National Committee, and no one disputed the council's estimate that, with 2-to-1 majorities in Senate and House, "it should now be possible to enact desirable legislation that the Administration has previously defeated."

In the event, however, it has not proved possible. Here is the rundown on what has happened, or is likely to happen, to these major planks of the Advisory Council's program:

URBAN RENEWAL: A "significantly larger" program of federal grants for slum clearance was approved by the Senate and the House, then cut back by Democratic leaders in an effort to avoid a threatened veto.

The President vetoed the bill anyway, and no attempt to override is expected.

AID-TO AIRPORTS: In 1958 President Eisenhower vetoed a bill boosting federal grants for building airports from $63 million to $100 million a year.

This year the Senate again passed an equally generous measure; the House cut this back, but not as far as the President wanted. Again Democratic leaders decided to duck a veto, compromised on a two-year extension of the program without change.

DEPRESSED AREAS: After vetoing last year a $280-million program of grants and loans to domestic areas with chronic unemployment, the President again asked Congress for a $50-million program confined to loans. The Senate responded by passing almost the same $390-million bill it had approved in 1958.

AID-TO-EDUCATION: The council called for federal scholarships and grants for school construction.

No scholarship program is under consideration; a bill carrying $4.4 billion a year for four years for school construction and teachers' salaries is languishing before the House Rules Committee.

LABOR REFORM: The Kennedy labor reform bill, as in 1958, has passed the Senate and is awaiting House action.

CIVIL RIGHTS: As with labor reform, Democratic leaders are committed to passing a civil rights bill in 1959. But there is little chance that Congress will approve the key provision sought by liberals—the so-called Section III, giving the attorney general the power to start civil injunction suits.

All in all, it's clear why liberal Democrats, in their mounting frustration, are challenging the course of moderation charted by the two Texans who run Congress, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Lacking in power to override vetoes, say Johnson and Rayburn, there is no point in courting them. To the contrary, say the liberals, vetoes will help to define those issues on which the two parties must do battle in 1960.

Whoever is right, a "clear and comprehensive Democratic program" is a long way from enactment.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Those TV Guys Don't Know How Old Gun Slingers Did Draw

My able colleague Wat Takeshita wrote a fine story in the Independent-Journal recently about the dangers of the "fast draw" as practiced by a new generation of would-be gunmen.

He used the training methods at the Marin County Pistol Range to contrast with the tactics of those imitators of TV gunmen who squeeze the trigger before the gun is out of the holster, thus shooting themselves in the legs. He drew from H. O. Peters, a pistol expert thoroughly qualified to speak, succinct comment on the proper handling of firearms.

BUT EITHER Peters or the author did an injustice to the memory of the gun slingers of the Old West. Peters was quoted as saying "he will not tolerate the Western-type fast draw on the county range."

The gunmen of the Old West, let it be known, did not draw like those who have plagiarized their names for today's TV serials.

The real Wyatt Earp (whose resemblance to Hugh O'Brien ended in both being tall and slim) had nothing but scorn for the man who handled a gun carelessly. Earp, like Wild Bill Hickok, Bat Masterson, Billy Tilghman and the rest of the gunmen (on both sides of the law) who achieved fame in the early west, loaded only five bullets in his six-shooter. The hammer always rested on an empty chamber. When the gun was pulled, the gunman must draw back the hammer with the crook of his thumb to turn the cylinder.

AND HE FIRED carefully. He had to. If he missed, it would be his funeral next day on Boot Hill.

For that matter, speed on the draw played only a minor part in the gun battles of the Old West. It was valuable principally for getting the drop on an adversary before he went for his own weapon, in which case, he wouldn't go for it at all.

The classic gun duel, TV style, was an extreme rarity. You can dredge the lore of the Old West from Abilene to Frenchman's Flat and from the Rio Grande to the Bitteroot without coming up with a dozen of them.

IN THE TV version, the opponents walk toward each other, arms akimbo. One's hand flicks toward his holster. Like a flash of light, the other beats him to the draw. There is a double blast of gunfire and the bad guy lies dead in the dust — always dead; never wounded.

The gunmen simply didn't do it like that. They wanted to live.

The lives of Earp, Hickok, the Mastersons, Billy the Kid and his slayer, Pat Garrett, and most of the rest disclose not a single such duel.

John Wesley Hardin, one of the deadliest of all, had his own scheme for beating his opponent to the draw: he introduced the shoulder holster to Texas.

PERHAPS THE CLOSEST to the version that has been enacted so many hundred times on television screens was a duel fought in Lewistown, Mont., on July 3, 1884, by two gun slingers that even Disney hasn't yet discovered to make famous: Rattlesnake Jake Fallon and Long-Haired Owens. It had just about all the trappings.

There was another, within our own century, that was fought in the classic style — at Hibbing, Minn., on Sept. 28, 1910. But probably neither of the participants ever got saddle sore, and certainly neither fitted the "good guys and bad guys" roles of the hard ridin', fast shootin' western film.

They were a couple of iron miners named Sam Kacich and Pete Radovich. They fought in the style that has become the classic of western fiction. The results were mutually fatal.

IT WAS PROBABLY fitting that a couple of metal miners wrote the closing paragraph to the Boot Hill duelmg days. Man-to-man gunfights actually accounted for few lives in the Old West. The famed gun slingers were a lot less deadly than the embattled metal miners of Cripple Creek and the Coeur d'Alene, Alder Gulch and Deadwood.

But the miners didn't fool around much with guns. They used dynamite.

The practice of "going heeled" was a fine old western custom that persisted even to the days of my own childhood in Utah (which, in case you figured to crack wise, was since that Kacich-Radovich Gunfight mentioned above). I was flabbergasted when I learned, as a high school youth, that there actually existed a law against wearing guns. Nobody ever enforced it where I lived.

BUT THE GUN wearers of the Old West had respect for their weapons. They might hurrah the town with shots in the air. But they didn't often draw on each other.

And when they did, they didn't shoot themselves in the legs.

Fairfax Approves $179,702 Budget

Fairfax city councilmen last night adopted a 1959-60 budget of $179,702 with the prediction that the city's tax rate would remain at $1.10 per $100 assessed valuation this year.

The adopted budget represented a 1 per cent increase over the 1958-59 budget of $178,009 "so it is actually a decrease when you consider inflation," said Mayor Edward A. Smith.

The councilmen also adopted an assessment roll of $8,582,020 for 1959-60. Last year's secured and unsecured property assessments totaled $7,961,630, reported City Clerk-Assessor Alice Leonesio. Fairfax assesses property at 33 per cent of the county's appraisal.

The adopted budget will be financed in part by the city's general fund tax rate of $1 per $100 assessed valuation. The 10 cent park tax is expected to net $8,169.

No park budget was adopted last night. Mayor Smith explained: "We don't have a park budget yet. Ten cents is not quite adequate. We've been trying to come up with an answer but so far we haven't."

The adopted budget covering general government and police, fire and street departments granted $15 a month increases, retroactive to July 1, to all city employees except one street department man who is paid $430 a month. No new employees were added but a new position of assistant street superintendent at $300 a year was created. This job will go to one of the present street department employees by means of a promotional examination to be scheduled later, said the city clerk.

Breakdown of the 1959-60 Fairfax budget is as follows:

POLICE DEPARTMENT: A total of $42,205 including $555 a month for Police Chief Andy J. Peri, $485 a month for Capt. Clifton Coddes and $460 a month each for four patrolmen, and $2,000 for a new police car to replace one of the city's two patrol cars.

STREET DEPARTMENT: A total of $49,955 including $135 a month for Fire Chief Charles Thornton, who also serves as street superintendent; one street department laborer at $390 a month; one specialist at $430 a month and two specialists at $425 a month; $8[illegible]00 for street materials; $1,500 for engineering and administration; $2,000 for equipment rental and maintenance; $6,000 for street paving and $3,000 for new equipment among which will be a street sweeping machine.

The $430-a-month street specialist, August A. Pfalzgraff, is not getting a salary increase, said Thornton, because the city was trying to equalize his salary with that of two other street department specialists who will receive $425 a month.

FIRE DEPARTMENT: A total of $39,300 including $555 a month for Chief Thornton; $485 a month each for two captains and $465 a month for one fireman; $2,000 for volunteer firemen and temporary employees; $5,000 for hydrant improvement and water main extension; $2,300 for hydrant rental and maintenance; $2,000 for supplies; and $1,000 for alarm circuit maintenance and extension.

GENERAL GOVERNMENT: A total of $48,242 including $555 a month for Mrs. Leonesio who is city clerk, purchasing agent, deputy court clerk and city assessor; $333 a month for Mrs. Julia Tartaul, city tax collector; $2,100 for City Atty. Walter S. Myers; $1,980 for a janitor; $1,200 building inspector's salary, and two large items, $10,000 for street lights and $11,000 for insurance.

Gets It In Face

NOGALES, Mex. (AP)—Ernest A. Fisher, 23, decided he would try some tortillas and stepped into a Nogales shop. Behind the counter a stove exploded. The sizzling corn cakes filled the air. Fisher was treated at a hospital for face and arm burns.

Fairfax Annex Plea Referred

A petition from Adelbert and Marie Louise Von Rotz, San Anselmo contractor and his wife, to annex approximately 160 acres in Oak Manor to the city of Fairfax last night was referred by the Fairfax City Council to the city planning commission for study.

The councilmen were unable to get a clear idea from the legal description of the property exactly where it was located.

Von Rotz today said that the 160 acres are in the undeveloped portions of Oak Manor subdivision, both east and west of houses along Oak Manor drive. The entire subdivision is unincorporated now.

In other business last night, Fairfax Mayor Edward A. Smith and Councilmen Albert Fox and Rolfe Ockenden:

1. Heard a plea from William T. Benson and Tony Costello of the Fairfax Merchants Assn. for better picnic benches and a lighting fixture in Fairfax Park. Fire Chief Charles Thornton told them he could supply the lighting equipment. The merchants wanted the changes for a public barbecue they are sponsoring Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the park.
2. Were notified by the American Automobile Assn. that Fairfax would receive a citation for no pedestrian fatality during 1958.
3. Learned by letter from Harry Heifetz that a steep hillside property in Ridgeway Park, offered to the city but not accepted, had been disposed of elsewhere.
4. Acting on a study prepared by Councilman Fox, voted to invest the city's $8,000 building fund in a bank account bearing 3 per cent interest with 180 days notice required before withdrawal and $10,000 from the city's general fund in a bank account bearing 2½ per cent interest with 90 days notice required before withdrawal. At present the city's funds are kept in a commercial bank account with no interest paid.
5. Voted to spend up to $1,000 to re-paint the Fairfax Pavilion, with selection of the painting contractor in the hands of Councilmen Ockenden and Chief Thornton. A color called "redwood" was selected by the councilmen to replace the pavilion's present green tint.
6. Appointed William L. Brown of 11 Crescent lane to the Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission to replace Fred Boracchia, whose resignation on April 18 was announced last night by Mayor Smith. Boracchia said in his resignation letter that he resigned to apply for position of recreation director. That job went to Michael Davlin, who will serve until Sept. 1.

Brown Tells 3-Point Plan For State Future

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown last night outlined a three-point program for the future of California, before leaving for Los Angeles to address the National Conference of Mayors today.

The Democratic governor, who claimed an .870 "batting average" in the 1959 Legislature, said he has a responsibility for "guiding the people" into new vistas and horizons.

Although he said it was too early to be specific, Brown said the future should bring:

1. Government reorganization. "The executive branch of our government has not been reorganized in more than 30 years and I think there is some very definite streamlining that can be done to reduce costs and increase efficiency."

Brown said Finance Director Bert Levit had been working with a special committee on the reorganization problem for some time and was certain to "have some concrete proposals to make before the Legislature convenes again."

2. An automobile accident commission. "Long delays and costly litigation have worked a hardship on automobile accident victims and have clogged our already overcrowded courts with damage suits."

3. A plan to assist small business. "The small businessman has neither the financial nor technical resources available to big business and I believe state government has a responsibility to help fill this void."

There was no Sunday in China 50 years ago. Now they observe one day of the week as a day of rest.

RABIES CLINICS HALF OVER; 602 DOGS 'SHOT'

With half the current series of Marin rabies vaccination clinics completed, a total of 602 dogs have received vaccinations through the clinics thus far this year, according to the Marin County Health Department.

The fifth clinic in a series of 10 was held last night at the Santa Venetia School and 118 dogs were vaccinated. Next clinic will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the Fairfax firehouse, treatment costing $1.75.

Salt Water Conversion Fund Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower yesterday asked Congress for $1,550,000 to be used for construction of the first demonstration station for conversion of seawater to fresh water.

This request for the Interior Department's office of saline water was one item in a total of $3,435,000 asked by Eisenhower.

Other items included $1,050,000 for the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics to expand its studies of productivity and wage statistics.

Eisenhower also requested an extra $685,000 for Senate expenses. That would be charged against the budget for the fiscal year which ended June 30.

For The Red Man

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal government has spent more than two billion dollars in the past 60 years to subsidize the American Indian. In this fiscal year, the government will write support checks of about $390 for each of estimated 300,000 Indians now living on reservations.

SNOW FUN IN THE SUMMER TIME

Summer snows provide a spectacular setting for C. K. (Chuck) Herzog of San Rafael as he trains at famous Timberline Lodge Summer Racing School at Mt. Hood, Ore. Students at the school at the 10,000-foot level of the mountain are picked from the top Olympic prospects and from the ranks of the more promising young racers of the United States and Canada.

Blame Signal Theft On TV

BOSTON (AP) — Television, which has been blamed with many of baseball's problems, has a brand new fault laid at its doorstep—a new angle to the old game of stealing the catchers signals.

But TV, let it be pointed out, immediately took steps to see that the situation is corrected.

INTO LIVING ROOM

That brought the catcher's signals right into the living room, offering viewers a very clear picture of his calls. It kicked up a minor row.

Just why it all got started after the weekend games, no one seems to know. Tom Gallery, director of sports for NBC, said the cameras had been used for about eight games, including the All-Star game in Pittsburgh, before the Yankee-Red Sox affairs.

Gallery said yesterday in New York use of the camera would be discontinued at the request of Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.

He said Frick suggested the possibility of a club putting a TV receiver in a dugout and then getting a line on what pitches would be thrown.

The Yankees and Red Sox, along with other baseball men, didn't think much of the idea.

YOGI'S OPINION

"It's just about the same as having a runner on second," Yankee catcher Yogi Berra said. "I don't think it would have much value. The catcher can change his signals, his series or system of signals, all the time."

Red Sox manager Billy Jurges took it lightly.

"Yeah, I just heard about it the other day," he said, then got a far-away look. "You could put a receiver in the dugout—no don't say that," he cautioned writers, then changed the subject.

"Applesauce," said Boston General Manager Bucky Harris when questioned about it. "Just say I said 'applesauce.'"

"That's a real interesting idea, isn't it," said American League President Joe Cronin.

NEVER AGAIN

Gallery said the new camera "provides the best shot we have ever had of a ball game. We have received more mail as a result of its use than we ever received before on any innovation. It has been a fine thing for TV viewers."

But it won't happen again.

Yawl Clings To Slim Lead In Yacht Race

HONOLULU (AP) — With less than 400 miles to go to reach the Diamond Head finishing line, the California yawl Chubasco hung on to a slim lead today in the run for the pineapples, the annual Transpacific Yacht Race.

The Chubasco, a 66-footer owned by Donald Haskell of Newport Beach, picked up strong winds Monday night but the 25-mph gusts were aiding the 75-foot Constellation even more.

The Constellation, a schooner owned by Sally Blair Ames of Beverly Hills, was closing fast on the leader and a snappy two-boat contest was shaping up.

If the Chubasco maintains her position, she will be the first to finish, the first in overall handicap and leader in her class.

Yankees Get More Lumps From Bosox

World Champs Slip Further Off Pace In American Loop

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The "10 telling days" are over in the American League race, and if they failed to tell the whole story, they told a horror tale for the Detroit Tigers and New York Yankees.

It all began June 30, when the Cleveland Indians were first by one game over the Chicago White Sox. Baltimore was third, 2½ games back. Detroit and New York were tied for fourth, trailing by four games.

In the 10 playing dates over that span — during which two of the three western contenders, Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit, were at each other's throats every day — Cleveland came off with an 8-4 record. So did the White Sox, still second and a game behind after splitting two games with the Indians.

THEY MOVED

The Injuns and White Sox moved in tandem, but the point is — they moved, picking up two games on Baltimore and 3½ on both Detroit and New York. The Orioles were 6-6 for the 10 days, the Tigers and Yankees each 5-8.

The Yankees, confused, bothered and bewildering defending champion, have lost five straight — all at Boston. The Red Sox pulled off the five-day sweep in the only game scheduled Monday with a 13-3 send-off that chased the champs home for an eight-game stand against Cleveland and Chicago.

In the National League, Milwaukee whipped San Francisco 3-0 on Warren Spahn's six-hit pitching and Ed Mathews two-run homer, reclaiming second place and closing within .002 percentage points of the first place Giants.

Los Angeles, a game behind, slipped from second to third with a 13-5 loss at Cincinnati in the only other game scheduled.

The Red Sox, frolicking through the Yankee series with 58 hits and 50 runs, put away the sweep with a four-run first inning, then chuckled through a nine-run sixth — their biggest inning of the season.

JENSEN RAPS HOMER

Jackie Jensen's three-run homer, his 20th, triggered the first inning against loser Don Larsen after the Yankees had taken a 2-0 lead on Yogi Berra's 10th home run.

In the sixth, the Red Sox sent 13 men to the plate, scored one run when Sammy White scooted home while Yank first baseman Elston Howard argued an umpire's call and then closed it with a grand-slam by a pinch runner.

White started his stroll from second base. He made it to third on a grounder by Don Buddin and kept right on going as Howard — ball in hand and back to the plate — disputed umpire Nestor Chylak's safe call on Buddin at first.

Gene Stephens was the slugging pinch-runner, hitting his second homer of the year after replacing Ted Williams, who singled home Jensen with the first score of the inning.

Jensen, who had three doubles, also forced in a run with a bases-loaded walk for four RBI. He was 10-for-19 with 10 RBI in the series.

Phils Next For Giants

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants, still in first place but smarting from two straight setbacks by Milwaukee, take on the Philadelphia Phillies in a twi-night doubleheader tonight.

The Phillies, firmly established in the National League cellar, are best remembered for handing the Giants a double loss the last time they entertained the Giants in a twin bill.

Manager Bill Rigney plans to send Mike McCormick (8-7) to the mound in the first game. His second choice will be either Stu Miller (4-3) or Eddie Fisher (1-2).

The Phils will counter with the best they have—Gene Conley (7-5), and Robin Roberts (7-8).

The Giants ran into the best Milwaukee had in their two game set against the defending champion Braves. And last night, Warren Spahn was even better than Lew Burdette, who had throttled the Giants on Sunday.

Spahn was excellent, giving up only six hits while scoring his third shutout of the season. Almost as good was Sam Jones, the Giant starter and loser, who allowed only three hits during the seven innings he hurled.

But one of the hits off Jones was a home run by Eddie Mathews with Johnny O'Brien aboard in the third inning. It was Matthews' 27th and his second in two nights.

Jones' loss halted a four-game winning streak for the hard throwing hight-hander. He is now 12-9 on the season while Spahn is 11-9.

The Giants made only two serious scoring threats off Spahn. In the seventh Willie Kirkland and Daryl Spencer collected singles but Jackie Brandt took a called third strike to end the frame.

In the eighth, Jim Davenport and pinchhitter Andre Rodgers got infield hits, but second baseman Johnny O'Brien made a great play on a hard ground smash off the bat of Willie Kirkland to end the threat.

JACK HANLEY'S REPORT

Giant Fight Letdown Against Lowly Phils

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA — Pennant contenders never should let second division teams beat them. It's tough enough whipping the first division opposition.

Too often front runners have a tendency, however, to downgrade the efforts of teams at the tail of the pack. Too often there is that mouse-trapping mental attitude "this is a push-over" when the opposition is listed among the also-rans.

Long ago a wise old gent named Aesop dramatically illustrated the point when he matched the tortoise and the hare in a fabled race.

Now, Bill Rigney doesn't get as elementary as that with his Giants in pep talks. After all, they are grown men who are real pros and would disdain any reference to their team meetings as "pep talks."

They know how to blow their nose, keeping it healthily clean so as not to lose that lucrative scent which always emanates from World Series dough.

NEVERTHELESS, the Giant manager realizes it is a natural tendency to permit the set-in of a psychological letdown after a "crucial" series with the defending champion Braves, particularly when the next opponent is the lowliest of the also-rans.

Thus, Rigney took precautionary measures today as he flew into Philadelphia with his Giants for a four-game series with the lowly Phillies.

"C'mon now," he said.

That's one of his favorite expressions and the Giants understand what it means. It embodies lots of things, such as:

"From here until that final series with the Cardinals in St. Louis, Sept. 25-26-27, every series is a 'crucial' one.

"These guys (the Phillies) never should have won the three games they did from us and you men know it."

ONLY RIGNEY doesn't rehash past performances because that's just wasted talk. He doesn't have to recall for his men how they let the Phillies take a double-header June 14th on their last trip into Connie Mack Stadium.

The Giants themselves are only too aware of how they blew a 5-0 lead in the first game of that double-header, finally losing it 7-5. And the memory of the second game in that twin affairs similarly is not a sweet one. Four unearned Philly runs in the eighth inning nipped the Giants 6-3.

Rigney's simple but spirited "C'mon now" implies all these things.

For the season, going into tonight's double-header, the Giants are six games to three with the Phillies. The Dodgers, incidentally, have won nine of the 12 games they played with Philadelphia. The Pirates are 6-4 with them. And the Braves are 9-6.

PERHAPS that 9-6 record of Milwaukee with Philadelphia explains more than anything else why the Braves aren't in first place now as they were at this time last year.

A lowly Philly bullet can be as fatal to a runner as one fired at close range.

Big Barbecue This Sunday

This Sunday, July 19, all roads will lead to the Marin Rod and Gun Club annual chicken barbecue. The affair will be held at the clubhouse picnic grounds at Point San Quentin.

Tickets have been limited to 1200, so if you intend to attend, get your ticket now, as they are moving fast.

The picnic committee has been working early and late to make everything in shipshape for the barbecue. Last weekend the grounds were cleaned, the exterior of the clubhouse painted and picnic tables repainted. The parking area, which will handle over 400 cars, was re-marked.

Everything is being done to make this the most enjoyable affair ever, according to barbecue chairman Paul Jones and his large committee. By the way the committee will meet tonight to make the final arrangements.

Activities will start at 10 a.m. Serving from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

There will be plenty of games for young and old. Races and games will be held throughout the day.

As an added attraction the members of the Marin Water Ski Club will give a demonstration of their skiing skill. The skiing will be held along the waterfront adjacent to the barbecue grounds.

Our boat ramp will be open to members. A number of boatmen from different sections of Marin will come to the affair by boat, landing at our float near the boat ramp on the south side of the pier.

Tickets are $1.50—and they are moving fast. Get your ticket now before it's too late. Secretary Paul Ware, 14 Taylor street has tickets.

The menu consists of half a barbecued chicken, corn-on-the-cob, salad, roll, coffee — what could be tastier.

Our barbecue team will start work at 5 a.m. the day of the barbecue in order to have everything ready at noon.

Plan to attend — bring the family, it's going to be a great day. Let's go!

Striped Bass Fishing Hot; Halibut Biting

Striped bass fishing has been exceptionally good on bait and trolling.

Halibut fishing has been good inside the bar at Tomales bay. By the way the new county boat ramp at Nick's Cove is now in excellent condition. Its the best state and county-built ramp in the north bay area.

Trout fishing has been good in the early morning at Lake Lagunitas and Phoenix.

Salmon fishing at Tomales bay has been poor. High winds have hampered fishing.

Large salmon are being landed in the Farralone Island area when the sea is calm and the boats can reach the area. This year 21 salmon Schenelly awards have been given out so far, last year to this date only one had been given. Fishing has been better so far this season and the salmon have been much larger.

At the Noyo and Navarro rivers salmon fishing has been good about two days a week as the weather has been rough. Party boats and outboard motor boats are used when the ocean waters are fishable.

Fire Hazard Is Critical

California has had one of the driest years in history and as a consequence, the fire hazard this summer and autumn in wood and grass lands is critical.

Hunters, fishermen and others utilizing California's outdoor recreation areas are urged to remember the following safety rules concerning fire:

Break matches in two.

Carefully put out cigars, cigarettes and pipe dottle.

Use an ash tray in the car.

Have a can partially filled with water in camp.

Make sure campfires are dead out before leaving camp or going to bed at night.

Carry litter bags in the car.

Litter is not only unsightly, but can help spread fire. The Department urges hunters and fishermen not to litter highways and to clean up campgrounds. Not only are you helping to preserve California's great outdoors, the Department pointed out, but if your camp is on privately owned land, you may not be permitted to come back next season if you leave a mess.

DID YOU KNOW THESE THINGS?

Did you know:

Mosquitos are real scarce in Marin this year due to the real dry season — A good miss.

It is reported that a golf course in Marin sprayed its greens for lawn moths — it not only attacked the lawn grubs, it is said many rabbits and a number of deer were eliminated for good.

Now this may be true— apparently great numbers of the lowly house fly has fallen by the wayside. Reports have come to us that they have contacted a fungus disease which has eliminated many of them. Flies are fewer this year in Marin, and we might add normally we don't have a greater population than other sections of the state.

TOWN LAUDED

Emeryville Opens Fight On Pollution

The California Department of Fish and Game commended the town of Emeryville for taking steps to end the long-standing pollution problem along Emeryville's section of the East Bay shoreline.

The East Bay industrial city, declaring that "discharging of sewage or industrial wastes into watercourses is contrary to town policy," has given three local plants until August 1 to stop discharging pollutants into the bay.

Legal proceedings against a fourth plant were dropped when the firm connected its outfall into the EBMUD sewer system.

A fifth firm, discharging into Temescal creek rather than into the Bay itself, was also given until August 1 to clean up.

Commenting on the town's action, Regional Manager Robert L. Jones of the Department of Fish and Game's San Francisco office noted that removal of these discharges from the Bay would climax more than nine years of effort by state and local agencies,

"Emeryville's action is a demonstration of the growing demand for clean waters which is becoming apparent in nearly every community in the state," Jones observed.

"Emeryville's banning of all waste discharges would protect water quality for fishlife and recreation right up to the shoreline," Jones said. "Requirements established by the regional water pollution control board permit an 1800 foot zone in which no such protection exists.

Lamphrey In New Lake Not Yet Serious Matter

Investigating reports that lamprey scars have been found on trout caught at the new Lake Mendocino, the California Department of Fish and Game today confirmed the presence of lampreys in the lake, but noted that they did not seem to be in sufficient numbers to create a serious problem at this time.

The eel-like lampreys are native to most coastal streams, including the Russian River. Like salmon and steelhead, they live most of their adult lives in the ocean, but run up the coastal streams to spawn.

It is not unusual for a hatch of young lampreys to be trapped by a new dam which blocks off their normal return to the ocean, state fisheries men noted. A similar situation occurred only a few years ago at Marin County's new Kent dam.

The parasitic lamprey does not normally feed except in the ocean, but when trapped by a dam it may live out its three-to-four year life in the reservoir behind the dam, attaching itself to the freshwater fish.

Such lampreys seldom grow beyond four to six inches in length, and in most cases they do not spawn. Thus the infestation usually dies out after the dam has been in operation three or four years. It is possible for adult lampreys to climb over some dams on their upstream spawning runs from the ocean, but this would be improbable at the dam on Lake Mendocino because of the type of outlet system, DFG reported.

Except in the unlikely circumstances that the lampreys are able to spawn successfully and show signs of reproducing themselves in great numbers, it would not seem worthwhile to undertake control measures, DFG feels.

Only drastic means would be effective, and these would entail an extensive program of blocking off spawning streams, plus heavy treatment of the lake with special chemicals.

Lamprey attacks do not affect the edibility of the fish, although the lamprey, if the fish is unable to disengage it, will eventually kill its victim.

Commercial Fishing Hits Near Record

The second greatest total on record of commercial landings and shipments of fish into California was recorded in 1958, the Department of Fish and Game announced today.

Landings and shipments, which increased by 12 per cent over the previous year, totaled 831,374,791 pounds in 1958. Previous high year was 1951 when more than 900 million pounds were recorded.

The Department said the most important factor in the increase was the strong return made last year by sardines. Processors handled 101,567 tons in 1958, an increase of 161.5 million pounds over 1957. It was the best year since the 1951-52 season when 126,541 tons were processed.

In weight, the sardine was the top species caught last year. Other leading species (in pounds) were:

Yellowfin tuna 124,095,185; skipjack tuna 122,855,653; bluefin tuna 31,048,845; Pacific mackerel 27,648,485; rockfish 17,571,258; anchovy 11,514,630; Dover sole 7,960,695; bonito 5,546,806; English sole 5,064,586; salmon 3,656,841; petrale sole 3,099,701; white seabass 2,847,552; Pacific herring 2,399,730.

Good Abalone Period Looms

Abalone fishermen should have exceptionally good fishing over the coming weekend.

Sunday, July 19 tides are minus 1 foot, 3 inches and on Monday there will be a minus 1.3 tide.

With good weather and calm seas prevailing, limits should be the order of the day.

Remember, it is necessary that you purchase a state fishing license. Five abalone is the daily limit and the pink or red must measure 7 inches or more across the back of the shell.

Abalone are found along the Marin shore from Bolinas, Point Reyes, Pierce Point and the Tomales Bay area. In Sonoma County abalone are taken from Bodega Bay, north to Fort Bragg in Mendocino County.

In order to really enjoy the sport, make your first trip with a dyed-in-the-wool abalone fisherman. He will show you where to fish; how to fish and where to find 'em.

Deer Hunter Ready For Start Of Season

Deer hunters throughout Northern California are getting ready for the opening of the season on July 25 and will continue through Sept. 13.

In some areas deer are scarce due to poor feed conditions, while in other parts of the state deer are plentiful.

Marin County deer hunters who hunt locally expect an under par season. However, with the dry season, deer have migrated closer to civilization and are encroaching upon gardens, shrubs and ornamental trees.

Bag limit will be two bucks throughout the area. The counties open are:

Mendocino, Sonoma, Lake, Napa, Yolo, Solano, Contra Costa, Alameda, Marin, San Mateo, Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, San Benito, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura and parts of Kern, Kings, Fresno, Merced, Stanislaus, San Joaquin, Glenn, Colusa, Trinity and Humboldt .

Deer hunters are reminded by the Department that as soon after they kill a deer as possible the deer license tag must be counter signed by authorized persons.

Following is a list of persons authorized to validate tags:

Employees of the Department of Fish and Game, Justices of the Peace, Notaries Public, Postmasters, peace officers.

Officers authorized to administer oaths, Fish and Game Reserve Wardens, Deputy State Foresters, Assistant Deputy State Foresters, state Forest Rangers.

Associate state Forest Rangers, Forest Technicians (state), assistant forest technicians (state) assistant state Forest Rangers, forest firefighter foremen (state).

State Park Rangers —Grades 1, 2, 3 and 4. Supervising plant quarantine inspectors (state), senior plant quarantine inspectors (state), intermediate plant quarantine inspectors (state), junior plant quarantine inspectors (state).

Forest Supervisors (federal), assistant forest supervisors (federal), district forest rangers (federal), foresters (federal), range conservationists (federal).

Forest engineers (federal), forestry aides (federal), fire control aides (federal), administrative officers and clerks (federal), game management agents (federal), Marine Corps duty officer, Camp Pendleton, San Diego County.

The 1959-60 hunting licenses and deer tags are now available from license dealers throughout the state.

Hunting license fees are $4 apiece and deer tags $2 apiece. Bear tags are also available and cost $1 a set.

A 10-day archery deer season opened Saturday, July 11 in the coastal area and will close July 20.

June Lively For Anglers

Fishing in the month of June was another big month. There were 348 bass caught, and the weights were from 3 to 22 pounds. I didn't get all the names of the lucky ones this month, as we have been too busy getting ready for our picnic next Sunday. But I will say Larry Duffy, from Hayward, has caught 52 bass so far this year, and up to 22 pounds.

The best fishing has been with bait, and some have been caught trolling. This last Sunday there were 19 bass caught and 4 of them by trolling. The boats have been doing very good, too. Sunday while working on the picnic grounds, I counted 55 boats around the bridge to Richmond, and most of them were bait fishing. The best trolling lure is the old reliable red head plug.

We now have the crew working on the pier. The pier is now closed until repairs are complete. If you have a spare day or a Saturday or Sunday we sure could use some selp in replacing and renailing the decking and rails. It may be a good idea to call the pier keeper before coming out, and ask if the lower repairs are far enough along to warrant some extra help on the top deck.

I would like to personally thank the fellows who gave us a hand last Sunday, it was a terrific job, well done. See you at the picnic on Sunday.

Speaks Friday night

USES SLIDES

Dr. Meyer To Speak On India

"India" will be the subject of Dr. Karl Meyer as he speaks before the Marin Rod and Gun Club at their meeting Friday evening, July 19, at 8 p.m.

He spent several months this spring in India visiting Bombay, New Delhi and other cities of interest and then went into the Malayan States. As usual, he took colorful slides of the people and things of interest which he will show.

Mr. Meyer is Director Emeritus of the George Hooper Foundation, having served as the director from 1924 to 1954. Although the doctor is a specialist in micro-biology, his greatest interest is in people and he has a great backlog of experiences to draw from in his talk. Bring the entire family to hear this most interesting speaker and enjoy the evening at the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

Dr. Meyer completed a 32-day tour of Russia's scientific and medical institutions in 1956.

What he saw there convinced the famed scientist that the country is making "amazing" strides toward its goal—the full development of its huge natural resources but, says Dr. Meyer, American scientific education and research are still superior.

Dr. Meyer has traveled all over the world in his scientific search for overcoming scourges of both mankind and animals. He is credited with developing the method of eliminating the Bubonic Plague.

In his travels Dr. Meyer has taken thousands of pictures. He illustrates his discussion with colored slides.

Every member is urged to come and hear Dr. Meyer. A capacity crowd is anticipated.

Initiation of new members will be held. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Ducks Unlimited Shoot Set For This Weekend

Calling all duck hunters — let's step up and be counted. Each year at this time the annual drive for funds is held.

This Saturday and Sunday, July 18 and 19, the annual Benefit Skeet and Trap Shoot for "Ducks Unlimited" will be held, when hundreds of scatter gun artists will gather from every section of the state to test their skill and shooting ability.

On Sunday the annual awards will be given, at which time scores of awards from a Pontiac automobile, Trailorboat, trailer and motor, freezer, TV, refrigerator and over 50 other valuable awards will be presented.

Chairman Emil Bianco requests that all participants who have received tickets to send in their returns immediately to him at Bianco Motors, San Rafael.

On the same ticket a companion award will be made at Stockton on Aug. 18, at which time the same list of awards will be given away.

Remember, two years ago one of the capital prizes, an automobile, was won by a San Rafael club member.

"Ducks Unlimited" is one of the greatest conservation organizations in the country. Through their efforts the duck population has been saved for posterity. Breeding, resting and rearing lakes and marshes have been filled with water to their former state.

Millions of dollars has been spent in reclamation in Canada in order to replenish the duck flyways in the United States.

First reports this year were very discouraging. However, in the prairie provinces, heavy rains and excellent late duck hatches will provide a normal supply of ducks.

Don't forget. Send it your tickets now and help with this great conservation work.

Next Session Of Auxiliary Set July 28

The next regular meeting of the Auxiliary Ladies of the Marin Rod and Gun Club will be July 28, 1959 at the Clubhouse, Pt. San Quentin at 8 p.m.

The fishing at the pier has been very good with several of our members getting their share. There has been not dates set for our group as the pier will be closed for a while due to repairs.

The trout fishing has slowed down due to the hot weather and the low water.

Our President Mrs. Steve Lato is busy getting her committee together for the dessert booth at the annual picnic.

September 19, will be another big project as we will be having another one of our spaghetti dinners at the Clubhouse.

We are still taking in members, if you are interested in joining the Auxiliary. For information call our secretary Mrs. William Murray GL 4-2827 or Mrs. Steve Lato DU 8-5957. You must have an affiliation with the Rod and Gun Club such as, husband, son, father or brother or are the unremarried widow of a deceased member in good standing at the time of his death. This does not permit the husbands of married daughters or sisters the use of the pier.

Regular meeting July 28, 8 p.m. Refreshments, entertainment and initiation. Husbands invited.

Commute Club Officer Lashes Bridge Board

A Marin commuter club official charged today that "I wasn't even accorded the courtesy of being allowed to finish my speech," when he tried to explain a commuter problem to the finance committee of the Golden Gate Bridge board yesterday.

Thomas D. Hardcastle, secretary-treasurer of the Novato Commuters Club and former president of the county's federated commuter clubs, directed the charge at William D. Hadeler of San Francisco, finance committee chairman and former president of the bridge board.

Hardcastle said Hadeler interrupted his presentation and insisted that the board has always treated commuters very well and the commuters have no reason to complain.

Hardcastle was asking the committee to recommend an extension of the time limit on the new bridge commute books.

The books, which went into effect July 1, contain 52 tickets or 26 round-trips and sell for $9. The trouble is, said Hardcastle, that they are good only for the month in which they are purchased and the following month.

This is all right for a person who buys a book early in a calendar month, Hardcastle declared, but if a person's book expires near the end of a month and he buys a new one, he can't under ordinary commuting conditions, use it up by the end of the next month.

The only solution is to pay cash tolls for a few days and defer buying a commute book until the beginning of a new month, he said. This is, in effect, a penalty on the commuter, he complained.

Hardcastle said some members of the committee appeared to understand the commuters' plight, and put the matter over to their next meeting for further discussion.

Actor Arrested As 8th Suspect In Dope Case

Thomas Otis Erhart Jr., 30, Sausalito actor who lives on the waterfront at 358 Litho street, became the eighth suspect in a continuing Sausalito narcotics case when he was arrested about 2:30 p.m. yesterday at his home, charged with possessing and furnishing narcotics.

Sausalito Police Chief Howard Goerndt said Erhart is the sixth adult to be arrested in connection with a case of narcotics violations and rape charges touched off June 29 when a 16-year-old San Anselmo girl was picked up in the early morning in the Marinship area.

Yesterday's arrest followed a continuing investigation by Donald E. Midyett of the district attorney's office and Sausalito police. The arrest was made by Police Sgt. David Cooper, Officers Robert Borzone and Peter Lampros, and Midyett.

Goerndt said that in addition to the apprehension of six adults and two juveniles in Marin, several adults have been picked up in San Francisco in connection with same case.

He said Erhart's arrest followed an investigation which disclosed a quantity of marijuana seeds in his car.

Erhart is starring at the Gate Playhouse in Sausalito in "Visit to a Small Planet," which is scheduled to conclude a long run this weekend.

Many Groups To Participate In Festival

Many groups have signed up to work for the 60th Annual Grape Festival which will be held this year on Saturday, Oct. 3, at the Sunny Hills home grounds in San Anselmo.

Mrs. Charles Murray, chairman of community groups, announces that the San Francisco Council of Campfire Girls will again participate. Officers for this group are Mrs. W. R. Meyer, president; Mrs. W. S. Corvin, vice president; Mrs. G. McConney, secretary; Mrs. R. Borovoy, treasurer; Mrs. P. Algeo, booth chairman; Mrs. G. Imbert publicity chairman; and Mrs. W. G. Fairfield, program chairman.

"Gifts for Parents" is the name of the booth the Campfire Girls decorate and are responsible for, doing their own selling even though they are under adult supervision at all times.

The Marin County Girl Scout Council will again participate and staff the Coca Cola booth under the direction of Mrs. John Detwiler of San Anselmo. This is a popular booth and the Scouts from all over the county are active in seeing that the thirst is adequately quenched of the many who attend on Grape Festival Day.

SIGMA KAPPA

Silver Fizz Brunch To Be Held Sunday

The patio of the San Anselmo home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Duhamel will again this year be the setting for the annual silver fizz brunch of the Marin County Alumnae Chapter of Sigma Kappa which will be held on Sunday, July 19.

Mrs. Robert Hosmer of Terra Linda, chairman of the brunch, has announced that the serving of fizzes will begin at 11 and that reservations may be made by calling her. All Sigma Kappas in the area are invited to attend. Assisting Mrs. Hosmer are Mesdames Arthur Jollymour Jr., president of the group, Robert Judd, Dorr Grover and Duhamel.

In addition to the committee members and their husbands, some of the couples attending the brunch will be Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Thompson, Elmo Brown, Robert Brewer and Allen Caldwell. Mrs. Caldwell is a former president of the chapter and she and her husband are now living in Napa.

At a recent meeting of the chapter held at the Terra Linda home of Mrs. Brown, the brunch and other events for coming year were discussed. These include a guest speaker at the September meeting, a pot luck dinner at the Mill Valley home of Mrs. Grover in October, a Christmas party and a fund-raising event to benefit the San Francisco Chapter of the National Hemophelia Foundation, which is the group's local philanthropy.

Mrs. Thompson, the chapter's Panhellenic delegate, announced that the annual Panhellenic luncheon and fashion show will be Aug. 12 at the Marin Art and Garden Center. Miss Mildred Dunshee is to represent the group in the fashion show while Mesdames Judd and Grover will serve as waitresses for the luncheon. Many members of the chapter and their guests are planning to attend

'PLAY DAY' IS PLANNED BY AUXILIARY

Just for fun is a "Play Day" luncheon being planned by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Southern Marin Recreation Center for Wednesday, July 22. Bridge will follow the 12:30 o'clock luncheon, which is one of the monthly series. Swimming and tennis will also be available. The bar will be open for cocktails at 12 o'clock.

Hostess for this luncheon is Mrs. J. M. Stubblebine. Reservations may be made by calling either Mrs. Howard McGill or Mrs. John Hoffmire, both of Tiburon and must be in by the Monday preceding the luncheon.

Nadine Conner To Be Feted At Reception

The beautiful hill-top home of Judge and Mrs. Carlos F. Freitas, Oakmont avenue, San Rafael, will be the setting for a reception in honor of Nadine Conner, leading soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, following her recital Sunday afternoon, July 19, in Forest Meadows, as guest artist on the Marin Music Chest Summer Concert Series.

In private life Miss Conner is the wife of Dr. Lawrence Heacock, whom she married in 1939. They have two children, Lauren David, 12, and Sue Lynn, 14.

This petite auburn haired, hazel eyed opera star designs all her own individual costumes for the roles she sings and has had more to do with the recent costume revolution in opera than anyone else. During the Metropolitan Opera Season she lives in a New York penthouse, but her heart is never very far away from the low rambling house in Compton, Calif., that she calls home.

Radio and television fans know Nadine Conner from her frequent appearances on "The Voice of Firestone" and other programs of this type. Her operatic repertoire includes leading roles in "Traviata," "Boheme," "Carmen," "Rosenkavalier," "Don Giovanni," "Hansel and Gretel." The versatility of her voice is such that she has been starred in the difficult coloratura roles of "Rigoletto" and "The Barber of Seville."

Judge and Mrs. Freitas' guest list include members of the executive board and artistic council of the Marin Music Chest. This is Judge Freitas' second year as president of this unique musical organization, the only one of its kind in the entire country.

Koshare Indians Perform For Girl Scouts At Colo. Centennial

By VICKI EMERSON

COLORADO SPRINGS — A hush fell over the crowd of 15,000 gathered in the outdoor amphitheater at the 1959 Girl Scout Roundup as the colors were retired for the evening, and then the Colorado Centennial program was under way!

The Centennial, celebrating the "Rush to the Rockies" was attended by 10,000 Girl Scouts and 5,000 observers, which was only a fourth of the visitors that we had during the day.

The program began with "The Ride of the Colors," which was presented by a trick riding group called the Westernaires. This was followed by the reading of a message from President Eisenhower and Mrs. Charles Culmer, National Girl Scout President.

Then came a spectacular performance by the Koshare Indian Dancers. The group is made up of about 500 Eagle Scouts from La Junta, Colo. whose interests tend toward bringing back ancient tribal dances which have been lost through civilization.

After a three hour celebration 8,500 tired and cold girls left the large arena and made their ways to one of 6,000 tents.

Early the next morning, our section of the Roundup, which contains 1,700 girls, left for a tour of the Air Force Academy and the Garden of the Gods, a state park containing beautiful rock formations and trees. A barbecued lunch followed the tour at the Flying W Ranch outside of Colorado Springs. While eating barbecued beef and sipping icy lemonade we were seranaded by four Western singers, who were of special interest to those from the New England states.

Another interesting attraction for our patrol came on Saturday, July 11, when we are taken on a tour of the Administration area of the Roundup by Mrs. H. C. Schuckle, chairman of the national personnel committee. Our tour included meeting such people as Mrs. Culmer, the national president, Miss Dorothy Stratton, national Executive Director of the Girl Scouts, and Miss Oleta Schrotkey, national staff member in charge of the Centennial Celebration. Other introductions included Miss Catherine Hammett, camping director, and Miss Margaret Chapman, director of the Roundup.

The day of our departure is drawing nearer as we continue our swapping and making new friends—these two things seem endless, for out of 8,500 girls, it is only possible to meet about 500.

I hope to have a summary of our wonderful trip and our experiences when the Golden Hind patrol from Marin returns later this week.

COLLECTION PREVIEW

Show Will Feature Fashions For Fall

What will be the "Fashion Forecasts for Fall?"

Will it be longer skirts and hip length jackets, earth colors and daring sleeves? Will it be a pretty, feminine fall or mannish and tailored?

To begin to answer the important new fashion questions, Fashion Focus, the popular Tuesday series at Rickeys, has arranged a varied group of fall fashion previews to present the collections of outstanding American designers in the field of active sportswear, country casuals, town classics, after five, theater and opera gowns. Some of the collections featured will be custom originals, exclusive and more expensive; others will be moderate to inexpensive, but each chosen because it adds significantly to the fall fashion story.

Tuesday, July 21 is the date for the first of the special preview showings and will introduce the versatile, colorful collection of the young California designer, Jackie Morgan. Thirty of his fall fshions which will be featured in important shops throughout the country in a few weeks will be flown up from Los Angeles especially for next Tuesday's show. Locally Jackie Morgan is carried by Luana's of San Rafael who are supervising the fitting of the collection to eight of Marin's most popular models.

Honored group at the first "Fashion Forecast for Fall" will be the Marin Volunteers, an enthusiastic group of civic-minded women who offer financial and volunteer aid to the Senior Citizens Coordinating Council and whose unique shop "Trade Whims" gives an additional source of revenue to the Council.

On Tuesday, the Jackie Morgan collection will be modeled informally among the gay umbrella tables around the pool, the nicest way to be introduced to fall fashions. The designs will particularly appeal to the woman who appreciates a moderate price tag, but demands the most fashion for her money. There will be town suits, costume ensembles, city wools and late day looks emphasizing the unique color and fabric combinations which give great individuality to each Jackie Morgan fashion.

Walter's Coiffure Studio of San Rafael will create hair styles to compliment the Jackie Morgan designs

The Fashion Focus luncheons are open to the public with reservations for the 12:30 o'clock luncheon and 1 p.m. fashions made by calling Rickey's.

ST. PAUL'S Episcopal Church in San Rafael was the setting for the recent wedding of Elizabeth Ann Wolcott of Fairfax, and Robert Lee Hanson of Pittsburg and Stockton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wolcott of Fairfax.

Elizabeth Wolcott Weds Robert Hanson

In a candlelight ceremony at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael, Elizabeth Ann Wolcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wolcott of Fairfax, became the bride of Robert Lee Hanson of Pittsburg, Calif.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ray Hanson of Pittsburg and the late Mr. Hanson.

White gladioli decorated the altar for the recent ceremony, with the Rev. Henry Getz officiating.

When the bride entered on the arm of her father, she wore a full length gown of white satin and lace fashioned with long sleeves and scalloped neckline. It had seed pearls appliqued on the bodice and waist. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a seed pearl coronet and she carried a white prayerbook centered with white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Cecilia Jane Wolcott, as maid of honor for her sister, wore an apple green gown of organza styled with satin trim of the same color with bow at the bodice. She had a white satin headdress and white shoes and carried a cascade bouquet of coral and white carnations.

Joan Monaghan of Novato Mrs. Charlotte Gunter of San Rafael, bridesmaids, were dressed like the maid of honor. They carried circular bouquets of coral and white carnations.

Theresa Wolcott, the bride's younger sister, and Lorrie Elliott, a cousin, were flower girls.

John Bankson of Pittsburg was best man and ushers were George Wolcott, the bride's brother, and Neil Collier of Walnut Creek.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wolcott wore a dress of beige embroidered silk with beige accessories and a white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother chose a navy silk dress and had a white orchid corsage.

A reception for 200 guests followed at the bride's home where the fireplace was banked with evergreens and carnations and cut flowers were placed throughout the rooms.

For a wedding trip to Southern California and Mexico, the bride wore a mint dress with patent accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride, who is the sister of George, Ken, Cecilia, James, Harriett, Virginia, Thomas, Joe, and Theresa Wolcott of Fairfax, was graduated from the Portland (Ore.) High School and attended College of Marin. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lloyd of Ashley, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wolcott of Ashley are her grandparents.

The bridegroom was graduated from Pittsburg High School and attended both Diablo Valley Jr. College and San Francisco State College. He is completing his education at College of Pacific in Stockton where he is a member of the Veteran's Club. He is employed at the MAC Discount House in Stockton.

After July 20, the couple will take up their residence at 6413 N. Pershing, Stockton.

'WILLOW LOOK'

Forecast Of Fall Fashions: Bounce Back To Normal

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—If the fashion house of Christian Dior has any shockers up its sleeve for fall, it is saving them for the lated show in Paris.

The American-made wholesale collection is without innovation. It joins the rest of Seventh avenue, the nation's garment center, in a bounce back to normal.

The collection is called the "Willow Look," which I presume means the clothes will make us wisps of slimness even if we have the trunk of an oak.

It was described at a show fashion reporters yesterday as "emphasizing both suppleness of line and freedom of motion."

Shoulders are a little wider than last fall, but without exageration. Often the shoulder seam is dropped. Waistlines are where nature designed them, frequently cinched with wide belts or crushed cummerbunds. Skirts are 1½ inches longer than last fall, or comfortably covering the knee cap.

Suit jackets come in several lengths, although the trend is toward the longer, wrist length. Several are double-breasted.

The Dior designer, Yves St. Laurent, likes the collarless coat, with half the belt at the back and the collarless, belted suit with a fur ascot tucked in the neckline.

In some late day and evening fashions, the bell skirt of the old, old "New Look" (1947) is back, even to petticoats beneath.

Traditionally, the New York collection is a well-mannered one. The young designer follows the lead of the late Dior in saving the grand coup for the Paris custom collection, scheduled for July 30 this year.

Another up-and-coming young designer, Bill Blass, turned to masculine leisure wear for ideas. His clothes for Maurice Rentner included "Smoking Jacket" costumes — Long jackets in fine woolens or metallic brocades, tied casually with self belts. The jackets are shown over simple dresses, or with contrasting blouses and slim skirts. Some of the jackets are collared in fox.

Two strips of fox also trim the skirt of a cape and dress costume — running vertically from waist to hem.

Mollie Parnis, Mamie Eisenhower's favorite designer, turns to Mamie's husband for inspiration for a collection of late day, or church-going dress and jacket costumes. One outfit in black satin consists of dress with collarless neckline cut to a modest V, topped with an Eisenhower jacket, replica of one the president made famous in his World War II days.

Miss Parnis' favorite daytime silhouette is the Cavalier tunic —with simple, unadorned bodice and with slightly belted tunic coming to the mid-thigh. The waistline is belted.

Highlights of other collections shown visiting reporters were:

Jane Derby — the designer showed several shirtwaists, the tunic suit, cummerbunds wrapping waistlines, and the "apron" look for evening. The aprons, made in moire, lace or printed taffeta were worn over sleek dinner dresses.

Hannah Troy — She goes overboard for the costume — a neat, well-fitted dress under matching jacket. Many of the jackets are fur trimmed.

HISTORIC TREASURE BEING TAKEN TO CANADA BY DUO

When Miss Wylma Cunningham and Miss Eloise Mays left by car on a transcontinental journey Thursday they took with them a historic treasure, two books showing purchases and expenditures for the building of McGill University, Montreal, Canada. The entries in the books, which will be presented by Miss Cunningham to the university, were made by her great great grandfather, William Lauder, the builder of the university. He had come from Scotland with his brother, Andrew Lauder, William Redparth and Dr. McGill, for whom the university was named. Miss Cunningham's ancestor also built the first bank in Montreal and several other large structures. A distant cousin, Charles Waller, will show Miss Cunningham the house in which her family had lived and the church and school they attended.

Miss Cunningham and Miss Mays will drive from Canada through the New England states to New York where Miss Cunningham will attend a meeting of the Pillsbury School Advisory Council. They'll travel to Washington, D. C. and then begin their return trip, stopping en route to visit some of Miss Myas' relatives.

Simple Hairdo Is Best For Vacation

It's a wise girl who goes to the hairdresser before she starts her vacation.

"If you wait until you get to the resort, you may not find a hairdresser or a hair style you like," advises hair stylist V. George of New York.

George suggests to every girl planning a season in sun, wind and water to have her hair thinned before buying her train ticket.

"The hair should be thinned out where it grows in bunches," he says. "These strategic spots hold the styling, and there is less wave and only a slight curve to hair styles this season."

Once your favorite hairdresser thins and shapes your hair, you'll be hair-happy on vacation, George points out, because the keynote to easy manageability is to get rid of the hair that throws the head off balance.

"Your hair does not need to be cut short. If it is thinned properly, it may be worn at any length," he explains.

George recommends bangs to those girls who can wear them, saying:

"A hairdo with bangs makes an easy-to-manage hairstyle when bathing, and may be recombed for evening dates. Bangs that start quite far back on the crown of the head give a curve rather than a wave to bangs."

He likes hair up to 3½ inches at the sides, bangs about three inches or less and hair at the back to clear the neckline. It's cooler and easier to manage in hot dog weather, he says.

George teaches his clients how to recomb their hair so it can be managed in two fashions —day and evening—in between visits to the hair salon. He prefers a loose, natural, soft, basic permanent, the basis for a lasting hairstyle.

Mrs. Pedersen Entertains At Luncheon

A "glad-to-be-home" luncheon was given Tuesday afternoon in her Mill Valley home by Mrs. K. W. Pedersen.

Fourteen guests were interested in hearing a review of the Pedersen's recent adventures in Bankok, Hong Kong, Japan and other places in the Orient. They spent an active two months revisiting the places where they had lived many years before moving permanently to Mill Valley in 1949.

As an export manager for the Danish East Asiatic Co., Pedersen lived 25 years in China, and his wife lived there 16 years.

Exhibited as a prize "trophy" was a beautiful statue of the Chinese goddess of Mercy, Quan Yin, which they found in Kyoto, Japan. It makes up to some extent, they feel, for the many treasures they lost when Hong Kong was occupied during World War II.

Present to hear the colorfully related experiences of the Pedersens were Mesdames Raleigh Garaghty, Martin, Gordon, Fred Vandyke, Charles Durrie, Richard Harding, Richard Ryder, James Langdon, J. B. Winterling, George Hildreth and Jane Duncombe, Nevin Kempthorne, Elizabeth Vreeland, and Harriet Walton.

Each guest received a lovely gift purchased by the Pedersens during their travels.

'Moonlight Mood' Will Be Theme Of CYO Dance

"Moonlight Mood" is the theme the students have selected for the next CYO dance to be held at the St. Raphael's Auditorium, Thursday, July 16, from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. The decorating committee, Kathy, Morphy, Beth Hartmann, Cookie Fagundes, Cynthia Shone, Diane Ghilotti, Kathy Rich, Mary Lucas, Steve Reems, Bill Nelson, Linda Redpath, Eddie O'Connel and Alan Bovee are students from Marin Catholic, San Rafael High and Dominican. Students fro all high schools are welcomed, also eighth grade graduates.

Marinite Buys Steam Beer Plant In S.F.

Lawrence Steese of Marin City has purchased the equipment of the Anchor Steam Brewery in San Francisco and may put the historic firm back into business in Marin County.

Steese said he and "a silent partner" have purchased all the brewery's equipment and may move it to another site—either in Marin or San Francisco.

LAST PLANT

Joe Allen, 71, owner-operator-brewmaster of the firm, announced a month ago that he was giving up the brewery, last of the steam beer plants.

Steese said the Anchor plant has stopped operating and the corporation is selling the equipment but not the property.

"We must find a stone or brick building to house and operate the equipment," Steese said, "and we hope it will be soon." He said he and his partner hope to start their operation before Thanksgiving Day. He added that a source of pure water was essential, and indicated that Marin water is satisfactory.

POTENTIAL BUYERS

Owner Allen, in selling the equipment, said: "The reams of publicity on my decision to quit brought innumerable potential buyers. But I turned down all the Ivy-League briefcase boys because they didn't look like they would be the type to carry on the old Anchor steam beer tradition."

He said Steese impressed him as a sincere type who would carry on the tradition "as it should be done."

Reconditioning Ships

TEXAS CITY, Tex. (AP)—Some Texas fleet tanker operators now cut their ships in half—right across the middle — in a radical new plan they call "jumboizing." The surgery takes away an old, worn-out mid-section. Then a larger mid-section is inserted. Result: A bigger, better oil tanker with the same power and speed at a fraction of the cost of a new vessel, and done in a fraction of the time required to build a new ship.

IT'S MAN IN THE MARKET NOW

Radio Station KTIM's "Man on the Street" becomes the "Man in the Market" this week, as station manager Hugh Turner interviews shoppers at the new United Market in San Anselmo. The program will be on the air from 11:30 a.m. to noon, daily through Friday. Here, Turner gets comments of Mrs. James Spencer of San Anselmo—who in turn gets an assist from year-old son, Michael Charles. (Independent-Journal photo)

Kennecott Copper Corp. Cuts Price

NEW YORK (AP)—Kennecott Copper Corp., the nation's largest producer of the metal, has cut its price one-and-one-half cents a pound to 30 cents a pound, effective today.

The move reverses an upward trend in producer prices ever since June, 1958, which had carried the metal up from its recession low of 25 cents a pound.

Custom smelters of copper have been reducing their price for several weeks, cutting to 29 cents a pound yesterday.

Give Children A Check-Up To Spot Health Problems

Do you give children regular medical check-ups? Then you can spot health problems before they get serious. Summer is a good time for the check-ups. I suggest you take your children to the doctor soon. Have him give them complete physical exams and talk with him about his findings.

Be sure to ask him about food and nutrition. I'm sure you intend to give your youngsters balanced diets. But you may be missing something. Some of our most popular children's foods are surprisingly low in food value. Your doctor can tell you about it.

How about your children's eyes? Has their vision ever been tested by a qualified eye specialist? A surprising number of children have unsuspected eye defects. They don't know they see things differently. They can't tell you. But an eye specialist can. Each year I go over the records of a large group of children who are far behind in reading at school. About one-third of them have unsuspected eye problems. Don't depend on the vision tests given at school. They aren't adequate. Have a specialist do the job. Have him repeat it every few years.

Do your children hear well? That question is especially important if they seem a little slow at school. A shocking proportion of the kids labeled dumb at school aren't dumb at all. They just have unsuspected hearing losses. They can't follow the teacher's directions. They catch on slowly. A good many of them come to resent their seeming dumbness. They start fighting back. That may be why so many of our juvenile delinquents have hearing losses. Be sure to have a specialist check your children's ears at least once while they're young.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "What can schools do to help pupils with moderate hearing loss?"

(A) Schools should have lip reading teachers help those with moderate loss. They can stay in the regular classes with special help. Schools should set up special full-time classes for those with severe loss, or with no hearing at all. Many schools already are doing this.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, July 14, the 195th day of the year, with 170 more days in 1959.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The evening stars are Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Mercury.

On this date in history:

In 1789, citizens of Paris stormed the Bastille and released the king's political prisoners.

In 1858, President Franklin Pierce opened the World's Fair in New York City.

In 1870, Congress granted a pension of $3,000 to President Lincoln's widow.

In 1921, the anarchists Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti were convicted of murder in one of the nation's most controversial cases.

In 1940, Russia annexed Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

In 1945, Supreme Headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Forces, also known as SHAEF, went out of existence at Frankfurt, Germany, 17 months and one day after it was organized.

A thought for today: Mark Twain said, "Loyalty to petrified opinion never yet broke a chain or freed a human soul."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

ELIMINATION OF DETOURS TO SAN QUENTIN

This map, supplied by the state Division of Highways, shows all detours along State Sign Route 17 between San Quentin wye in San Rafael and the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge have been eliminated. The full freeway with two lanes in each direction went into operation yesterday. The map shows the freeway and connections. There is still some minor work to be done on shoulders, fences and in general cleanup. Work on the 1.9-mile section, which cost $767,400, began last October.

Marin Anti-Brucellosis Program Given Praise

Marin County was lauded as a pioneer and missionary in dairy improvement as the state Department of Agriculture presented a county brucellosis-free certificate yesterday.

"The certificate was due last April so we're slightly behind," apologized Dr. Arthur Boyd, director of animal health for the department, in giving the document to Walter R. Castro, chairman of the board of supervisors, at a luncheon of the Marin County Farm Bureau board of directors at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

Boyd said Marin was "the first county of any major dairying state to undertake a brucellosis program" but that now all but one county has signed up.

Brucellosis, a bovine disease, is carried in milk to give rise to undulant fever in human beings. The certificant warrants that brucellosis infection exists in not more than 1 per cent of cattle and not more than 5 per cent of herds.

"We should seek to get rid of bovine brucellosis completely," said Joe Hart, president of the brucellosis committee of the California Farm Bureau.

Commenting that "California carried the weight of the vaccination program in the United States" during earlier days, Hart said that though brucellosis has not been completely eliminated, there must be continued vaccination "because this is a matter affecting the public health." In time, he said, brucellosis should be completely wiped out.

In accepting the certificate, Castro expressed pride in the expression of appreciation of Marin dairymen's efforts. Other speakers stressed Marin's role of leadership and said there has been heavy cost, but finally correspondingly great gain.

Munro's Partner Has Appropriate Name

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Attorney Russell S. Munro, former director of the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Department, got himself a law partner yesterday.

His new associate's name: Donald J. Licker.

Bill Increases State's Take From Abandoned Property

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed legislation which is expected to bring in millions of dollars to the state treasury from abandoned property.

Announcing the signing yesterday, the governor's office estimated it would net the state $2,250,000 in general fund revenue this year and approximately $3,250,000 during 1960-61.

The bill by Assemblyman Allen Miller (D-San Fernando) establishes a 15-year dormant period before bank deposits are presumed abandoned and escheated to the state. The present period is 20 years.

The legislation also provides for regular reports to be filed with the state controller by holders of abandoned property. Other provisions are expected to increase state income from abandoned stock dividends and share interests.

Brown signed other bills, including:

RECREATION — Transfers the Recreation Commission to the Department of Natural Resources and creates a Division of Recreation; by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Richmond).

POLICE — Creates Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, including attorney general and nine members appointed by governor; Assemblyman George G. Crawford (R-San Diego).

STREETS — Permits a county, after notice and hearing, to close county streets and highways to commercial vehicles exceeding 14,000 pounds if streets cannot support such vehicles; Assemblyman William Biddick Jr. (D-Stockton).

BENEFITS — Repeals provision allowing director of employment to reduce unemployment insurance benefits based on condition of benefit fund; Assemblyman Carlos Bee (D-Hayward).

INSURANCE — Defines and prohibits unfair methods of competition in insurance industry; Assemblyman John O'Connell (D-San Francisco).

Planner Must Go To Jail In Marijuana Case

John Leslie Smith, 43-year-old Muir Beach planner who is serving a six-month jail term at night and weekends for marijuana possession, tried unsuccessfully yesterday to be freed from the jail term.

Attorney John Rockwell, representing Smith, said the planner must go to Sacramento and Los Angeles on important engineering jobs such as a water conservation dam for Frank's Valley and development of Muir Woods. Smith has already served three months and 13 days of his six month term. Rockwell declared that Smith has completely rehabilitated.

But Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich opposed the motion. "He has already received unusually lenient treatment," said Weissich. The district attorney pointed out Smith could have been charged with a prior conviction of bringing in marijuana, and also selling the narcotic, which could have given him a state prison sentence.

"I'm inclined to agree with Mr. Weissich," said Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court. "I don't see how it can be cut any deeper." Judge Keating denied the motion to eliminate the work-furlough sentence. But if Smith must make trips to Sacramento and to Los Angeles, the judge would consider a special order.

Waterfront Group Plans 2-Day Carnival

The Sausalito Preservation Assn., composed primarily of Sausalito waterfront residents, will sponsor a carnival Aug. 8 and 9 carrying the title of "The Waterfront Affair," according to David X. Lee, chairman.

It is slated to be held in the Gate 3 area of Marinship which is reached by the entrance opposite Nevada street.

Plans for the carnival will be discussed at a general meeting of the association which has been called for tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. in the auditorium at 3030 Bridgeway, Lee announced.

The carnival is tentatively being planned to include street dancing and entertainment of various types.

It will be held concurrently and in cooperation with the annual Sausalito cooperative Art Fair which will be held in the municipal parking lot at the opposite end of town, Lee said.

Recreation Commission Calls Off Meeting
